

THE HEALING WATERS OF THE PINE TREE STATE

BERKSHIRE SEASON NOW AT ITS HEIGHT

Important Real Estate Purchases Show Growing Popularity of Hills.

LENOX, Mass., July 15.—With the warm sun spreading over the country and the humidity along the shores, there came the big "drive" into the hills. A season which had been backward because of the cold, rainy June suddenly opened to its fullest, and the Berkshires filled up almost overnight.

Some of the cottagers who have been at their country places since May have gone to Canada, Maine and New Brunswick for fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Giraud Foster and Giraud Foster, Jr., who go each year to Cascapedia River, Canada, left this week for two weeks in camp.

Mr. Edwards Spencer gave one of the most elaborate luncheons of the season at Shipton Court, Tuesday, July 11, for Miss Ann Ingersoll Meigs, who is a guest of Miss Emily W. Biddle at Breezy Corners.

The Rev. and Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blair Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Rice gave several general entertainments for Mr. and Mrs. W. Beekman, who went on to Bar Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Walker gave the second of their series of concerts, called the "Brookside Concerts," at Great Barrington, Tuesday, July 11, and three instrumentalists of New York gave the concert in the library at Brookside Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad P. Bishop will arrive tomorrow at the Maples from a 10,000 mile automobile journey in the West. They left Los Angeles on St. Charles Day and had the longest most of the time since. A side journey was ten days in Hawaii, where they motored about the islands, returning to Honolulu and then passing into Oregon and Washington, returning to Seattle and British Columbia, returned to Seattle and journeyed to Idaho and thence to Alberta.

Lenox and Pittsfield cottagers for the second year will be invited to the great party in the Boston-Sweet Pea Show, Mrs. Robert Winthrop received on first awards, Giraud Foster two and Arthur N. Cooley one. A Newport cotager won one award, the remainder going to the exhibitors from the Berkshire Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Patterson, having settled upon Santa Barbara for a winter home, gave a contract this week for a two story stucco bungalow on their thirteen acres purchased last spring.

AMATEUR "MOVIES" FAD AT LAKE GEORGE

Hotels Feel the Rush of Summer and Several Have Opened Annexes.

LAKE GEORGE, N. Y., July 15.—George C. Reis, who has a summer home at Bolton Landing and is a member of the Lake George Country Club, has again come to the front with his amateur "movies," and will entertain at the club every Tuesday evening, throwing on the screen many of the pictures which he himself has staged and photographed.

The Fort William Henry Hotel is crowded to the doors, and for the past three weeks has been turning visitors away to other hotels in its vicinity. The annex to the Worlean Hotel is now open. The Worlean itself is now full.

Penmore Hotel arrivals include Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Child, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton W. Burgess and Attorney-General Woodbury.

Other New York arrivals include Hillside House—Mrs. Percy Van, Mrs. P. Kerins, J. S. Kerins and R. E. Kerins. Iroquois—Thomas Crabbe Frazer, Alex Saravia and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hamill.

Island Harbor House—H. Kuesel, Miss Lillian Scarffe, Miss Willa Scarffe, Miss Lilla R. Larson, Miss Charlotte M. Schult, Miss Marie Somers, Miss Margaret Iwanowins and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Henry.

Trout House—Mr. and Mrs. A. Ganf, Tom Van, Planck, Mrs. Percy Van, Planck, W. H. Van Planck, S. H. Webster, Miss Emily Forester, Miss Lillian Kaplan, Harry B. Morris and Miss Florence Blankmeyer.

New Hulet—M. Paterson, E. Thompson, J. Jubert, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Berry, Harry S. Heyman, Philip R. James, J. H. Matthews, D. D. Miller, Mrs. Mabel M. Matthews, Miss Irene Germain and Miss Eleanor M. Germain.

Fort William Henry—Mr. and Mrs. S. Otter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gash, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Schell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Dacy, Miss Marian Dacy, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Kerby and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Worden—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Crosbie, Mr. and Mrs. S. Domger, W. C. Adams and F. W. Miller.

Art Exhibition Opens at Poland Spring, Me.

POLAND SPRING, Me., July 15.—The twenty-second annual exhibition of paintings and sculpture at Poland Spring is now open in the gallery of the Maine State Building, with works by forty-one New York artists forming a large part of the show.

Notable arrivals at the Poland Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brian of New York and their daughter, who are here for a week or more. Other arrivals from Manhattan are Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schmelzel, Mr. and Mrs. Bedell Harned, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osterholt, Miss Mary Osterholt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ramey, Mrs. S. Richardson, Hale Kirk, Miss Helen Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halch, Mrs. W. B. Goodwin, Miss Helen Goodwin, Mrs. Charles G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mr. and Mrs. Byford Ryan, W. B. Leeds, Mr. George P. Slade.

Resting in the fragrant shade of the Poland Springs pines.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At Church Hill are Mrs. J. J. O'Keefe, Mrs. D. W. Kilbourne, Mrs. Anna Krueger Muller, Antonio Duena and Miss Elizabeth Wright of New York City, a member of the Savoy Opera Company of London; Ivan Shestakovsky and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrup; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lavin, Albany; Louis Michalski, Nelson and Agnes Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas; Robert Thomas and Ewart Thomas, all of Brooklyn; Others from New York City include Mrs. George C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Looney, Miss Alice Looney, Miss Harriet Prater, Manhattan; Mrs. E. L. Town, Brooklyn.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

Art Exhibition Opens at Poland Spring, Me.

POLAND SPRING, Me., July 15.—The twenty-second annual exhibition of paintings and sculpture at Poland Spring is now open in the gallery of the Maine State Building, with works by forty-one New York artists forming a large part of the show.

Notable arrivals at the Poland Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brian of New York and their daughter, who are here for a week or more. Other arrivals from Manhattan are Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schmelzel, Mr. and Mrs. Bedell Harned, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osterholt, Miss Mary Osterholt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ramey, Mrs. S. Richardson, Hale Kirk, Miss Helen Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halch, Mrs. W. B. Goodwin, Miss Helen Goodwin, Mrs. Charles G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mr. and Mrs. Byford Ryan, W. B. Leeds, Mr. George P. Slade.

Resting in the fragrant shade of the Poland Springs pines.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At Church Hill are Mrs. J. J. O'Keefe, Mrs. D. W. Kilbourne, Mrs. Anna Krueger Muller, Antonio Duena and Miss Elizabeth Wright of New York City, a member of the Savoy Opera Company of London; Ivan Shestakovsky and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrup; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lavin, Albany; Louis Michalski, Nelson and Agnes Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas; Robert Thomas and Ewart Thomas, all of Brooklyn; Others from New York City include Mrs. George C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Looney, Miss Alice Looney, Miss Harriet Prater, Manhattan; Mrs. E. L. Town, Brooklyn.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

Art Exhibition Opens at Poland Spring, Me.

POLAND SPRING, Me., July 15.—The twenty-second annual exhibition of paintings and sculpture at Poland Spring is now open in the gallery of the Maine State Building, with works by forty-one New York artists forming a large part of the show.

Notable arrivals at the Poland Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brian of New York and their daughter, who are here for a week or more. Other arrivals from Manhattan are Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schmelzel, Mr. and Mrs. Bedell Harned, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osterholt, Miss Mary Osterholt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ramey, Mrs. S. Richardson, Hale Kirk, Miss Helen Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halch, Mrs. W. B. Goodwin, Miss Helen Goodwin, Mrs. Charles G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mr. and Mrs. Byford Ryan, W. B. Leeds, Mr. George P. Slade.

Resting in the fragrant shade of the Poland Springs pines.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At Church Hill are Mrs. J. J. O'Keefe, Mrs. D. W. Kilbourne, Mrs. Anna Krueger Muller, Antonio Duena and Miss Elizabeth Wright of New York City, a member of the Savoy Opera Company of London; Ivan Shestakovsky and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrup; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lavin, Albany; Louis Michalski, Nelson and Agnes Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas; Robert Thomas and Ewart Thomas, all of Brooklyn; Others from New York City include Mrs. George C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Looney, Miss Alice Looney, Miss Harriet Prater, Manhattan; Mrs. E. L. Town, Brooklyn.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

Art Exhibition Opens at Poland Spring, Me.

POLAND SPRING, Me., July 15.—The twenty-second annual exhibition of paintings and sculpture at Poland Spring is now open in the gallery of the Maine State Building, with works by forty-one New York artists forming a large part of the show.

Notable arrivals at the Poland Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brian of New York and their daughter, who are here for a week or more. Other arrivals from Manhattan are Mr. and Mrs. Irving Schmelzel, Mr. and Mrs. Bedell Harned, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osterholt, Miss Mary Osterholt, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ramey, Mrs. S. Richardson, Hale Kirk, Miss Helen Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halch, Mrs. W. B. Goodwin, Miss Helen Goodwin, Mrs. Charles G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mr. and Mrs. Byford Ryan, W. B. Leeds, Mr. George P. Slade.

Resting in the fragrant shade of the Poland Springs pines.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At Church Hill are Mrs. J. J. O'Keefe, Mrs. D. W. Kilbourne, Mrs. Anna Krueger Muller, Antonio Duena and Miss Elizabeth Wright of New York City, a member of the Savoy Opera Company of London; Ivan Shestakovsky and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrup; Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lavin, Albany; Louis Michalski, Nelson and Agnes Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas; Robert Thomas and Ewart Thomas, all of Brooklyn; Others from New York City include Mrs. George C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Looney, Miss Alice Looney, Miss Harriet Prater, Manhattan; Mrs. E. L. Town, Brooklyn.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

A perfect day on the links at Poland Springs.

COTTAGES FILLING EARLY AT SARATOGA

Fewer Are Unengaged Than at Any Previous Time in Resort's History.

SARATOGA SPRING, July 15.—With the coming of hot weather and the near approach of the racing season the cottage colony is rapidly beginning to fill up, and it is believed that in another week every past record will be broken. Real estate brokers report that fewer cottages remain unengaged this week than ever before in the history of the resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean of Washington will soon arrive to occupy the Scott cottage in Union avenue, which they have leased for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney will reside at the Putnam Villa, near the Golf club grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont will occupy their own summer home out Nelson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson will occupy the Shevlin residence in Union avenue next week, and will remain here during August.

James Shelvin of Brooklyn has returned as usual, and is occupying his home in Union avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey O'Leary opened Intisarra Villa earlier than usual this season.

Mrs. Henry B. Hyde arrived several weeks ago and is at her North Broadway summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford will occupy a cottage at the United States Hotel.

William K. Vanderbilt is expected to return for a week or more of the racing. With the erection of a large pavilion at Saratoga Lake and the improvement of beach conditions bathing has become a popular fad, and daily a row of automobiles is ranged along the shore.

Some of those who have engaged boxes for the race meeting are Richard T. Wilson, the racing president; Andrew Miller, August Belmont, Payne Whitney, C. K. G. Hilling, John Sanford, James Butler, Capt. E. B. Casatt, Schuyler L. Parsons, Frank McKee, Gifford A. Cochran, D. Stevenson, Mrs. George A. Dagortas, Edward W. Kearney, Chauncey O'Leary, H. K. Knapp, Samuel Adams Clark, Col. George P. Lanyon, M. L. Town, C. H. Warriner, William B. Gage, Miss Florence Hathorn, John E. Walker, J. C. P. Jacoby, F. W. Lawrence, Franklin B. Pettit, Edward Murphy, 2d; George N. Ostrander, Nash Rockwood, Frank J. Nolan, Mrs. A. M. Thackara, John Tucker, Hamilton Austin, John C. King, Thomas Clyde, W. F. Freagrae, Miss Blanche Nolan, Mrs. C. Gray Dunmore, James B. Hezen, Andrew W. Smith, H. Leland Riker, Mrs. Walter Reisinger, F. H. von Stade, J. E. Widener, Edward M. Weld, Archibald Barkley, J. Brand Walker, D. W. Mahon, Willis Shantz Kline, Samuel D. Riddle, Harry M. Stevens and Albert Stokes.

Trout Still Biting in Streams at Cresco

CRESCO, Pa., July 15.—Black bass fishing is fast forging to the front here and anglers have been having excellent luck. Among them are William H. Hoed and...

RESTING IN THE FRAGRANT SHADE OF THE POLAND SPRINGS PINES.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

RESTING IN THE FRAGRANT SHADE OF THE POLAND SPRINGS PINES.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

RESTING IN THE FRAGRANT SHADE OF THE POLAND SPRINGS PINES.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

RESTING IN THE FRAGRANT SHADE OF THE POLAND SPRINGS PINES.

VISITORS TO CATSKILLS FLOW INTO STAMFORD

STAMFORD, N. Y., July 15.—The summer population of Stamford was materially increased this week not only by those coming for a season but by large numbers of automobile tourists.

The social season is well under way, and the hope that are taking place tonight at the Roxemere and at Chute Hill Hall are among the prettiest functions seen here in some time.

Late arrivals at the Roxemere from New York include C. Lutz, Miss E. E. White, Miss M. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ballin, Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Goodrich, Brooklyn; Morgan E. Harris, Richmond.

At the Cold Spring House are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paterson, Dr. M. C. Seagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. W. S. Shuman, Mrs. W. A. Voshburgh, New York.

COTTAGES FILLING EARLY AT SARATOGA

Fewer Are Unengaged Than at Any Previous Time in Resort's History.

SARATOGA SPRING, July 15.—With the coming of hot weather and the near approach of the racing season the cottage colony is rapidly beginning to fill up, and it is believed that in another week every past record will be broken. Real estate brokers report that fewer cottages remain unengaged this week than ever before in the history of the resort.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beale McLean of Washington will soon arrive to occupy the Scott cottage in Union avenue, which they have leased for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney will reside at the Putnam Villa, near the Golf club grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. August Belmont will occupy their own summer home out Nelson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson will occupy the Shevlin residence in Union avenue next week, and will remain here during August.

James Shelvin of Brooklyn has returned as usual, and is occupying his home in Union avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey O'Leary opened Intisarra Villa earlier than usual this season.

Mrs. Henry B. Hyde arrived several weeks ago and is at her North Broadway summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford will occupy a cottage at the United States Hotel.

William K. Vanderbilt is expected to return for a week or more of the racing. With the erection of a large pavilion at Saratoga Lake and the improvement of beach conditions bathing has become a popular fad, and daily a row of automobiles is ranged along the shore.

Some of those who have engaged boxes for the race meeting are Richard T. Wilson, the racing president; Andrew Miller, August Belmont, Payne Whitney, C. K. G. Hilling, John Sanford, James Butler, Capt. E. B. Casatt, Schuyler L. Parsons, Frank McKee, Gifford A. Cochran, D. Stevenson, Mrs. George A. Dagortas, Edward W. Kearney, Chauncey O'Leary, H. K. Knapp, Samuel Adams Clark, Col. George P. Lanyon, M. L. Town, C. H. Warriner, William B. Gage, Miss Florence Hathorn, John E. Walker, J. C. P. Jacoby, F. W. Lawrence, Franklin B. Pettit, Edward Murphy, 2d; George N. Ostrander, Nash Rockwood, Frank J. Nolan, Mrs. A. M. Thackara, John Tucker, Hamilton Austin, John C. King, Thomas Clyde, W. F. Freagrae, Miss Blanche Nolan, Mrs. C. Gray Dunmore, James B. Hezen, Andrew W. Smith, H. Leland Riker, Mrs. Walter Reisinger, F. H. von Stade, J. E. Widener, Edward M. Weld, Archibald Barkley, J. Brand Walker, D. W. Mahon, Willis Shantz Kline, Samuel D. Riddle, Harry M. Stevens and Albert Stokes.

Trout Still Biting in Streams at Cresco

CRESCO, Pa., July 15.—Black bass fishing is fast forging to the front here and anglers have been having excellent luck. Among them are William H. Hoed and...

Advertisement for '7 Days on the Great Lakes' featuring the 'MINNESOTA' steamship. Includes details about routes to Chicago and return, meals and beer included, and contact information for the Buffalo (Niagara Falls) to Chicago & Return.

Advertisement for 'Marthas Vineyard and Nantucket Vacation Days'. Describes picturesque islands off the Massachusetts coast, offering scenic views, fishing, and relaxation. Includes contact information for the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad.

Advertisement for 'Westport Regatta Set for August 10'. Details the annual regatta club under the auspices of the Westport Yacht Club, including races for power boats, hydroplanes, and a regatta ball. Lists participating clubs and sponsors.

Advertisement for 'New Golf Links Open at Catskill Mountain House'. Announces the opening of the new golf links at the Catskill Mountain House, highlighting the scenic views and excellent playing conditions. Lists the names of the links and the house.

Advertisement for 'Art Exhibition Opens at Poland Spring, Me.'. Promotes the 22nd annual exhibition of paintings and sculpture at Poland Spring, Maine, featuring works by 41 New York artists. Includes details about the location and the variety of art on display.