Mont Avron Silent Wednesday—German Explanation of its Bombardment.

A despatch from Versailles dated yesterday states that Mont Avron is silent to-day, but the forts in the neighborhood reply to the fire of the German guns.

WHY THE FORT IS BOMBARDED.

A Berlin telegram of to-day's date reports that the government organs say that Mont Avron was the first position attacked by the Prussians, in order to obtain a standpoint from which to operate against the adjacent outlying forts of Paris.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE GENERAL SHELTERING.

The Prussian Correspondence adds that the bombardment of Mont Avron may be considered as the introduction to the general sheltering of Paris, inasmuch as its capture will greatly facilitate operations against the French capital.

Later from Paris—Cold Weather Suspending Operations—Preparations Going On—Popular Confidence Unabated—Saxons Dislodged—Versailles Untenable.

Advices from Paris by balloon have been received down to four o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, the 27th.

POPULAR CONFIDENCE UNABATED.

The citizens and soldiers were in excellent spirits, and were still determined on a vigorous defence.

COLD WEATHER SUSPENDING MILITARY OPERATIONS.

The intensely cold weather had suspended military operations in good part. Preparations were, however, making on a large scale and important results were looked for. These preparations had imbued the inhabitants with increased confidence.

SAXONS DISLODGED FROM MAISON BLANCHE.

The French engines of war were daily growing more formidable. On Monday the mobilized National Guard dislodged a battalion of Saxons from the park of Maison Blanche.

VERSAILLES UNTENABLE.

Advices from Paris state that new fortifications have been completed by the French beyond Mont Valerien, which throw shells beyond Versailles. That city is therefore now considered untenable for the Prussians.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE EAST.

Dijon Occupied by the French—Retreat of the Prussians—The Eastern Departments Aroused.

Bordeaux, Dec. 29, 1870.

M. Gambetta arrived here to-day from Lyons.

OCCUPATION OF DIJON BY THE FRENCH.

Official despatches just received announce that the Prussians hastily evacuated Dijon at the approach of the French forces. This is the first result of the campaign undertaken in the East by orders of the War Department, and which was hastened by the exertions of M. Gambetta at Lyons.

CONFIRMATION OF THE NEWS.

A despatch from Chalon-sur-Saone, dated December 28, says that the advanced guard of General Garibaldi's army entered Dijon that morning.

THE EASTERN DEPARTMENTS ROUSED.

The entire population of the Eastern departments is fully roused by the emergency of the situation and assist the troops to the utmost in all battles and skirmishes. The government is taking measures for the distribution of arms among the people everywhere.

GERMANS RETREATING IN THE EAST OF FRANCE—FRUSSIA REPUDED AT BELFORT.

LONDON, Dec. 29, 1870.

The Germans in the Eastern departments are retreating. They have already evacuated the town of Gray, in the valley of the Saone.

PRUSSIA REPUDED TWICE AT BELFORT.

A despatch from Strasbourg announces that the Germans have stormed the French fortress of Belfort twice recently. In both cases they were repulsed with considerable loss.

LONDON, Dec. 29, 1870.

The Prussians on Monday advanced to and occupied Bahaume, fourteen miles south-southwest from Arras.

ANOTHER BATTLE NEAR HAVRE IMMINENT.

The Prussians on Wednesday occupied the line between Douai and Sainpierre, and were apparently concentrating their forces behind the town of Boboe, where an engagement with the French defenders of Havre is imminent. The Prussians have evacuated the left bank of the Seine, there is still a large force at Yvetot.

AD FOR MANTUFFEL.

It is reported that the Crown Prince and the Duke of Saxony have been sent to Amiens to assist General Mantuffel. The Germans are now near Cambrai. It is said the French Army of the North has left Arras, retreating towards Vitry, and it was thought were falling back on their strongholds in the extreme north of France.

FRENCH DENIAL OF FAUCHER'S DEFEAT.

A despatch from Lille, dated December 27, states that official contradiction is given to the despatches of the Prussians which falsely represent the battle of Fort Noiselles as a German victory and claim to have taken some French troops prisoners. Not a single Frenchman was captured.

PRUSSIAN LOSSES.

The Prussians have lost heavily in battle and from sickness in the North and Northeast of France. The villages are encumbered with German wounded. Great numbers of the German soldiers are suffering from ophthalmia.

There are 18,000 sick and wounded Germans at Chalon-sur-Marne.

Conspiracy of French Prisoners to Escape—It is Foiled.

LONDON, Dec. 29, 1870.

The NEW YORK HERALD correspondent at Berlin telegraphs under date of yesterday that conspiracies were discovered last week among the French prisoners confined in the fortresses of Cologne, Coblenz and Mayence, all on the Rhine. Their numbers at the three places cannot be less than fifty thousand. They intended, at a meeting to be held on Christmas Eve, to disarm their guards and fight their way back to France. Immediately upon the conspiracy being discovered the German troops were held in readiness and thus prevented an outbreak.

VIVE LA REPUBLIQUE!

LIBERTE, EGALITE, FRATERNITE.

Enthusiastic Display in the Cause of France—The French Democratic Central Club in Procession—The Scene at the Cooper Institute—Speeches of Mr. Thayer, John Michel, Algernon Sullivan and Others.

A grand demonstration was made at the Cooper Institute last night in favor of the French republic. It was, perhaps, one of the most enthusiastic gatherings that ever assembled within the walls of the building, and far surpassed the most sanguine and earnest anticipations of the organizers of the meeting, which was held under the auspices of the French Democratic Central Club. The circular letter by which that association set forth the object of the meeting, which was "to take steps to procure a manifestation of sympathy and moral support from the people of New York in favor of the French republic, now struggling for life."

THE MOVING MASSES OF PATRIOTS.

The French Democratic Central Club, numbering over 2,000 persons, in pursuance of a resolution passed at a recent meeting, appealed to the citizens of all nations, desiring the triumph of liberty, to come forward on behalf of the infant republic, asking all to remember that in 1793 the Frenchmen of that day gave their swords and their purses to the sacred cause of liberty. The response was in every respect unanimous and sincere, and a more glorious exhibition of true patriotic feeling has not often been exhibited by any similar assemblage. Shortly after six o'clock the neighborhood of Seventh avenue and Twenty-second street, where the headquarters of the club is situated, presented quite a gay and lively appearance. A procession consisting of the members of the association and numerous sympathizers of the cause was formed at half-past six o'clock, and headed by a band, proceeded towards the Cooper Institute. A brilliant calcium light, which brought up the rear, shed quite a lustre on the tri-color waved conspicuously in the air, and most of those participating in the procession wore appropriate badges. The most harmonious feeling prevailed, and as the march was organized and highly respectable body passed along the streets cheer after cheer gave unmistakable evidence that

THE CAUSE WAS HEARTILY EXPRESSED.

Immediately on the doors of the Institute being thrown open a tremendous rush was made for seats inside and in a short time every available space was occupied. The platform was handsomely decorated with French and American flags, and in the center was a bust of George Washington. Previous to the formal organization of the meeting the band struck up the "Marseillaise," and as the strains of that martial air burst upon the throng a rousing cheer rose up in response. "St. Patrick's Day," cried a voice, and a deafening "roul" drowned the vigorous efforts of the trumpeters. Then followed shouts of "Vive la Republique!" harmonized by mellifluous and stentorian cries of "Long live the Irish Republic!" In fine, between the music and vocal patriotic demonstrations the scene was enthusiastic in the extreme.

Mr. Legrand, President of the French Democratic Central Club, called the meeting to order and stated that General Bartlett, United States Minister to Sweden, had been selected as chairman, and that Mr. Jackson had been elected secretary, who then came forward and read the following resolutions, which were adopted with universal acclamation:

Resolved, That while we deplore and condemn the war of rivalry and of ambition begun by Emperor Napoleon upon Germany for the purpose of fastening his dynasty upon the continent, and which has been rendered more odious and more onerous to the people of France by the Emperor's Prussian ally, we nevertheless deplore the war of rivalry and of ambition begun by Emperor Napoleon upon Germany for the
