

WASHINGTON.

The All Night Debate on the Civil Rights Bill.

ITS PASSAGE IN THE SENATE.

THE TEXT OF THE BILL.

Report of the Ways and Means Committee on the Amending Tariff.

WASHINGTON, May 23, 1874. Report of the Committee of Ways and Means on the Amending Tariff Bill—Duties on Silks, Wines, Liquors, &c.

The Committee of Ways and Means have agreed to report the following items in the Amending Tariff Bill—That from and after the first day of July next in lieu of the duties heretofore imposed on the importation of the goods, wares and merchandise hereinafter specified, the following rates of duty shall be exacted—namely, on spun silk...

In lieu of the duties now required by law there shall be levied and collected on all still wines $1.50 per case and 40 cents a gallon, and on all still wines imported in bottles $2 per case...

On and after the first of July next all liquors to be sold at ten per cent ad valorem; chromate of iron, four and a half cents per pound; maccaroni and vermicelli, two and a half cents...

The following articles are to be admitted free of duty—Extract of hickory bark, quicksilver, shell plating and handle bolts, spurs and stiltus used in the manufacture of carriages and crockery...

As Mr. Dawes was not successful in reporting the bill, the committee at its session on Monday may make some alterations or additions.

The ruling of the speaker to-day, by which the Army bill was sent to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, will also send the Tariff bill to the same committee...

The funeral of General Dyer, which took place this afternoon, was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Generals Miles, Ramsey, Eaton, Barnes, Humphreys, Townsend, Shivar, Alvord, Whiteley and Hayner.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

Continuation of the Discussion in the Senate—The Effect on the Common School System—The Vote on the Final Passage of the Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 23, 1874. The debate on the Civil Rights bill, which occupied the Senate during the entire night of Friday, was ended this morning.

Mr. Edmunds said the gentleman misrepresented him, and did it knowingly. The gentleman (Mr. Carpenter) said the remark was out of order.

Mr. Sargent said the gentleman (Mr. Edmunds) must know he was misrepresenting him when he said that the great object of the bill was to give the colored people a right to vote.

Mr. Edmunds said he accepted the apology of the gentleman. Mr. Sargent—I make no apology at all.

Mr. Edmunds said the gentleman (Mr. Sargent) had alluded to the influence of a certain church against the common schools, and expressed the opinion that that influence would be made manifest by Congress passing this bill.

Mr. Sargent said since his childhood he had been a member of the Methodist church, and as a member of that church he had no objection to its influence being exerted in any religious or moral cause.

Congress should be putting its nose into all the affairs of the hotel keepers and railroad companies, as it is not authorized to do so by the Fourteenth Amendment, and it is not authorized to do so by the Fourteenth Amendment.

Mr. Edmunds, of Vt., moved to amend the first section of the bill by inserting the words "citizens and persons of color" in lieu of the words "citizens."

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

Mr. Hamilton, (dem.), of Md., moved to strike out the fourth section of the bill, which provides that no citizen shall be denied the equal protection of the law.

LONDON GOSSIP.

Politics, Pleasures, Pictures and Plays.

The Duchess and the Drawing Room.

London, May 23, 1874. On Monday week Earl Russell rose in his place in the House of Lords and made a speech, ending with a motion for the production of certain papers connected with foreign affairs.

Mr. Russell is eighty-two years old; he has been twice Premier, twice Foreign Secretary, twice Colonial Secretary and once Home Secretary; he has filled many other important offices of State, and as Lord John Russell sat in Parliament from 1815 to 1871.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Mr. Russell is a man of a studiously moderate speech, he asked questions and moved for the production of papers which, unanswered and produced, would have made every European Minister extremely uncomfortable.

Hope, the proprietor of the Saturday Review, who was in the chair, for the attacks which are always being made by that journal on professional literary men; that of the Literary Fund, at which Lord Cowley spoke earnestly of the claims of literature, and the Artists' Benevolent Fund, where Sir Henry James, the late Attorney General, rendered a similar tribute to pictorial art.

London is crammed and the season is verging to its height, from five till seven o'clock an immense line of carriages, four abreast, fills the Drive from the statue of Achilles to the Albert Memorial.

The steamship Baltic left this port yesterday for Europe, carrying among other passengers, Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris. The morning was one of the most delightful of this backward spring.

The preparations for departure were early made. About ten o'clock the bridal party left the Fifth Avenue Hotel in carriages and were driven to the foot of Twenty-fourth street, North River, whence they all embarked on the revenue cutter Grant.

The immediate friends who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris were the President and Mrs. Grant, Miss Dent, Miss Barnes, Miss Drexel, Mrs. Crosswell, Mr. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Reiss, Mr. Jesse H. Grant, Mr. U. S. Grant, Jr., General Babcock, Collector Arthur, ex-Collector Murphy and Mr. Pullman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris were accompanied by a lady in waiting, perhaps the next time the policeman gallops down the lane it is in advance of a big, heavy barouche, with powder-headed coachmen and footmen, bearing the royal arms and having inside the Duchess of Edinburgh.

In addition to the works of art noticed in my last there are several very noticeable pictures in the Academy. It is pleasant to see American painters coming forward to exhibit among us.

Mr. Boufford has an admirable picture, which has attracted much attention, of Chace's Pilgrims setting out for Canterbury. Mr. Bierstadt exhibits his "The Big Tree of California," and Mr. W. Richards, of Philadelphia, a "View of the Coast of New Jersey," Miss Charlotte Thompson's "Calling the Roll After an Engagement in the Crimea," and representing the different type of soldiers in a grenadier regiment—some wounded, spent, exhausted, triumphant, drinking, rejoicing—is the picture of the collection.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

THE WHITE HOUSE WEDDING PARTY.

The Departure of Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris for Europe.

Scenes at the Pier and in the Harbor.

The steamship Baltic left this port yesterday for Europe, carrying among other passengers, Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris. The morning was one of the most delightful of this backward spring.

The preparations for departure were early made. About ten o'clock the bridal party left the Fifth Avenue Hotel in carriages and were driven to the foot of Twenty-fourth street, North River, whence they all embarked on the revenue cutter Grant.

The immediate friends who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris were the President and Mrs. Grant, Miss Dent, Miss Barnes, Miss Drexel, Mrs. Crosswell, Mr. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Reiss, Mr. Jesse H. Grant, Mr. U. S. Grant, Jr., General Babcock, Collector Arthur, ex-Collector Murphy and Mr. Pullman.

Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris were accompanied by a lady in waiting, perhaps the next time the policeman gallops down the lane it is in advance of a big, heavy barouche, with powder-headed coachmen and footmen, bearing the royal arms and having inside the Duchess of Edinburgh.

In addition to the works of art noticed in my last there are several very noticeable pictures in the Academy. It is pleasant to see American painters coming forward to exhibit among us.

Mr. Boufford has an admirable picture, which has attracted much attention, of Chace's Pilgrims setting out for Canterbury. Mr. Bierstadt exhibits his "The Big Tree of California," and Mr. W. Richards, of Philadelphia, a "View of the Coast of New Jersey," Miss Charlotte Thompson's "Calling the Roll After an Engagement in the Crimea," and representing the different type of soldiers in a grenadier regiment—some wounded, spent, exhausted, triumphant, drinking, rejoicing—is the picture of the collection.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is said that his health has broken down, and that he will have to go abroad for rest and quiet.

Mr. Peck is a very interesting one and to be not much relished. Mr. Arthur Peel, who took upon himself the duty of summoning and worrying into attend the members of the liberal party so soon as they were out of office, has given up the berth after a very few weeks' experience. It is