

At the various other cemeteries about the city were decorated and decorated every soldier's grave...

General Burnside and His Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic at Providence, R. I. Memorial Day is observed here by a pretty general suspension of business...

The Day in New England. Boston, May 30, 1872. Decoration Day was more generally observed in Boston and vicinity than ever before.

In the Western States. Cincinnati, Ohio, May 30, 1872. Decoration Day was appropriately observed at Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Terre Haute, Toledo, Nashville, Dayton, and throughout the West generally.

Virginia Honors the Departed. Richmond, Va., May 30, 1872. Decoration Day was appropriately observed here to-day. The Grand Army of the Republic, the colored military companies and the stonemasons employed in the work for the new department at Washington...

DR. VAUGHAN ON THE COLORED RACE.

The Natural Virtues of the Blacks and Their Capacity for the Supernatural—Black Men the Future Poets, Orators and Saints of the South—The Duty of the Churches—An Appeal for Catholic Help—Liberty Necessary for Evangelization.

The great capacity of St. Stephen's church was tested to its fullest extent last evening by a large and respectable audience attracted by the announcement that the Rev. Dr. Vaughan would deliver his farewell lecture for the benefit of his mission in behalf of the colored race.

Dr. Vaughan began by showing how men are dependent upon another, and how it is in the providence of God that they should be dependent upon one another.

Dr. Vaughan regarded liberty for the colored people as essentially their evangelization. Having spoken of their numbers and of his visit to the Southern States he described the condition of those who were given to the world.

Dr. Vaughan further said that there are no reasonable grounds or proofs to justify an assumption that the colored race is inferior to the white race. He said that he was interested in any frauds which have been practiced on the Book Concern.

Dr. Vaughan then gave a glowing and enthusiastic account of the favorable impressions he had everywhere received of the excellent traits of character, the natural virtues and mental capacity of the colored race.

THE TARIFF ON ALPACA UMBRELLAS.

To the Editor of the Herald. New York, May 30, 1872. We beg to call your attention to a blunder, as we consider it, in the last clause of section 2 of the Tariff and Tax bill, which we are notified by the appraisers will, as interpreted by them, advance the duty on all alpaca umbrellas from fifty per cent, as now, to at least 150 per cent.

METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE.

A Colored Episcopal Discussion—Election of Editors—Report of the Special Committee on Book Concern—The Financial Management Endorsed, but the Manufacturing Department Condemned—The Standing Committee Hiding in the Future Agents—Miscellaneous Business.

Dr. Phelps, of Virginia, led the devotions yesterday. Bishop Wiley presided. General Abbott, of Philadelphia, presented appropriate resolutions in regard to Decoration Day, which were adopted by a rising vote of the Conference.

Dr. Matlack, of Louisiana, presented a memorial from some colored people of the South asking for the election of a colored bishop. One congregation has already gone over to the Methodist Episcopal Church South because a similar request heretofore made had not been acquiesced in.

Dr. Love was elected editor of the "Southern Christian Advocate" by acclamation. Dr. William Hunter was elected editor of the "Pittsburgh Christian Advocate" by a vote of 213 out of 263.

Dr. Waring made an explanation in regard to one ballot for editor of the "Ladies' Repository," which after the count had been made up, was found to have been handed to the wrong delegate.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Mr. B. of the reception of the report of the Special Committee on Book Concern. The report sets out with a restatement of the organization of the committee, its division into sub-committees, and the duties assigned to those sub-committees.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

Dr. Reid's, and the section as amended was adopted by a rising vote. When sections 9 and 10 were read Dr. Ives moved to strike out all in those sections which related to the Book Concern.

CHURCH AND STATE IN GERMANY.

The Appointment of Cardinal Hohenlohe as German Ambassador to the Holy See and His Subsequent Rejection by the Pope—Important Speech of Prince Bismarck—His Holiness' Course Defended.

Berlin, May 16, 1872. The appointment of Cardinal Hohenlohe by Prince Bismarck as German Ambassador to the Pope and the subsequent rejection of the nomination by His Holiness have at length been brought up for discussion in the Reichstag.

I am glad that a proposal to abolish this estimate has not been put forward, for it would have been a very serious blow to the empire.

THE ATTITUDE ASSUMED BY HIS HOLINESS. The Pope towards temporal affairs. I do not regard it as possible, after the dogmas which have lately been proclaimed by the Vatican Council, that a concordat can be arrived at with any temporal power, unless that power be reduced to a certain extent.

I had hoped that the choice of an Ambassador who had been made by His Majesty the Emperor in the person of a well known Prince of the Empire would have been welcome in Rome.

INTENTIONS OF THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT. have been nullified from reasons that have not been given to the public.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN. The Board of Aldermen met at noon yesterday. Numerous papers were submitted from the Board of Assessorial Aldermen, which were referred to the appropriate committees.

THE DOCK COMMISSIONERS. The Commissioners of Docks met yesterday, John T. Agnew in the chair. Commissioner Hunt, chairman of the Executive Committee, reported that the Superintendent of Police had stated his want of authority to arrest persons using horses on the piers for hoisting cargo without having a valid platform.

PAYMENTS BY THE COMPTROLLER. Comptroller Parks paid yesterday the Department of Public Works $75,000, for the wages of laborers, &c.

CITY ECONOMY. Commissioner Van Nostrand, of the Public Works, has sent the following communication to the Judges of the Police and City Courts.

THE JANITORSHIP OF THE COURT HOUSE. Robert Flanagan, who some time since was appointed janitor of the Court House, has been making every endeavor to obtain possession of the apartments occupied by Haggerty, who held that position.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

The Catholic Church considers the festival of Corpus Christi the greatest which occurs in all the year. The festival is of ancient observance, having been instituted so far back as 1264 by Pope Urban IV.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers. The decorations were tastefully fixed in groups. The special feature of the decoration was a white dove, on a red cushion, looking down from the pinnacle of the beautiful marble altar.

THE BROKEN SHAFT. New York, May 29, 1872. To the Editor of the Herald:—Dear Sir:—From my earliest boyhood I have been a constant reader of the Herald, and always feel lost when any circumstance deprives me of this pleasure.

AN ACCIDENT TO THE HERALD. (From the Wilmington (Del.) Evening, May 20.) This day's New York Herald reached us a little late, with an unusual heading and in a smaller form, so that we scarcely recognized its ever welcome face.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS. The Board of Aldermen met at noon yesterday. Numerous papers were submitted from the Board of Assessorial Aldermen, which were referred to the appropriate committees.

THE DOCK COMMISSIONERS. The Commissioners of Docks met yesterday, John T. Agnew in the chair. Commissioner Hunt, chairman of the Executive Committee, reported that the Superintendent of Police had stated his want of authority to arrest persons using horses on the piers for hoisting cargo without having a valid platform.

PAYMENTS BY THE COMPTROLLER. Comptroller Parks paid yesterday the Department of Public Works $75,000, for the wages of laborers, &c.

CITY ECONOMY. Commissioner Van Nostrand, of the Public Works, has sent the following communication to the Judges of the Police and City Courts.

THE JANITORSHIP OF THE COURT HOUSE. Robert Flanagan, who some time since was appointed janitor of the Court House, has been making every endeavor to obtain possession of the apartments occupied by Haggerty, who held that position.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

THE GREATEST CATHOLIC FESTIVAL OF THE YEAR—Grand Services in the Churches—Processions and Decorations—The Service at St. Stephen's.

"DIGGING FOR GOLD."

The Everlasting Captain Kydd and His Bags of Treasure. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. A few minutes after five o'clock last night William Flannery, aged nineteen, of No. 403 East Fifteenth street, while in Jones' Wood, accidentally shot himself in the left leg with a pistol which he was examining. He was attended by Dr. Swan at the Nineteenth Street station house, and sent home.

THE EVERLASTING CAPTAIN KYDD AND HIS BAGS OF TREASURE. The farmers down here are principally natives of the soil, like all country people, are fond of money and superstitious in regard to legends and traditions that have any connection with lost or concealed treasures.