

THE OAKS. The Ladies' Race of England.

APOLOGY THE WINNER. Pedigree of the Successful Horse.

LONDON, June 5, 1874. The next race of importance to the Derby at the Epsom summer meeting, the Oaks, took place to-day, and was won by Apology. Miss Toto came in second and Lady Patricia took the third money.

RENEWAL OF THE STAKES OF 50,000s, each half forfeit, for fillies then three years old, 122 pounds each; about a mile and a half; the owner of the second filly to give 200 sovs., and the third 150 sovs. out of the stakes. Closed with 185 subscribers.

Mr. Laundre's ch. f. Apology, by Adventurer, dam Mantra, by Catalpa, by Lord of the Isles. 1 Mr. Leve's ch. f. Miss Toto, by Lord Cliden, dam Barren, by Stockwell. 2 Mr. East's f. h. Lady Patricia, by Lord of the Isles, out of Lady Langford, by Sir Hercules. 3

Apology, the winner, was bred by her owner, Mr. Laundre, and she comes of a good racing family. Her sire, Adventurer, being the sire of Admirer, who won the Two Thousand Guineas and the Derby in 1859, was the full brother of her dam's sire, Ratanian, was the famous Stockwell, who won the Two Thousand Guineas and Sir Leger in 1852, her granddam, Mantra, winning the One Thousand Guineas in 1855. As a two-year-old she ran five times, but did not prove a victor until the Newmarket Houghton meeting in October, when she won the Homered Sweepstakes of 2575, six furlongs, beating Blancheville by half a length, with a margin of 100 yards. In the following week she was second to Sir William Wallace in the Eighteenth North of England Biennial Stakes of 2500, six furlongs, and four or five yards with six others behind. Her last defeat as a two-year-old was for the Municipal Stakes of 2360, 5 furlongs, 12 yards, at Epsom, in September, when she was beaten by George Frederick, the winner of the Derby on Wednesday last. This Apology appeared in good form and scored the victory in the Oaks, by a margin of 100 yards, in the Newmarket Spring meeting, beating La Couronne, second, and her old opponent, Blancheville, third, by a length. In the following week she started as a 2 to 1 against Apology and La Couronne and 10 to 1 against Blancheville. Since the latter contest, Apology has been doing very well. She has a number of which she will, no doubt, be the favorite. These are the Coronation Stakes, at Ascot, June 18; the Oaks, at Newmarket, June 18; the North Derby, at Newmarket, June 23; the Yorkshire Oaks, August 25; the Lightfoot Stakes, at Newmarket, August 25; the Sir Leger Stakes, at Doncaster, September 16.

PROSPECT PARK FAIR GROUND. Third Day of the Spring Meeting—Trotting in a Fog—One Horse Killed and Another Badly Injured.

A very large concourse of people assembled yesterday afternoon at Prospect Park Fair Grounds to witness the racing and to see the new building to come off at the place; but they were sadly disappointed in consequence of a dense fog that enveloped the track during the whole of the afternoon, which entirely obscured the horses for more than the half of each mile. There were two trots, in the first of which a very serious accident occurred. The white horse Walter S. was run into by Central Boy, and his sulky broken down and the driver thrown out. This caused the horse to run away, and he ran around the track with the broken sulky dangling at his heels. When he came on the homestretch the second time many of the crowd there assembled rushed upon the track to stop the horse. This unthoughtful movement made him swerve towards the right-hand side of the track, and so close to the fence that the projecting piece of the fence ran into the breast of the horse several inches and punctured his lungs. The horse bled to death in a very short time. The horse that caused the mischief—Central Boy, driven by Peter Mance—was dangerously injured by jumping on the wheel of the white horse's sulky, which cut a very large gash in his breast. When he came to the score, at the end of the heat, the blood was gushing out in a stream that sprinkled over the track. Dr. Ogilvie, the veterinarian, fortunately was on the ground, and he sewed up the wound and made the horse as comfortable as possible, and hopes are entertained that the horse will live. The horse that was killed belonged to T. A. Anderson Warren, of Watertown, Conn., and was valued at $2,500, which was to have been paid him after the race by a party from Providence, R. I.

The track was in capital condition for fast trotting, and but for the fog and the accident a few afternoon's sport would have been enjoyed, as the unusual number of fourteen horses started for the 246 paces. This was won by Lady Dahman, a very large, fine square, gaunt young mare, that gives promise of much speed in the future. She acted admirably in company of so many horses, and never made a break in the race. She was driven by John Murphy, and won in three consecutive heats.

The second heat was between Castle Boy, Crown Prince and Triumph, and this race also terminated in three heats, all of which were won by Castle Boy easily, in most excellent time.

THE FIRST TROT. PROSPECT PARK FAIR GROUND, June 4.—THIRD DAY OF THE SPRING MEETING.—Purse $300 for horses that have never been beaten 2:45; $300 for the first, $200 for the second and $100 for the third horse; mile heats, three in five, in harness. ENTRIES. J. Murphy's b. m. Lady Dahman, 1 1 1 J. S. Thorne's f. h. Crown Prince, 2 3 3 J. Spaul's b. g. Chester, 2 3 3 J. M. Barr's b. g. Jack Jerry, 13 11 2 Dan Mace's m. g. Uncle Dave, 3 5 11 J. S. Smith's b. m. Nora M., 11 11 1 J. V. W. Doty's b. m. Nora M., 6 7 5 J. Webber's b. m. Rose May, 5 6 7 J. Broome's b. m. Rose May, 11 11 1 E. Dunham's s. g. C. E. Cooney, 7 12 2 E. Van Ness's b. s. Compeer, 8 12 10 J. P. Gilbert's m. g. Cora F., 12 10 9 J. Hainz's b. m. Lady Patricia, 11 11 1 T. A. Warren's w. g. Walter S., dia.

TIME. First heat, 2:39. Second heat, 2:38. Third heat, 2:33.

THE TROT. The horses scored several times, and before they were in line for a start a fog set in so dense that the horses could not be recognized. The first heat was won by Castle Boy, who was first, Phil O'Neil second, Dahman third, Uncle Dave fourth, Black Bashaw fifth, Compeer sixth, the others trailing in the best positions they could secure. At the quarter pole the shadow of two horses could be dimly seen through the mist, and they passed that point in 39 seconds, but were broken up before they reached the homestretch. The driver of Walter S. was told that these horses were not seen again, except as shadows at the half-mile pole, which they fitted by in 1:18. As the first horse came on the home stretch he recognized the white horse, and when he reached her name on a run with a broken sulky, Chester fourth, Rose May fifth, Uncle Dave sixth, Charles E. Cooney seventh, Compeer eighth, Lizzie Adams ninth, Black Bashaw tenth, Central Boy eleventh, Cora F. twelfth, Jack Jerry thirteenth. Time of the heat, 2:39. Walter S., the runaway, kept on and ran all around the track, and when he reached the homestretch again some of the crowd rushed out to stop him, when he jumped against the fence with part of the fence broken and attached to him. In his run against the fence a projecting rail struck his breast so deep that he soon afterwards bled to death. Mr. Warren, the driver of Walter S., said that he was that the latter jumped on top of the half-mile pole and broke it down, and that he was then thrown heavily to the ground and his horse ran away.

When Mr. Warren recovered from the shock, reached his feet and reached the stand, he only then learned of the injury to his horse. The gentleman could do nothing for the poor beast, and in the excitement he was taken to the hospital by death. When Central Boy came to the stand the blood was spurting from his breast and left a trail all the way down the homestretch and to the stable.

SEVEN HEATS.—Charles E. Cooney was in front when the word was given, Uncle Dave second, Black Bashaw third, Phil O'Neil fourth, Compeer fifth, Rose May sixth and the others following close together. Lady Dahman was first around the track, and she was in front of Phil O'Neil in front of Phil O'Neil, but she passed out of sight into the dense mist, and was not seen again until she came into the homestretch. The judges and the crowd who had passed the half-mile pole in 1:18. Lady Dahman came to the score first, six lengths ahead of Chester. Phil O'Neil second, Dahman third, Uncle Dave fourth, Rose May fifth, Nora M. seventh, Charles E. Cooney eighth, Lizzie Adams ninth, Cora F. tenth, Jack Jerry eleventh and Compeer twelfth. Time of the heat, 2:38.

THIRD HEAT.—Phil O'Neil was first away, Chester second, Lady Dahman third, Charles E.
