

CONGRESS.

Presentment of the Belknap Impeachment at the Senate Bar.

A CLAM BILL VETOED.

Efficient Military Protection for the Rio Grande Frontier.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1876.

The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of War transmitting an abstract of the militia force of the United States, organized and unorganized, according to the latest returns received by the Adjutant General of the army.

Also a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, enclosing reports from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, relative to the condition and necessities of the Pawnee Indians in the Indian Territory, and recommending that $20,000 be appropriated for their immediate relief.

Mr. KENNAM, (dem.) of N. Y., presented petitions of citizens of New York in favor of legislation prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the District of Columbia and Territories of the United States.

The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from J. M. Langston, chairman of a committee having in charge the dedication of the Lincoln monument on the 14th of April, inviting the Senate to be present at the dedication.

Mr. KENNAM, (dem.) of N. Y., presented several petitions from citizens of New York asking an appropriation for improvement of the Harlem River.

Mr. MORRILL, (rep.) of Me., from the Committee on Appropriations, reported, without amendment, the House bill making appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1877, and recommended that it be passed as it came from the House of Representatives.

BILLS INTRODUCED.—By Mr. BRANTZ, (dem.) of N. Y.—Concerning corporations engaged in the business of distilling. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Mr. KAY, (dem.) of Va.—To improve the civil service of the Patent Office. Referred to the Committee on Patents.

By Mr. HANLEY, (rep.) of Kan.—To promote immigration to the United States, and to protect immigrants on their passage. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

The Senate then proceeded to consider bills on the calendar not objected to, and the following were reported: The House bill to incorporate the Georgetown and Tennallytown Railroad Company.

The House bill granting pensions to Almore P. Graves and Melville A. Hudson.

The House bill to enable Harvey Lull, of Hoboken, N. J., to make application to the Commissioners of Patents for the extension of letters patent for a self-acting shuttle hinge.

The House bill to incorporate the Mutual Protection Insurance Company of the District of Columbia was read.

Mr. WRIGHT, (rep.) of Iowa, objected to special acts of incorporation of the District of Columbia, and proposed that the bill be rejected by yeas 16, nays 24.

Pending discussion of the bill, the House passed the following resolutions: Resolved, That the managers appointed by the House of Representatives to conduct the impeachment of W. Belknap, late Secretary of War, appear at the bar of the Senate, and be sworn in as witnesses.

The managers are admitted, and the Sergeant-at-Arms will conduct them to the seats provided for them when the trial commences.

The managers were then escorted to seats arranged in the space on the left of the presiding officer's desk.

Mr. PATTERSON, (rep.) of the House, was ready to exhibit on the part of the managers of representatives, articles of impeachment against William W. Belknap, late Secretary of War.

The articles of impeachment were then read by Mr. Lord, and when the reading was concluded, as ten minutes to two o'clock P. M., the President, pro tem., said: "The Chair will now receive the articles of impeachment, which the Senate will take proper order on the subject of impeachment, of which due notice will be given to the House of Representatives."

The managers then retired.

During the above proceedings the galleries were filled, the ladies' galleries, especially, being crowded.

The Chair laid before the Senate a message from the President of the United States returning to the Senate, without his approval, the bill for the relief of T. C. Cheatham, and the bill for the purpose of refunding to T. C. Cheatham, late Secretary of War, the money he had expended in the months of December, 1869, and January, 1870.

The message was accompanied by a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, in which he stated that the money had been wrongfully collected, and an extract from the report of Commissioner Pratt relative to refunding the money to Cheatham, in which he stated that the money which will not apply with equal force to similar payments by all other distillers who were operating their stilleries or had spirits in their warehouses at the time.

Mr. MCCREERY, (dem.) of Ky., said the bill which had been vetoed by the President had been carefully investigated by two committees of the Senate, and twice passed that body. He thought the veto was a hasty and ill-considered act.

He said that the Clerk of the Senate had reported against the bill, and that the Committee on Internal Revenue in favor of the claim, and, resuming his argument, said Mr. Pratt, the present Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who reported against the case, was not familiar with the facts. He (Mr. McCree) hoped the bill would be passed by a two-thirds vote over the veto, and thus vindicate the honor of the Senate.

Mr. CLAY, (rep.) of Pa., presented a petition of the Philadelphia Board of Trade in favor of amendments to the Bankrupt law. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate, at a quarter past two, went into executive session.

At twenty minutes past five the doors were reopened, and the report of Mr. Edmund C. Ross, Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary, was read.

Mr. O'NEILL, (rep.) of Pa., presented the petition of vessel owners and captains asking Congress to make liberal appropriations to increase the efficiency of the Signal Service.

and at the unveiling of the Lincoln statue, on April 14, 1867.

Mr. LOAN, (dem.) of N. Y., on behalf of the managers of the impeachment of the Secretary of War, asked leave for the managers of the House to retire, in order that they might proceed to the Senate and present the articles of impeachment in due form and manner. Leave was granted.

A question having been raised whether the House should be present at the impeachment, it was decided that the House should be present at the trial, but not necessarily at the exhibition of the articles. The Speaker suggested that the language of the message from the Senate be modified, so that the House should be present at the trial, but not necessarily at the exhibition of the articles.

Mr. SWAN, (dem.) of Md., Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported the bill to restore to the Japanese Government what is known as the Japanese indemnity fund, including all interest and accumulations thereof, but reserving $125,000 claimed by officers and men of the navy until Congress shall order otherwise.

Made special order for the 27th of April. PROTECTION OF THE TEXAS BORDER.—Mr. STRANDBERG, (dem.) of Texas, Chairman of the Committee on Texas Frontier Troubles, reported a bill for the protection of the Texas frontier on the Lower Rio Grande. It authorizes and requires the President to station troops on the Texas frontier, and to the mouth of the northern boundary of the State of Texas, above Laredo, two regiments of cavalry, and to station troops for protection, to be divided into each troop up to the full strength of 100 privates. It also authorizes the President, in view of the inability of the Government to furnish the necessary number of law parties from Mexico into Texas, to order the troops to cross the Rio Grande and use such means as may be found necessary to recover the stolen property and to prevent the further pilfering, and to prevent unnecessary injury to the peaceable inhabitants of Mexico.

It was made the special order for the 20th of April, and from day to day until disposed of. The impeachment managers presented themselves at the bar of the House, and reported, through Mr. Lord, that articles of impeachment against W. Belknap had been exhibited and read to the Senate, and that the presiding officer had stated that the Senate would be present at the trial, but not necessarily at the exhibition of the articles.

Mr. DURHAM, (dem.) of Ky., from the Committee on Education, reported a bill to regulate the employment of special clerks on the judgment, authorizing it only on the certificate of the judge, and in necessary, and requiring the judge to file the certificate.

In a three hours' session the items of the General Appropriation bill referring to the expense of the Coolidge Library, the Congressional mail, the appropriation for the public printing office was struck out. On reaching the item fixing the salary of the Chief Clerk of the House, Mr. Durbin (dem.) of Pa., moved to amend the bill, so that the salary should be $25,000, and the subject gave rise to a party debate, in which Messrs. Randall, (dem.) of Pa.; Hoar, (rep.) of Mass.; Hall, (rep.) of Me.; Garrison, (rep.) of Ohio; and Holman, (rep.) of Ohio, took part. In the end the salary was left at $25,000.

IS CONKLING THE COMING MAN? [Editorial correspondence of the St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald.]

WASHINGTON, March 28, 1876. The action of the Republican Convention of New York, endorsing as their candidate for the Presidency Hon. Grover Cleveland, has created considerable excitement here, and he is looked upon already as a very formidable candidate for the Cincinnati nomination.

A conversation with prominent Republicans of Pennsylvania, who are in the habit of visiting New York, has led to the conclusion that the Republican State is compelled to abandon her favorite son, Governor Hartman, and will wheel into line with New York and concentrate upon Conkling.

A further assurance is given that a similar result may be anticipated from North Carolina and other Southern States, and already he has become a great central figure in all republican circles. He is the subject of general discussion in all republican quarters, and his name strikes the popular ear with unusual force.

The narrow and restricted condition of the churches was read by Rev. Mr. Foose. It was pronounced by the members of the Presbytery the most striking and important feature of the report. Foose was requested to synthesize it for presentation to the General Assembly.

He was also appointed chairman of a committee to provide blanks in which the members of the Presbytery should state their views on the facts of his narrative by this means as his own response. The narrative showed that there are 24 churches in the Presbytery, and that 19 churches reported their condition. The First Church, in the Eastern District, reported 24 members, and it now has 164 members.

Lafayette avenue church received 67, 1,050. Dr. C. W. Johnson, pastor of the Lafayette avenue church, reported 67 members, and it now has 1,050 members. The South Third street church, by the union of the South and North Third street churches, reported 67 members, and it now has 1,050 members.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

He also reported that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression, and that the churches were in a state of general depression, and that the members were in a state of general depression.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

There were three meetings at the Hippodrome yesterday, but all of them were poorly attended. At the second service about 1,500 persons only were present, and there were hardly more than ten ladies in the choir. But with all the drawbacks the meeting was quite enthusiastic, and commenced singing "Hold the Fort" with great vigor.

Rev. Dr. Osborne read the usual prayers, and after the singing of the hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour," by the congregation Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

Mr. Moody then read the usual prayers, and after the singing of the hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour," by the congregation Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

Mr. Moody last night, after reading a good portion of the fifth chapter of Daniel, descriptive of Belshazzar's Feast, said his text would be the one word, "Tekel," of the handwriting on the wall, "Thou art weighed in the balances, and found wanting."

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the evening meeting of the hall was filled, but not the galleries. The platform was crowded. The services were held in the evening, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

At the afternoon meeting, at which about 3,000 persons were present, Mr. Moody spoke on "David and Goliath," and Mr. Sankey sang, "Only an Armorer Goliath." Several clergymen were present on the platform, and Mr. Moody read from the fifteenth chapter, twenty-second verse of Matthew—"And behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same country, and cried unto him, saying, 'Have mercy on me, for my son is dead.'"

NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

WHAT HAS BEEN AND IS TO BE DONE AT THE GREENWOOD RANGE. The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the National Rifle Association was held yesterday afternoon, at their rooms, No. 65 Nassau street.

The report of the Secretary stated that a letter had been received from Mr. Houston, the Secretary of the National Rifle Club of Scotland, formally accepting the invitation to visit this country and participate in the Centennial rifle tournament. Seven new clubs have affiliated with the association since the issue of the new circular. Company I, Seventh regiment, and the Washington Gray troop of cavalry have joined the association under the existing rules in reference to military organizations.

The report of the Treasurer, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.

The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted. The report of the Secretary, showing a balance on hand of $779.57, was accepted.