

MASON HIRSH. The Official Story of the Silk Smuggling Case.

WHY A RELEASE WAS ORDERED.

WASHINGTON, April, 1876. The Mason Hirsch smuggling case came before the treasury officials for adjudication on an appeal from the action of the Customs officers in New York and was thoroughly investigated, much time being devoted to the inquiry instituted to determine the question of Hirsch's alleged guilt.

DONALD M'KAY'S DEFIANCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

In your paper of the 28th inst. under the head of a communication from your Charleston correspondent, is the following:— Had for Donald McKay and John Roach. Our development alleged to have been made by the Hon. Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Donald McKay, the East Boston shipbuilder, and John Roach, the well known builder in Pennsylvania. Government timber was used in the construction of the vessel, and then let Congress order suit to be commenced against both to recover the amount lost in an effort to make the fortunes of persons who had been in the United States, and greatly to its discredit at home and abroad.

THE MAIL TRAINS.

POSTMASTER JEWELL'S CULPABLE NEGLIGENCE.

It is not generally known in this city that the management of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad has just such a monopoly as Jay Gould had at Omaha, and in order to subvert it passengers to the private residence of Boston, and to the Adena Express Company have the sale of papers on this line, and their influence with the President of the road has been potent enough to prevent the running of the Boston, New York and Boston City road.

SLAVERY IN CUBA.

The following is a copy of the memorial recently sent by the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society to Earl Derby on the subject of slavery in Cuba:— To the Right Hon. the Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, &c. My Lord.—The British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society have recently observed with the greatest interest and concern the report of the Hon. Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in relation to the United States having invited Great Britain and some of the leading Powers of Europe to unite in a friendly mediation with Spain for the pacification of Cuba and the abolition of slavery.

LET FISH AND ROBESON ANSWER.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

From the Herald of March 31. Mr. Robeson does not explain why he took the agency of our government from the mighty house of Harney, which would have been of more use in strengthening the credit of the nation than a million of dollars. No explanation is given. All the world knows that the reason was that Cooke, like Cleve, had become a prey of the President, that had become a prey of the President, and that he did not hesitate to "bleed" freely when the election was impending. In other words, so debased had our politics become that the national agency of the government was treated like a trade-post out at Fort Sill and was made to "come down" with every election. Now, the President's friends may say that this was an error of judgment for President Grant, but it is not in the hands of the House of Cleve and Cooke as solvent as those of Harney. We have had to excuse so many things that the President has done that we may as well think that I know you love justice and are ever ready to "give the devil his due." General Grant has sins sufficient of his own to answer for, and should not in this his hour of trial and mental distress be called upon to answer for the sins of others.

that time, and after consultation, to exhibit their appreciation of that consultation, gave notice, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, to the Secretary of the Treasury, that they should be paid to make the payment of the same. The Act, however, does not charge or commissions; while, of course, for other business, as the fiscal agents of the United States, they should charge and receive for their services. THE EXCISE COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of Aldermen will hold a special meeting to-day to receive any nominations the Mayor may make to the office of Excise Commissioners, in place of Messrs. Marshall, Stewart and Stiner. There was a vast deal of canvassing last week on the subject of these appointments, and the candidates showed a disposition to be hard. Among the prominent ones named and supported by a heavy array of political influence are ex-Alderman Gibson, Major George W. Baxter, ex-Alderman Sherman, and Major Noah C. Conroy.

MR. RICHARD H. DANA.

A History of the Case of Lawrence V. Dana et al.

This was a suit in equity brought by William B. Lawrence, editor of an annotated edition of "Wharton's Elements of International Law," against Richard H. Dana, Jr., editor of another annotated edition of the same work, the publishers of the last mentioned annotated edition and the daughter and representative of Mrs. Catherine Wheaton, widow of the author of "Wharton's Elements of International Law."

THE NOTORIOUS CONFIDENCE WOMAN ARRESTED IN THIS CITY FOR SHOPLIFTING.

On Saturday afternoon, as Detectives Thompson and Titus, of the Central Office, were walking through Sixth avenue they noticed two well known female shoplifters acting in a very suspicious manner. The detectives watched them closely, and when they came out of the store of H. O'Neil & Co., at Nos. 327 and 329 Sixth avenue, they were arrested. While being taken to the Central Office, Detective Titus noticed that one of the women (who subsequently proved to be the notorious Molly Holbrook) made a peculiar motion with her foot, and then he saw lying behind her a lady's hat, which she had stolen and concealed in the folds of her dress. The woman was later taken to the Central Office, where she described themselves as Mary King and Ann Williams, of No. 22 Clinton street. The latter woman is a well known shoplifter, and has been arrested on several occasions. Her exploits have received widespread attention and her crimes have been widely reported in the press.

RESCUE FROM DROWNING.

Yesterday (Sunday) about noon, three boys, aged about thirteen, fourteen and fifteen respectively, started out for a row from the Battery wharf, and when midway between Governor's Island and Jersey City were captured by a schooner sailing up North River. The two oldest of the trio managed to get into the small boat, but the youngest, who was only about ten years of age, was unable to do so, and was left clinging to the side of the schooner's bow. He was drifted down the river, and was seen by a party of gentlemen who were rowing in the vicinity of the exhausted boy, and they rescued him in an unobscured condition and carried him to the wharf.

FATAL BURNING ACCIDENT.

Mrs. Eliza Gram, aged 45 years, residing at No. 841 Park avenue, Brooklyn, was in the act of filling a kerosene oil lamp on Saturday evening, when the oil exploded, setting fire to her clothing and burning her in a terrible manner. Her cries attracted the attention of her husband, who was in the upper part of the house at the moment, and he immediately ran to Mrs. Gram's aid, and she was rescued in a few moments. She was taken to the hospital, but she died on Sunday morning, when she died.

LONG ISLANDER'S SPORT.

On Friday night there was a cooking man at Jamaica, between Newtown and Jamaica, each town showing ten birds. The man was for $200, $300 a batch. The birds were in fine condition. Jamaica was the victor in the contest, and the man was paid a large amount of money changed hands on the occasion.

A DISHONEST SON.

Thomas Dowd, a young man seventeen years of age, has, for some time past, been employed in his father's store at No. 122 Third street, Brooklyn. On the 22nd of March, being short of funds, Thomas took $50 from the money drawer and suddenly disappeared. Last evening he was found and arrested by Detective Mahoney and will be held for trial.

POLICE JUSTICES' DEFALCATION.

The examination of the accounts of the Police Justices of Jersey City shows a large deficiency. Justice Koenig, who disappeared several weeks ago, has not been heard from since he disappeared. It is supposed that he has fled to some other city.

NEW JERSEY CHARTER ELECTIONS.

The Mayor of Jersey City is to announce the names of the candidates for the office of Mayor of Jersey City, to be held on the 1st of May. The Mayor is expected to announce the names of the candidates for the office of Mayor of Jersey City, to be held on the 1st of May.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

SITUATION OF THE CONTEST AND PROSPECTS AS TO TO-DAY'S CANVASS—DEMOCRATIC CONFIDENCE OF VICTORY.

HARTFORD, April 2, 1876. To-morrow we are to have the election in this State. The polls open at six A. M. and close at five P. M. If the weather is bad a very small vote will be cast, as many of the farmers must travel far in order to reach the polling places. In many instances where a storm rages outside on election day democrats and republicans are obliged to stay at home, sit around the log fire and thus comfortably discuss the canvass going on about them.

THE EAST RIVER STENCH.

IT IS PROVED TO BE THE PHOSPHATE MANUFACTURE AT HUNTER'S POINT.

A great many complaints have recently been made by persons residing in the eastern portion of this city, between Union Square and Central Park, concerning the unwholesome and noxious odors which are carried over the river by the factories of Hunter's Point. These odors are not only disagreeable and unwholesome, but they are also very injurious to the health of the people, and during the summer months many of the most wealthy and respectable people who live upon the east side of the river are obliged to leave their homes and go to the country for a few weeks. It is well known that children are particularly liable to be affected by these odors, and many of them are obliged to leave school for a few weeks. It is well known that children are particularly liable to be affected by these odors, and many of them are obliged to leave school for a few weeks.

POLITICAL NOTES.

General Jacob H. Sharp is named for Congress from the Mississippi First district. Dr. Leonard Bacon has accepted a nomination to represent New Haven in the lower branch of the Connecticut Legislature. A Washington society correspondent calls the deceased wife of an ex-Senator a "companion picture" with the wife of the ex-Secretary of War. But the shoe will hardly fit.
