

Continuation of the Inquest into the Montclair Tragedy.

ARMSTRONG'S ANTE-MORTEM

"I Swear I Did Not Threaten Him in Any Way."

Instead of any demonstration or excitement, as had been predicted by the loose tongued gossip in and about Montclair, the funeral of John Armstrong, which took place yesterday forenoon in the village, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, was attended with the utmost order and decorum.

CHASTINE COX.

Chastine Cox says he is tired of talking, and now says but little attention to his visitors. These are few; not that he is not called daily, but because the Warrentons called to refuse their admittance. Those who come provided with a pass from the District Attorney's office are alone allowed to see the prisoner.

WAS SHE KILLED BY A KICK?

Thomas Dunn, of No. 317 East 109th street, was brought again before Justice Murray yesterday, in the Harlem Police Court. However, his wife, it will be remembered, died last Saturday in Bellevue hospital, and the suspicion arose that Dunn, who, as alleged, habitually quarrelled with and beat her, had kicked her in the stomach.

NO NEED OF AN AUTOPSY.

Jacob Bachman was taken to the coroner's office yesterday charged with causing the death of Minnie Bird, aged nine years. Bachman said he had been unloading kindling wood on the sidewalk and was employed stowing it in a basement. The child reared with her parents at No. 5 Bayard street.

THE COURTS.

John Gorkin, of No. 63 New Bowery, and Mathew Deyer, of No. 369 Pearl street, both liquor dealers were yesterday held for examination by United States Commissioners Deuel and Shields respectively on the charge of neglecting to pay the government license.

COURT CALENDARS—THIS DAY.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—Held by Judge Donohue.—Nos. 65, 67, 102, 146, 174, 243, 245, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255. Assessment cases—Nos. 131, 134, 178, 182, 183, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221.

OFFICER NUGENT'S BAIL.

Although Judge Potter a few days since refused to reduce the bail fixed at $30,000 of Officer John Nugent, charged with being implicated in the robbery of the Manhattan Bank, the application to reduce the bail was renewed yesterday by Mr. William P. Howe, his counsel, before Judge Donohue, in Supreme Court, Chambers. It was argued that the amount fixed, by statute, is mandatory, and that it is not subject to reduction.

STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER.

The moon softly lit up the City Hall Park on Tuesday night and fell upon the calm features of Patrick Conners, tramp, fast asleep on one of the benches. The sleeper smiled, while he dreamed no doubt of a happier future, and Officer Rhodes, of the Twenty-sixth precinct, idly swung his club in the air.

ARMSTRONG'S ANTE-MORTEM.

After an hour's recess Dr. Charles Young, who attended Armstrong in the hospital, testified concerning the condition of the victim's narcotics when given him, but in such small quantities that he said he was not affected, but always clear; he told me that he went to the hospital and had his hand on the door when Blair shot him and had his face—think he said on the bed—and Blair shot him again; I think he said Mrs. Blair came out and said to her husband, "Shoot the damned rascal," when he got as far as this I stopped him; if he fell after being shot he was not likely to get up; Blair said he was not likely to get up; Blair said he was not likely to get up; Blair said he was not likely to get up.

ERIE'S NEW STEAMSHIP BASIN.

THE IMPROVEMENTS IN PROGRESS AT PAVONIA—A VAST DOCK, LONG WHARVES AND A COLORFUL GRAIN ELEVATOR—MORE COMPETITION FOR THROUGH EUROPEAN FREIGHTS.

The Erie Railroad, in conjunction with Mr. Jesse Hoyt, has listed the lists of competition for freight through Europe by the Pennsylvania and the New York Central roads. There is now in rapid process of construction at Pavonia one of the finest steamship basins in the United States, in connection with what will be the most colossal grain elevator so far erected in the world.

THE CITY PARKS.

PROTRACTED MEETING OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS—ACCOUNTANT HUSBAND'S INVESTIGATION.

There was a prolonged meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners yesterday. It was understood that the conference was not marked by that general sentiment of harmony and unanimity which the brief minutes of the deliberations vouchsafed to the press would imply. In view of the unpleasant feeling generated by the refusal of the Board to permit the mooring of free boats at the Battery, the question of a public park at the Battery was finally disposed of by the adoption of the following resolution:
