

THE TAMMANY HALL JUDICIAL CONVENTION YESTERDAY.

James H. Leonard for Justice of the Supreme Court, James C. Spencer for Justice of the Superior Court and Gunning S. Bedford for City Judge.

THE NOMINATIONS MADE BY ACCLAMATION.

A lively fight over the District Attorneyship and No Nomination Made.

A SCENE OF WILD CONFUSION.

The Triumph of the Reformers and the Final Adjournment.

The Tammany Hall Judicial Convention met again yesterday, pursuant to adjournment. It became apparent from the moment the doors were thrown open and the crowd that had patiently waited outside for over an hour had poured in, that the session was to be a lively one.

THE SECRETS OF THE OUSIDERS. Was naturally enough anxious to find out what the invasion really meant, but very few of the unsophisticated got at the bottom of the mystery until the Convention had just accomplished its work.

THE "BIG GUNS" were still in the consultation room on the first floor. District Attorney Garvin was seen to enter by the side door, and a short time afterward he and John Kelly and Horace F. Clark had their chairs drawn up close together in the darkest corner of the room and were busily engaged in earnest conversation.

THE CONVENTION ASSEMBLED. np stairs, and was called to order by Mr. Augustus Schell. The roll call was the first thing attended to. As soon as it had been gone through with it became evident that the Convention was not a mere assembly of the names of the candidates for the various delegations, the names to be sent up to the Chair. An effort was then made to secure to each chairman the right to cast his vote.

GO UP TO THE GALLERIES and stay there. Quite a commotion ensued in the crowd on the floor at this, but it was noticeable that Garvin had a seat on the floor of the house, and it soon became whispered about that he actually had drawn up a chair in the darkest corner of the room.

ONCE THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE'S REPORT. The manner of voting had been decided upon and comparative order restored. Mr. Kelly rose and presented the report of the Conference Committee. The report was read by the secretary, and is as follows:—

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE'S REPORT. The committee appointed by this Convention on the 5th day of October, 1872, to confer with the Bar Association of the City of New York, and to report thereon, have the honor to report that they have completed their duties, and to submit to you the following report:—

THE MAYORALTY.

Senator Brien Accepts the Apollo Hall Nomination for Mayor—The Foley Reformers on Havemeyer What Peter Cooper Has to Say About Matters.

The following is the correspondence that took place yesterday between Senator James O'Brien and the committee of twenty-one appointed to inform him of his nomination by Apollo Hall for the office of Mayor:—

NEW YORK, Oct. 14, 1872. DEAR SIR:—The County Convention of the Democratic Party, assembled at Apollo Hall, on the 12th inst., unanimously nominated you as candidate for Mayor of this city at the approaching election.

When corruption reigned triumphant in every department of our government, when our streets were disreputable and our community when official dishonesty yielded to official corruption, you were foremost in the ranks of those who, by the aid of the honored citizens exposed official plunder, saved the city from the grasp of a time-honored name of democracy from the verge of ruin.

THE RING TRIALS, when he brought the public robbers to their knees. (Senator). He, for one, believed that what he had done in connection with those trials was perfect. He believed that the Convention had elected the right man for the office of Mayor, and that the nomination of Judge Bedford in a few days would be a great success for the reform party.

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

The Liberal Republican Headquarters.

A quiet calm pervaded the wigwam of the liberal braves yesterday—a calm full of hope and faith. The immense difficulties of the coming campaign were surmounted readily by statistics and figures and the inevitable success of the Greeley ticket was amply demonstrated on paper.

A Lady Orator Speaks a Good Word for Horace.

Crowded Meeting at the Cooper Institute Last Evening—Miss Swaine and Mr. Crozier on the National Situation—The Difference Between Grant and Greeley.

There was a crowded gathering of the liberal republicans at the Cooper Institute last evening, and in spite of the depressing influence of the October elections, a very fair degree of enthusiasm was exhibited. Perhaps, however, a considerable number of the audience was drawn to the meeting mainly by the announcement that the principal speaker would be a rising female orator.

At a little after eight o'clock Miss Minnie Swaine, the lady Greeleyite, was escorted upon the platform by Mr. Crozier, and sat down in the morocco leather easy chair that had been reserved for the chairman of the meeting. This lady was formerly professor of elocution at Vassar College, and in her clear enunciation and skilful management of voice and gesture, displays the good effects of careful study of the mechanical necessities of effective oratory.

After a few words of introduction by the Chairman Miss Swaine stepped forward and was hailed with a vigorous volley of cheers. She began by protesting against her arguments being considered on any other grounds than their intrinsic merits. It was an old prejudice that a woman's reasons were no reasons. There was some foundation of truth in that sneer, in so far as it was true that woman's reasons are not so generally and earnestly taken into her advocacy of her opinions.
