BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.

LONDON, April 11, 1878.

The pacific and argumentative tone of the Russian reply to Lord Salisbury's circular is recognized with satisfaction by the London morning papers as indicating the purpose and giving the hope of finding an arrangement by negotiation.

AMERICA SATISFIED.

The Daily Telegraph's Vienna despatch says Austria seems to consider Prince Gortschakoff's answer satisfactory, and thinks England can exact no further assurance than therein contained previous to the Congress.

A CONGRESS ALONE CAN SETTLE IT.

The Times, while doing justice to the spirit by which it presumes Gortschakoff's arguments are dictated, maintains that, whatever its value, a Congress of the Powers alone is competent to determine their validity. It says:—It is not for this country nor Austria to decide the matter from its own point of view, and still less in this the province of Russia. Probably every Power could make out a strong case for its own interests, but no Power is adequate to judge of the manner in which other interests are affected, and we claim that both Lord Salisbury's and Prince Gortschakoff's circular should be submitted to the judgment of Europe.

THE HORIZON AGAIN OVERCAST.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times telegraphs as follows:—"The horizon is again overcast. The change is attributed to the speeches made in the British Parliament, to the consequent alteration in the attitude of the Austrian Cabinet and the apparent hesitation of Germany to act as mediator. It is believed in official circles that some of Lord Salisbury's remarks on Monday indicate an intention of going to war."

WILL ENGLAND TREAT SEPARATELY?

The Agency News states that a short circular accompanying Prince Gortschakoff's reply invites England to formulate her proposals. The Times' Vienna correspondent remarks that this seems to point to an intention of trying to come to a separate understanding with England, as was attempted with Austria.

THE PORTUGUESE GREEK WITH ENGLAND.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times says the attempts at mediation seem to have made it probable that the Powers will only consent to participate in the revision of the Treaty of San Stefano on the same condition as demanded by England.

DONIA PROMISED TO SERVA.

The Berlin Post says Austrian agents have informed their government that Russia has promised Bosnia to Servia in the event of the renewal of hostilities. This news has produced a bad impression at Vienna.

VIEW OF THE VIENNA PRESS.

The Vienna Fremdenblatt says:—"Peace can only be maintained by Russia modifying the Treaty of San Stefano in conjunction with the other Powers." The press of the same city considers that England has already gained a moral victory for herself and Europe.

ANXIETY IN LONDON.

Though it is generally considered in London that the debate in Parliament on the address thanking the Queen for calling out the reserves has placed the government's policy in a clearer light, Lord Derby's statement concerning the secret determinations of the Cabinet, which led him to resign, is the subject of much anxious curiosity. It is reported in the clubs that they are connected with orders already sent to Admiral Hornby, which are contingent on Russian movements near Constantinople.

ENGLAND ENGAGING TRANSPORTS.

A Berlin special to the News says, in spite of details, four of the finest steamers of the Hamburg-American Packet Line have been engaged by the British government.

RUSSIAN NEGOTIATIONS.

Russian officials of rank at Bucharest declare that they fully expect the English fleet to succeed in forcing its way into the Black Sea in the event of war. Hence their efforts to increase the facilities for land transport over lines not accessible to interruption from the fleet, and as far distant as possible from the Austrian frontier. They have taken measures for constructing a military railroad between Bolgrad, on the newly completed Bender and Galatz line, and Ismail, and also a short line connecting Reme with the wharves on the Danube.

PREPARING FOR AUSTRIA.

A special despatch from Bucharest to the Political Correspondence of Vienna reports that on Monday the advance guards of the Seventh and Eleventh Russian Army corps began to cross from Rastchik to Giurgevo, in order to occupy the line from Giurgevo to Bucharest. The Roumanian government, in order to avoid alarming the public, denies that the occupation has commenced, but it nevertheless is an undoubted fact.

SECURING POSITIONS.

Russian troops, especially artillery, have arrived at various places on the Roumanian bank of the Danube. They have entered Preteast and command the railway station at Giurgevo. They have also occupied important positions on the Nyashov River.

LAYARD CHECKMATING HERSELF.

A special despatch to the Vienna Political Correspondence from Constantinople states that Mr. Layard has succeeded in paralyzing for the present Russia's endeavors to obtain the friendship of the Porte. In view of the hourly increasing tension of Anglo-Russian relations the greatest importance is attached to a long interview Mr. Layard had on Monday with Rouf Pacha and Osman Pacha, who are paramount in military affairs.

NICHOLAS IS PEREMPTORY.

A special despatch dated Constantinople, Wednesday, states that the Grand Duke Nicholas continues to demand the forts on the Upper Bosphorus. General Nelidoff will have an interview with the Sultan on the subject to-day. The Grand Duke has also demanded the immediate evacuation of Ratom in accordance with the treaty, indicating that in the event of non-compliance complications may arise.

A CONTRADICTION.

A special despatch to the Daily News from Constantinople says it is untrue that the Russians have demanded Kavak and Bjukdere.

SICKNESS AMONG THE RUSSIANS.

A despatch from Pera states that 14,000 Russians are sick from San Stefano to Adrianople, nearly half of them with typhus, so that the Russian officers regard their position as very unsatisfactory.

THE TIMES' VIEW OF THE DEBATE.

The Times says that it cannot but share Lord Hartington's regret that Sir Wilfrid Lawson was not content with the debate in Parliament with outgoing to a division on his amendment. "The whole discussion," it says, "has materially tended to clear up the obscurities of a perilous situation and it has certainly brought the prospect of peace nearer than before. But no practical inference can be drawn from the fact that thirty-four members of the House of Commons think that the present juncture is not a great emergency, while it is possible a good many erroneous and mischievous conclusions will be drawn from it both at home and abroad."

BAD EFFECT AHEAD.
The debate has not had the same reassuring effect abroad, though the judgment founded on the telegraphic summaries thereof may be reversed on the receipt of the full text of the speeches.

DIAPHRAGM AT VIENNA.

The speeches of Lords Beaconsfield and Salisbury are thought at Vienna to point to the probability of war and to hold out small hope of a congress, which is there believed to be the only possible way of reaching a pacific solution. This supposed attitude of England is not approved at Vienna, because the Austrian government has made no provision for the eventuality of a final failure of the Congress project. It is said, however, that when the necessity of deciding is forced on Count Andrássy he will undoubtedly resist Russia's demands and make an alliance with England, provided he can carry the Court party with him.

GLOOMY PROSPECT FOR ROMANIA.

With this contingency in view Russia has taken a firm grip on Roumania, and should the government attempt to resist her will the country would find itself in a most embarrassing position. Therefore, it is to be presumed that the final policy of Roumania will coincide fully with the present manifestations of popular feeling. Should the war be confined to England and Russia Roumania can manage to escape serious consequences, but should Austria enter into action the principality cannot avoid being crushed almost irreparably between the contending forces, no matter which belligerent she chooses as an ally.

CORRECTNESS OF GHIKKA'S REPORT.

The Roumanian government officially reaffirms the correctness of Prince Ghikha's reports of his interviews with Prince Gortschakoff when the latter used threatening language.

FEELING THE PULSE.

In consequence of the urgent demands of Russia M. Coghialniceanu, Roumanian Minister of Foreign Affairs, has asked Prince Charles to recall M. Bălăceanu, the Roumanian Representative at Vienna. In the Senate yesterday Minister Coghialniceanu refused to state what course the government would take if Russia demanded the conclusion of a convention to secure the passage of her troops. M. Stourdza complained that the absence of M. Brătianu, the Premier, prevented the government from acting, although Russia was commencing her threatened occupation.

TURKEY CANNOT REMAIN NEUTRAL.

Apreros of the rumored orders sent to Admiral Hornby, a St. Petersburg letter in Tuesday's Berlin Norddeutsche Zeitung, likely to come from an authorized source, says:—"Turkey cannot be permitted to remain neutral in an Anglo-Russian war. If she allies herself with Russia she will have to give up Constantinople as a pledge of her fidelity; if she sides with England, Constantinople, Gallipoli, Baykudere and the European shores of the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles will be occupied by Russian troops at any risk. The Russian fortifications around Constantinople render the conquest of the city certain, and Russian torpedo boats will soon reach the English vessels to keep at a distance, lest a return to Besika Bay should be cut off."

LETTER POSSIBLY WAS THE FOUNDATION FOR THE RUMOR.

circulating in the lobbies of the House of Commons last night that the Russians had made a formal demand to occupy Constantinople.

NO MORE TROOP MOVEMENTS.

According to a despatch from Constantinople the Khedive of Egypt will visit that city in two weeks to pay his respects to the Sultan.

THE HEALTH OF AHMED VEYIK EFFENDI.

The health of Ahmed Veyik Effendi, President of the Turkish Council of Ministers, has been re-established.

IT IS ANNOUNCED THAT A REVIEW OF 20,000 TURKISH TROOPS WILL BE HELD NEAR CONSTANTINOPLE ON THURSDAY.

It is stated that Hobart Pacha has obtained a short leave of absence for the purpose of visiting England.

BERNARD'S HOME POLICY.

The semi-official Prussian Correspondence, of Berlin, publishes an inspired article, declaring that Prince Bismarck is convinced of the benefits of a policy of reciprocity, involving moderate protection of native industry, and hopes to gain a firm majority in the Reichstag therefor.

ISAAC BUTT AND THE HOME RULERS.

The Standard says Mr. Butt has announced that he cannot manage the home rule party while in Dublin, and as he is unable to devote his whole time to Parliament he must beg to be relieved from the responsibility of the leadership. It is understood that his resignation is due to the revival of the obstructionist tactics. The Home Rule Parliamentary Committee is endeavoring to induce Mr. Butt to reconsider his determination. He is expected in London to-day and his definite decision, therefore, will not be delayed.

THE EARL OF LEITRIM'S FUNERAL.

The Earl of Leitrim was buried in St. Michael's Church, at Dublin, yesterday. A crowd of about three hundred passed, hooded and cheered outside of the church.

DOGMA "PROCLAIMED."

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has proclaimed the district comprising Lord Leitrim's Donegal estate under the Peace Preservation Act.

CARDINAL MANNING'S RETURN FROM HOME.

Cardinal Manning arrived in London last night. He received a deputation, and in response to their greeting declared the various sensational reports concerning his being in Rome, and said he had always been united with the majority of the Sacred College.

RECTOR OF MANNING'S HEATH.

An unfounded rumor is current in Paris that ex-Marshals Bismarck and Napoleon III. are to be reconciled.

GENERAL BOREL AND THE LEFT.

The Paris Monitor acknowledges that General Borel, Minister of War, encounters so much opposition from the Left that he may be obliged to resign.

THE UNIVERSITY BOAT RACE.

The betting on the inter-University boat race, which takes place on Saturday next, is 10 to 3 on Oxford. These odds are taken freely.

THE FAMINE IN CHINA.

A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Shanghai reports that the famine in the northern provinces of China is increasing.

RACING IN ENGLAND.

The race for the Great Northamptonshire Stakes took place at Northampton, to-day, and a field of ten starters came to the post. The race was won by Mr. W. S. Crawford's bay horse Prince George, Mr. Astor's chestnut colt Playfair second, Mr. Matthew Dawson's bay colt El Gladiateur third. The latest betting was four to one against Prince George, six to one against Playfair, and twelve to one against El Gladiateur.
