

BRASIL.

Warlike Relations of the Empire Towards the Argentine Republic.

On the 15th of June, the Argentine Confederation public opinion was very high upon the questions with Brazil, and the temper of the press and people was very bullish.

On the 15th of June, the Argentine Confederation public opinion was very high upon the questions with Brazil, and the temper of the press and people was very bullish.

Public attention was so excited over the probabilities of a war with Brazil that little local was given and the Indians into the province of Buenos Ayres. However, troops and militia were collected from all quarters, and the States would hardly succeed in carrying off much plunder.

URUGUAY.

Political Changes and Party Prospects—The Advantages of Peace—Commercial Appointments—Commerce.

Since the establishment of peace the government has pursued a steady and firm course in reorganizing the various departments, and great confidence is felt in the new system.

WAR.

In fact, appears the only possible solution, for the disputants are not of the cooler Anglo-Saxon race, which can make large allowance for unbecome and whose habits of view are controversial discussion give it coolness and power to discriminate and to perceive the force of argumentation even on the adverse side.

WANTS PEACE.

and not war, with its neighbor, and that the publication of the abusive note was like a bombshell in its midst, and has forced it to assume a bellicose position which it was hoping to avoid by negotiations and pacific remonstrances.

ONK FROM CAN.

to appear upon the scene. Then the Brazilian fleet, numerous but weak individually, would be destroyed or driven from the Plata, and the Argentine fleet would be left in a formidable position.

CHURCH FESTIVALS.

Last week was the festival of St. Anthony, and the most successful of the kind ever held in the city.

THE JESTERS.

continue to occupy the public attention, but what can the good fathers expect, when standing still in the midst of a pestilence, that has taken its toll of their coats, trousers, and hats.

FATAL FEVERS.

From the city of Rio Janeiro, it is stated that the fever in the settlements on the Lower Tocantins had broken out afresh and with greater violence, so that in the city of Cameta a place of about 10,000 inhabitants, there were reckoned to be 3,000 sick.

PROGRESS.

The tugboat Duke of Edinburgh and the steamship Elz, both belonging to the contractors of the Mamoré and Madeira Railroad, had arrived at Pará about the beginning of June, with engineers, workmen, and other hands.

NEW YORK STATE CAMP MEETING.

Twelve thousand people attended the New York State Camp Meeting at this place to-day. Sermons were delivered in the morning, afternoon, and evening.

DEATH FROM AN OVERDOSE OF LAUDANUM.

Coroner Young recently held an inquest at the house No. 50 East Ninth street, over the remains of Mrs. Catherine J. Webb, a lady fifty-two years of age, and a native of New York, who died from the effects of an overdose of laudanum administered by herself on the 16th instant.

THE EXCISE LAW IN WILLIAMSBURG.

The order recently issued by Chief of Police Campbell, directing the Captains of the various precincts to strictly enforce the Excise law, was carried out pretty well in the Eastern district.

DEATH FROM AN OVERDOSE OF LAUDANUM.

Coroner Young recently held an inquest at the house No. 50 East Ninth street, over the remains of Mrs. Catherine J. Webb, a lady fifty-two years of age, and a native of New York, who died from the effects of an overdose of laudanum administered by herself on the 16th instant.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A Close, Exciting and Bitter Contest.

Opening of the Campaign at Weldon, Raleigh and Greensboro—Conservative Enthusiasm—Boutwell's Speech a Failure—A Great Day in Greensboro—Outpouring of the People—Boutwell's Back Down—What the People Think and Say.

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 14, 1872.

The canvass in North Carolina may be said to have taken its opening with the immense conservative demonstration at Weldon, the 12th inst. As it began with unwarmed and remarkable energy on that occasion, so it has been sustained to the present time with an industry and determination which evince the importance attached to the result of the contest.

LONDON GOSSIP.

The Trade Disturbances in the Metropolis—Prices of Everything Increasing—The Herald Expedition in Search of Livingstone—Stanley's Success—The Albert Memorial in Hyde Park—The British Science Association—The Colliery in the Channel.

LONDON, July 4, 1872.

Strikes and rumors of strikes, "lock-outs," lock-ins and "dead locks" are still the order of the day in London. The gigantic industrial struggle which has agitated the country to an extent almost unprecedented for some weeks past has already produced a plentiful crop of disastrous consequences.

THE DISTASTROUS FIRE IN GLASGOW.

Particulars of the Conflagration—Loss of Life—Injured Persons—Buildings Destroyed and Damaged—Excitement in the City.

The North British Daily Mail, in its description of the fire in Glasgow on the 1st inst., says:—An explosion was suddenly heard, sounding like the discharge of a thunderbolt; the falling of showers of debris, followed by dense black rolling masses of smoke, through the roof of the factory.

YACHTING NOTES.

The third annual regatta of the Manhattan Yacht Club will take place on the 23d inst. The contestants will rendezvous and start from the anchorage of the club house, on South Brother Island.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Tony Pastor has secured Eddy for six nights. Brooklyn has "The Streets of New York" at its Park Theatre.

OBITUARY.

John Thomas de Selby, Chamberlain to His Holiness Pius IX., Knight Commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great of Francis I. of the Two Sicilies, has just died at his temporary residence, Avenue de Wagram, Paris.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

CHOLERA.

Visitation of the Epidemic in Eastern Russia and Its Gradual Advance to the Central and Western Provinces.

The advices from St. Petersburg, which were briefly telegraphed to the Herald yesterday, relative to the appearance and progress of the cholera in the Russian empire, go on to state that the epidemic is gradually but steadily making its way from the eastern provinces of the territory, and assuming a fatal foothold in the central and western portions of the land.

ST. PETERSBURG SICKLY AND DRAUNKEN—History of the Progress of the Scourge from Its Foothold in Asia—Its Advance Route to Europe and America—Fatal Consequences in Russia During M. Winter.

The cholera epidemic has created a panic among the inhabitants, and thousands of the better classes are fleeing into Western Europe.

PREVIOUS VISITATIONS AND ROUTE OF THE GREAT SCOURGE—How the Russian Capital Suffered in 1817.

In the year 1817 the cholera broke away, as it were, from its usual confines in the marshy regions of the Ganges, where it had been epidemic for centuries, and appeared in the city of Calcutta within thirty days. It raged there with more or less violence for a year. Thence it extended northward to Nepal, and southward to Madras, Ceylon and Malacca.

THE DISTASTROUS FIRE IN GLASGOW.

Particulars of the Conflagration—Loss of Life—Injured Persons—Buildings Destroyed and Damaged—Excitement in the City.

The North British Daily Mail, in its description of the fire in Glasgow on the 1st inst., says:—An explosion was suddenly heard, sounding like the discharge of a thunderbolt; the falling of showers of debris, followed by dense black rolling masses of smoke, through the roof of the factory.

YACHTING NOTES.

The third annual regatta of the Manhattan Yacht Club will take place on the 23d inst. The contestants will rendezvous and start from the anchorage of the club house, on South Brother Island.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Tony Pastor has secured Eddy for six nights. Brooklyn has "The Streets of New York" at its Park Theatre.

OBITUARY.

John Thomas de Selby, Chamberlain to His Holiness Pius IX., Knight Commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great of Francis I. of the Two Sicilies, has just died at his temporary residence, Avenue de Wagram, Paris.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

CHOLERA.

Visitation of the Epidemic in Eastern Russia and Its Gradual Advance to the Central and Western Provinces.

The advices from St. Petersburg, which were briefly telegraphed to the Herald yesterday, relative to the appearance and progress of the cholera in the Russian empire, go on to state that the epidemic is gradually but steadily making its way from the eastern provinces of the territory, and assuming a fatal foothold in the central and western portions of the land.

ST. PETERSBURG SICKLY AND DRAUNKEN—History of the Progress of the Scourge from Its Foothold in Asia—Its Advance Route to Europe and America—Fatal Consequences in Russia During M. Winter.

The cholera epidemic has created a panic among the inhabitants, and thousands of the better classes are fleeing into Western Europe.

PREVIOUS VISITATIONS AND ROUTE OF THE GREAT SCOURGE—How the Russian Capital Suffered in 1817.

In the year 1817 the cholera broke away, as it were, from its usual confines in the marshy regions of the Ganges, where it had been epidemic for centuries, and appeared in the city of Calcutta within thirty days. It raged there with more or less violence for a year. Thence it extended northward to Nepal, and southward to Madras, Ceylon and Malacca.

THE DISTASTROUS FIRE IN GLASGOW.

Particulars of the Conflagration—Loss of Life—Injured Persons—Buildings Destroyed and Damaged—Excitement in the City.

The North British Daily Mail, in its description of the fire in Glasgow on the 1st inst., says:—An explosion was suddenly heard, sounding like the discharge of a thunderbolt; the falling of showers of debris, followed by dense black rolling masses of smoke, through the roof of the factory.

YACHTING NOTES.

The third annual regatta of the Manhattan Yacht Club will take place on the 23d inst. The contestants will rendezvous and start from the anchorage of the club house, on South Brother Island.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Tony Pastor has secured Eddy for six nights. Brooklyn has "The Streets of New York" at its Park Theatre.

OBITUARY.

John Thomas de Selby, Chamberlain to His Holiness Pius IX., Knight Commander of the Order of St. Gregory the Great of Francis I. of the Two Sicilies, has just died at his temporary residence, Avenue de Wagram, Paris.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.

THE QUEEN AND THE ALBERT MEMORIAL.

The French Jockey Club has just decided on placing in its library a marble slab on which will be inscribed the names of such of its members as fell before the enemy during the late war or died of their wounds.