FIRST RESULTS OF KELLY'S ACQUITTAL.

TELEGRAMS TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

The following special despatch to the HERALD has been received from our correspondent in the capital of Ireland:—

DUBLIN, Nov. 13, 1871.

Mr. Pigot, editor of the Irishman newspaper, has been tried and sentenced to imprisonment in the city jail during a term of four months for the utterance of a libel on the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench in connection with the Judge's conduct of the trial of Kelly, who has been acquitted of the charge of murdering Head Constable Falbot.

Provincial rejoicing for Kelly's liberation. CORN, Nov. 13, 1871.

The friends of the man Kelly, who was acquitted in Dublin on Friday last of the charge of having murdered Head Constable Falbot of the police, paraded the streets of this city yesterday, and made other demonstrations with the view of evincing their sympathy with Kelly and their approval of the verdict of the jury.

The proceedings were conducted in an orderly manner, and no attempt was made by the police to interfere with the procession.

SAD NEWS FROM SWITZERLAND.

Herald Special Report from Geneva.

Disastrous and Extensive Fire in the Ancient City.

Progress of the Flames and Public Alarm.

Destruction of Property and Danger to the Centre of the Reformation.

TELEGRAM TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

The following special despatch to the HERALD has been received from our special correspondent in Geneva, Switzerland, by way of London:—

LONDON, Nov. 13—P. M.

A very extensive and alarming fire has been raging during some hours past in the city of Geneva, Switzerland.

The telegrams which have been received to this moment state that the conflagration had already swept away two blocks of houses, and that the quay and the Hotel Couronne had been destroyed.

The greatest consternation prevailed among the inhabitants.

The militia had been called out and placed on duty for the preservation of order and property.

THE LATEST NEWS.

The Flames Raging in the Evening and Scenes of Ruin Around.

GENEVA, Nov. 13—Evening.

The fire which broke out in this city this morning continues to-night without abatement.

The Rue Rhone, on which the flames originated, is a scene of ruin, a large number of the buildings thereon having fallen victims to the devouring element.

Sketch of the City of Geneva.

This ancient town is the capital of the Swiss canton of the same name. It is situated on the River Rhone, at its western outlet from Lake Geneva. It is the most populous and most industrious town in Switzerland.

Here is a grand Gothic cathedral and a university academy, the latter founded by Calvin. There is also a college, school of arts, a library, containing 40,000 volumes and manuscripts of rare value; extensive manufactories; the botanic garden, which was commenced by de Candolle in the year 1816; an observatory, museum and many fine churches—Calvinist, Lutheran, Roman Catholic and for Israelite worship. There are also the famous watch factories, which employ over three thousand workmen. Geneva has produced, or sheltered, more men of eminence than any other Old World town of the same extent. In its dwellings were at times Calvin, Cranmer, Beza, Le Sage, Sansure, De Lac, Lefort, Necker, and Rousseau. John Knox resided in the city. Calvin introduced the Protestant reformation in the city in the year 1535. The world will hope that the good old town may be spared from destruction by the fire fiend.
