

THE TREATY. Alleged Success of the Fish-Ratification Lobby.

Exciting Scene in the Assembly—A Call on Bonapartism for Restoration to the Nation—Censure of a Capitulating General.

Schurz, Trumbull and Cassery for the Supplemental Article.

Summer Said To Be Weakening in Opposition.

How the Herald Gets Its News.

Progress of the 'Pon Honor Inquisition.

WASHINGTON, May 22, 1872. The efforts of the State Department lobby to secure the ratification of the Supplemental Treaty continue to realize greater success than was even dreamed of when the article was submitted.

The opposition was dwindled down to Mr. Sumner and a few consistent members who still adhere to the belief that national honor demands a rejection of the British ultimatum. Mr. Sumner, appreciating this fact, and foreseeing the futility of an effort to stay the tide, has abandoned his intention to make a set speech against ratification.

It is possible that Mr. Edmunds may sustain Mr. Sumner, but Messrs. Trumbull, Stevenson and Schurz are now announced to be in favor of ratification. This statement will no doubt startle the majority of American readers, who have believed that Mr. Schurz, with Mr. Cassery, would constitute a minority of the Foreign Relations Committee against ratification; but it is now evident that the committee is UNANIMOUSLY IN FAVOR OF THE ARTICLE as it has been amended. It is true that Mr. Patterson, of the committee, desires a further amendment; but he will not press that amendment to the disadvantage of the pending proposition.

AT THE EXECUTIVE SESSION TO-DAY, which lasted about two hours, nothing of importance was done in connection with the question of ratification. The session was held on motion of Mr. Hamilton, who has recently been exalted to the position of conscience keeper for the entire Senate, for the purpose of

A "PON HONOR" EXAMINATION of each Senator regarding the premature publication of the HERALD of the late correspondence. As soon as the doors were closed and some routine business had been transacted Mr. Hamlin reported from the special investigating committee a resolution calling upon each Senator to give such information as might be in his possession regarding the matter

It is understood that this resolution was in effect categorical, and as soon as it was adopted each member, as his name was called by the Clerk, got up and gave a detailed history of the manner in which he had

PRESERVED THE SECRET entrusted to him. The majority of them explained that they had carefully looked up their copies of the correspondence, and all admitted that they had been interrogated in a more or less direct manner by both government officials in the interest of the State Department and by newspaper men in the interest of their journals regarding its contents and regarding their views of the prospects of ratification. None of them admitted that they had been guilty of any indiscretion, and each vied with the other in efforts to clear his skirts of all suspicion. It is rumored that one gentleman was forced to admit that his copy had been

EXAMINED BY A MEMBER OF HIS FAMILY, and that he pledged his word that it was not improperly used. A few admitted that the copies had not been so carefully guarded, but the declaration that it was impossible for the HERALD representative to have obtained his copy from the Senate was finally unanimous. It is not probable that the matter will be allowed to drop, and

THE GREAT MYSTERY regarding the manner in which the HERALD gets its news will remain unsolved. The question of proceeding with the consideration of the treaty at the present session, so as to avoid the necessity of a special executive session, was then discussed at length. But without arriving at any conclusion the doors were opened and the Senate adjourned.

NOVA SCOTIA. Great Hardships Endured by a Shipwrecked Crew—Travelling Over Sixty Miles of Ice—The Postal Service of Prince Edward's Island.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 22, 1872. The schooner Maria, of Chittenden, Cape Breton, on a sealing voyage, was crushed in the ice on the 28th of April off Bird Island and filled immediately. The captain and crew of seven men, after enduring great hardships and travelling sixty miles on the ice, reached Cape North nearly exhausted.

The Prince Edward's Island government asks tenders for fast schooners to carry the mails between Charlottetown and several parts of the island, and also to Pictou, Nova Scotia and Shediac, New Brunswick.

FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN M. O'RORKE. Captain Michael O'Rorke, who served with distinction in the Sixty-ninth regiment, National Guard, State of New York, during the war, when that military body formed part of the Corcoran Legion, and who afterwards took an active part in the Irish national movement which led to the unsuccessful rising of March, 1867, died, in his thirty-third year, at his residence, 222 West Seventeenth street, in this city, on Monday last. As a cautious, yet courageous conspirator, who passed under the name of "Becher," and whose name, with a reward for his capture, was in the English Gazette, he was beloved by his brethren in Ireland and England, as he had been by his comrades in arms during the war of the rebellion here. His funeral took place from his late residence yesterday.
