

A. F. AND A. M.

THE GRAND LODGE WAS CALLED TO ORDER BY M. W. James Husted, Grand Master, at nine A. M. yesterday.

The Grand Lodge was called to order by M. W. James Husted, Grand Master, at nine A. M. yesterday.

Brother Edward Gates moved that the order for the election of trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund be postponed and that the whole subject matter of election of trustees be referred to a committee of five.

The committee on election of trustees of the Hall and Asylum Fund, having been chosen during the recess, they recommended the following brethren as candidates:—Harvey Farrington, of Brooklyn, Philo G. Remington, of Brooklyn, and John A. Knickerbocker, of New York.

M. W. Marshall B. Smith, Grand Master of New Jersey, was presented by the Grand Marshal R. W. James E. Morrison.

The Grand Master said:—Most Worshipful Sir, I take pleasure in presenting you to the assembled wisdom, the assembled beauty and the assembled strength of the Grand Lodge of New York.

Representatives from Alabama, Kentucky, South Carolina, Connecticut, North Carolina, California, New York, Louisiana, West Virginia, Louisiana, and other jurisdictions were here presented by the Grand Marshal and welcomed by the Grand Master.

M. W. Daniel B. Buren, Past Grand Master of New Jersey, was introduced by the Grand Marshal to him as follows:—Most Worshipful Sir, I may say to you that Daniel Webster said to a hero of Bunker Hill, 'General, man, you have come down from the clouds of glory, and you are here to give us a beautiful truth.' The Grand Master then gave him the following address:

Various speeches in favor of candidates being applauded by friends, the Grand Master said:—I say now for all that if this assembly continues the Grand Master will resign and the order will be given to give into the hands of another brother. This applause ceased.

W. Brotherton Moore and Burtis were appointed tellers, and on motion of H. W. J. Couch, a recess of fifteen minutes was taken to prepare for the roll call.

The tellers reported that the following were elected trustees in the order named:—Philo G. Remington, Harvey Farrington and John A. Knickerbocker. These were the three recommended by the committee. There were 6,400 votes cast.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I am, Sir, a member of the Legislature from Westchester, and I regret to hear that you have been elected to the lower House from the city of New York.

OUR COMPLAINT BOOK.

[NOTE.—Letters intended for this column must be accompanied by the writer's full name and address to insure attention. Complainers who are unwilling to comply with this rule simply waste time in writing.—Ed. Herald.]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—Some three weeks ago, Eighty-second street, between Second and Third avenues, was visited by a street sweeping machine, the dirt swept in heaps and left there, and it remains there still, having been again scattered all over the street by passing wagons.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—The public have been waiting more than two weeks for the proper authorities to close up a dangerous hole in the middle of West Thirty-fourth street.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—Why is it the Elevated Railroad does not sell a package of tickets (containing ten) for less than $1? Many of the ticket's friends would use them for riding up and down town in preference to horse cars if the reduction was made.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I take the liberty of addressing you from reading a letter in your 'Complaint Book' headed 'Ash Barrel Row in Ann Street.' It was only in Ann street it would be a small matter, but it is all over the city.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I am a householder on the south side of East Fourteenth street, between Second and Third avenues, and I most emphatically object to the storage of various cars, etc., on the opposite side of the street.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I am a householder on the south side of East Fourteenth street, between Second and Third avenues, and I most emphatically object to the storage of various cars, etc., on the opposite side of the street.

SAINTLY LUST.

HASTENING TO ITS DOOM—THE FRENZY OF GUILT AND DESPAIR. [From the Zanesville (Wis.) Gazette.]

An attempt has been made to assassinate a New York Herald reporter at Salt Lake City. Mormonism is hastening to its doom when, with the revelations lately made of the guilt of its leaders in the foulest of murders, they countenance a continued use of such means in a vain attempt to silence investigation.

ASSASSINATION THE DIRECT RESULT OF MORMON TEACHINGS. [From the Rutland Herald.]

It is probable that Brigham Young is in no way personally responsible for these attacks upon the Herald correspondent, but they are none the less the direct result of his teachings and the legitimate continuation of his original policy.

NO DOUBT OF BRIGHAM'S COMPLICITY. [From the Providence Journal.]

The government of the United States, through the courts, is endeavoring to bring to justice the Mormons in the massacre of twenty years ago, for participation in which Bishop Lee has recently been judicially shot.

THE WILL OF THE LORD AND THE WILL OF THE UNITED STATES. [From the Sacramento Union.]

The evidences of a Mormon uprising are accumulating. Brigham Young has been and will continue to be held responsible for all the bloodshed in the Territory and his hierarchy would not at this day survive another Mountain Meadows massacre.

A JUST COMPLAINT. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—As a householder on the south side of East Fourteenth street, between Second and Third avenues, I most emphatically object to the storage of various cars, etc., on the opposite side of the street.

AN EXCELLENT SUGGESTION. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I am a householder on the south side of East Fourteenth street, between Second and Third avenues, and I most emphatically object to the storage of various cars, etc., on the opposite side of the street.

WATER IN CHURCHES. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—I am a householder on the south side of East Fourteenth street, between Second and Third avenues, and I most emphatically object to the storage of various cars, etc., on the opposite side of the street.

A SERIOUS PROBLEM—HOW CAN IT BE SOLVED? [From the Atlanta Constitution.]

What is the way out of the entanglement? We can refuse to admit Utah as a State. But such an arbitrary measure would not solve the problem.

A QUESTION OF OWNERSHIP. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—Who owns Reservoir Park? Is it public or private property? Sitting in my window this summer evening observing the enjoyment of the people, I thought of the question.

A POSTAL DIFFICULTY. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—Can either Postmasters James or Talbot explain why a postal card put in the Brooklyn Post Office on the morning of the 29th of May, and directed in a plain, legible hand to a box in the New York office has yet (June 1) not reached its destination?

DRUG CLEANS. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—Seeing that your 'Complaint Book' has been the means of abating many evils, I would respectfully call the attention of the Board of Pharmacy to those druggists of our great city who employ clerks to dispense physicians' prescriptions without having passed an examination before the Board of Pharmacy.

SOMETHING THAT SHOULD BE STOPPED. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—The train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey arriving at Westfield from New York at half-past seven A.M. (ten minutes before the train on which many of the Herald readers ride into New York City) is supposed to carry to the local news agents and to the printing city papers.

A GREAT KNAVE, BUT NO FOOL. [From the Williamsport Gazette.]

Brigham Young is a great knave, but he is no such fool as to call down the heavy arm of the general government by an open rebellion.

FLIGHT OF THE SAINTS. [From the Zanesville (Ohio) Courier.]

The Mormons are much frightened since the conviction, confession and execution of John D. Lee. The American people are satisfied that John D. Lee richly deserved death.

THEIR SINS WILL FIND THEM OUT. [From the Zanesville (Ohio) Courier.]

The sins of the Mormons are sure to find them out. Their crimes, committed twenty years ago, will come out now on every occasion to convict them.

POLYGAMY ON THE WANE. [From the Boston Traveller.]

The general sentiment, exultantly expressed by the Gentiles and unwillingly admitted by the more candid of the saints, is that polygamy, 'the peculiar institution,' is most decidedly on the wane.

LOOKING AFTER EMIGRANTS. At a meeting of the Commissioners of Emigration yesterday complaints were received from agents of the New York Central, Erie and Pennsylvania railroads against the admission of representatives of other roads to Castle Garden for the purpose of inducing emigrants to purchase tickets.

OTTO STUCK. A loud cry from a man in distress attracted the attention of Officer Brennan, patrolling the Bowery at a late hour on Tuesday night.

MARRIAGES AND DEATHS. ACKERMAN—SPILLER.—On Tuesday, June 5, at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Dr. H. A. Ackerman, of Kingsbridge, to CONNELL S., daughter of John Stillwell, Esq. No cards.

CUSTOM HOUSE INVESTIGATION.

Millions of Dollars Lost from Damage APPRAISEMENTS. Twenty-five invitations had been sent out Tuesday to many people, as well as a general notice extended to everybody who had any suggestions to make regarding customs affairs, by the commission to attend their session yesterday.

ROBBING THE TREASURY OF MILLIONS. Mr. Miller was asked his opinion concerning the damage allowance by appraisers. He replied that in his judgment the government has been defrauded out of millions of dollars through the 'allowance for damage,' for which too large a percentage is granted.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE GUILLOTINE. Late yesterday afternoon General Arthur designated the Commission which is to examine each division in the Collector's office, in pursuance of Secretary Sherman's instructions of May 23, and sent them the following letter:—

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, June 6, 1877. GENTLEMEN—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th inst., in relation to the several divisions of this office with the view of ascertaining the cause of the delay in the collection of duties.

IN IMPLOYING YOU THIS DAY, I call your particular attention to the fact that the Commission is to be organized on Friday, June 8, at half-past four P. M. Train leaves Des Moines street or Cortlandt street at 3 P. M. Train leaves Des Moines street or Cortlandt street at 3 P. M.
