

To-morrow Is Likely to See Herzog Again a Giant--Yanks Win Two But Lose High--Superbas Beaten Twice

NEW YORK HAS INSIDE TRACK IN BIG DICKER

Giants Alone Offer What Cincinnati Wants for Buck Herzog.

EBBETS WILLING TO PART WITH A PITCHER

By DANIEL.

Charley Herzog is still a Red, but it won't be very long before he will again be a Giant. In addition to the New York club, the Brooklyn, Boston, Chicago and Pittsburgh outfits are hot on the trail of the star infielder, but the odds are against the Giants who will land the prize.

New York is the only club which offers just what Cincinnati wants—a good infielder, a fast outfielder and a manager—Bill McKechnie, Eddie Roush and Matty. Few of the other bidders want to give up any good players, and if Cincinnati ever let Herzog go in a purely financial deal, Garry Herrmann would have to shut down for the season. The Rhineland fans like Buck, and if he is just sold out of the team, they will most certainly boycott the Reds.

Julius Fleischmann, one of the directors of the Cincinnati club, early yesterday morning left for Cincinnati. Fleischmann declared that his fellow directors were keen for having Matty Fieldy, but they insisted that he come without a string.

Giants Have Inside Track.

He also declared that McKechnie and Roush were mighty good players, and who would shine in Cincinnati uniforms. He made it pretty plain that New York had the inside track, and that while he may come some day, he will most certainly be put through, with Wade Kilmer also coming to the Giants.

According to a despatch from Cincinnati last night, Charley Ebbets came on to hold a conference with Herrmann. Garry declared he would talk business if Brooklyn wanted to give Zack Wheat and George Cuthbert for Herzog. This Ebbets refused to do, but he offered any pitcher other than Ed Pfeffer, and Ollie O'Mara and a wad of cash. That offer was turned down.

Chicago is certain to prove a formidable rival for New York in this deal. Charley Veeghman offers Max Baer, a catcher, and a wad of cash. Wildfire Schulte for Wade Kilmer, and Herzog a three year contract at $10,000 a season. For additional cash, Chicago would like to give John Evers and Outfielder Whitford for Herzog, and Herrmann wants to trade for Maranville on an even basis. What Herzog is willing to give nobody knows. He is likely to make a deal with Chicago, who is trading into the field is for purposes of giving the Pittsburgh fans a little soothing syrup.

Was Ready to Re-sign.

It will be noted that the Giant offer is far better than any of the others and that acceptance of any but the New York proposition would still leave the Reds minus a star player. Herzog was ready to resign the leadership of the Reds three weeks ago, and that it was McGraw himself who ordered the negotiations for the star. The Giant manager went to Baltimore a week ago last Sunday and asked Herrmann for permission to dicker with Herzog, who had said yes to which club shall get him in the event of a transfer from Cincinnati. McGraw gladly gave McGraw the permission to talk with Herzog, and McGraw readily consented to come back to New York. He went so far as to arrange to move his family here.

Harry Hendrix, president of the New York club, was in Chicago yesterday, and both he and McGraw got into telephonic communication with Herrmann at Cincinnati. Hendrix is expected to hold over all deals for Herzog until today, when the Giant officials will confer with him. To-morrow may see Herzog at the third for the Giants and Matty heading the Giant trio for Redland.

INDIANS BEAT MACKEN.

Hasselbacher's Wildness a Factor in 12 to 5 Victory.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—(American.)—Cleveland hit Philadelphia, 12 to 5, today, to win the first game of the series. The Indians' wildness was a factor in the victory.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—(American.)—Cleveland hit Philadelphia, 12 to 5, today, to win the first game of the series. The Indians' wildness was a factor in the victory.

INDIANS BEAT MACKEN.

Hasselbacher's Wildness a Factor in 12 to 5 Victory.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—(American.)—Cleveland hit Philadelphia, 12 to 5, today, to win the first game of the series. The Indians' wildness was a factor in the victory.

INDIANS BEAT MACKEN.

Hasselbacher's Wildness a Factor in 12 to 5 Victory.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—(American.)—Cleveland hit Philadelphia, 12 to 5, today, to win the first game of the series. The Indians' wildness was a factor in the victory.

INDIANS BEAT MACKEN.

Hasselbacher's Wildness a Factor in 12 to 5 Victory.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—(American.)—Cleveland hit Philadelphia, 12 to 5, today, to win the first game of the series. The Indians' wildness was a factor in the victory.

INDIANS BEAT MACKEN.

Hasselbacher's Wildness a Factor in 12 to 5 Victory.

PHILADELPHIA, July 19.—(American.)—Cleveland hit Philadelphia, 12 to 5, today, to win the first game of the series. The Indians' wildness was a factor in the victory.

INDIANS BEAT MACKEN.

Hasselbacher's Wildness a Factor in 12 to 5 Victory.

Crippled Yanks Defy Fate; Win Twin Bill

Down Browns, 5 to 0 and 5 to 4, but Lose Services of High, Who Turns Left Ankle--Russell, in Fine Form, Holds Visitors to Four Hits in Opener.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Yankee games are getting to be like the gladiatorial combats of ancient Rome. The sun never sets behind Coogan's Bluff but that some new wounded Yank does not hobble into the Cross tent. Yesterday Hughie High, the little midget, who was leading the team at bat, and was playing the best ball of his career, joined (Hilhooley, Baker, Maize, Cullip and the rest of the crippled corps.

Hughie was having one of his banner days of the season, too. In the first game he punched out three hits and pilfered two bases, and he was winged in his first time up in the second game.

In the second inning of the sunset game on the Harlem meadow the pee-wee flycatcher tried to save his old pal Fisher by coming in fast for Severeid's short fly. Just as Hughie got the ball on his finger tip he tripped, and in falling he pitched the ball into the hands of the Browns.

The club physician has cheerful news. He says Hugh will be back in a few days—possibly to-morrow.

Hughie's little hurt was just an incident. It was the only cloud at the end of a perfect day, as Hartwell took up the second game, the Red Sox kept pace with us by twice yanking the tail of the Detroit feline. After the game "Ary Sparrow" took down his bargain sign, as the club now has cleaned all the players' postmortems of its plate. It was the sixth double header won by the Yanks on the Polo grounds this season.

James Chased Off Field.

Felder Jones felt rather peeved about losing those two to Donovan's cripples, and Bill Dineen put him off the field for grumbling from the bench in the second game.

Walter Johnson Wins Second Game, 6 to 2, After Chicago Takes First, 6 to 3.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—(American.)—Chicago and Washington split even today, Chicago winning the first game, 6 to 3, and Washington the second, 6 to 3.

Chicago's first game was a double header. The Cubs scored on Severeid's double, the play which maimed High. The Yanks tied in the fourth, but the Cubs scored again in the fifth, and won the game, 6 to 3.

In the second game the Yanks scored again in the fourth on Severeid's pass, Alexander's single, a balk and Pipp's sacrifice fly.

Yanks Tally Three Times.

The Yanks got three in the fifth. Magee and Hartwell singled and the former scored on Severeid's double. Peck was out on Oldring's bouncer to Austin and Hartwell and the Rubie both scored. The Yanks made a two base wild throw on Mullin.

That gave Fisher four runs to work on, but it was not enough. St. Louis scored in the sixth on Severeid's double, Mullin's single and Severeid's sacrifice fly.

Hartley, a right handed hitter, came up to bat for Miller and Donovan yanked out Morgridge and called upon Shawkey. Bob sent shivers down the spines of the fans. He filled the bases all over again by hitting Hartley and walking Slater. Then he pulled out of trouble by retiring Pratt on a bouncer to Boone.

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

CHICAGO SLUGFEST

Poor Headwork by Cubs Figures Largely in New York's Victory, 8 to 6.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Chicago, Ill. July 19.—The Giants and Cubs played an old-fashioned game here today before an old-time crowd, and McGraw's men retained their clean 1916 record in Chicago by smashing out a victory in a batting carnival. They won the first game of the series by a score of 8 to 6.

The Cubs owe their defeat largely to stupid baseball. They were the victims of four double plays, three of them being started by Bill Harder. The Bruisers especially made the crowd of 12,000 suffer in the third inning, when they had the bases full with none out, but on the same play two Cubs were picked off second.

Singles by Knabe and Mann and Williams filled the bases. Harder then pegged down to second, and caught Mann off his base of supplies. Knabe tried to help out by bluffing to score, but he was caught by Harder.

Knabe was in lots of trouble in the second inning, when he was caught by Mullin. He safely he purposely passed Nunny. The Rubie tried to steal home, and made the decision very close. The Donovan was caught by Mullin's throw.

Magee doubled with one out, took third on High's infield single, and after Hughie stole, Peck's pass filled the bases. Slater hit with a sacrifice fly. High going to third, from where he scored on Oldring's infield hit in front of the plate.

Knob Sent to Cover.

Knob was knocked out in the sixth, when the Yanks got three more. Mullin doubled and Boone walked, both infielders running home on Nunny's fierce triple to right. Fincher was the new pitcher, and Leslie scored when Pratt knocked out Boone's fierce smash and tossed out Leopold at first.

In the second game the Yanks scored another left hander, "Ollie" Hamilton, who hit with a sacrifice fly. Boone was caught by Mullin's throw.

Ray Fisher started, and again could not stand prosperity. Sharp support helped him for six innings. He had a lead of three runs, but the Cubs scored in the seventh, and the Yanks tied in the eighth. However, the Browns filled the bags in a jiffy, and fearing a blowout, Donovan sent Ray away. Both Morgridge and Severeid were caught in the ninth.

St. Louis scored a run in the second inning. Slater opened the inning with a triple, but he was caught by Severeid's smash to Fisher. The Cuban scored on Severeid's double, the play which maimed High. The Yanks tied in the fourth, but the Cubs scored again in the fifth, and won the game, 6 to 3.

In the second game the Yanks scored again in the fourth on Severeid's pass, Alexander's single, a balk and Pipp's sacrifice fly.

Yanks Tally Three Times.

The Yanks got three in the fifth. Magee and Hartwell singled and the former scored on Severeid's double. Peck was out on Oldring's bouncer to Austin and Hartwell and the Rubie both scored. The Yanks made a two base wild throw on Mullin.

That gave Fisher four runs to work on, but it was not enough. St. Louis scored in the sixth on Severeid's double, Mullin's single and Severeid's sacrifice fly.

Hartley, a right handed hitter, came up to bat for Miller and Donovan yanked out Morgridge and called upon Shawkey. Bob sent shivers down the spines of the fans. He filled the bases all over again by hitting Hartley and walking Slater. Then he pulled out of trouble by retiring Pratt on a bouncer to Boone.

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

ST. LOUIS (A.) NEW YORK (A.)

DOUBLE VICTORY FOR RED SOX AGAINST YANKEES

Red Sox Rout Jennings Tigers Twice in One Afternoon, 9 to 5 and 4 to 2.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Boston, July 19.—(American.)—The Red Sox took a double victory over the Detroit Tigers today, winning the first contest, 9 to 5, and the second 4 to 2.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

In the first game Boston took the lead in the eighth on a double by Hobson, a single by Hendricks, batting for Scott, and a hit by Agnew.

Robins Drop Two Games to Pirates, 1 to 0, 2 to 1

In Second Game Superbas Tie Score in Ninth Only to Lose in the Fourteenth--Both Winning Runs Helped Along by Brooklyn Errors.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Pittsburgh, July 19.—With a bargain day crowd looking on at Forbes Field, Jimmy Callahan's rejuvenated Pirates beat the league leading Brooklyn in both ends of a double header here today. The victory each time came decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance. While Brooklyn was dropping two to the Pirates, Boston was beating St. Louis. The Braves now are back on the banks of the Dodgers.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

With two out in the tenth and Stengel singled to left, but Stengel was thrown out at the plate. Jimmy Johnston singled in the tenth, and was sacrificed to second by O'Mara. Johnston however, was marooned when Getz tied to Costello and Wheat popped to Farmer.

The scores were Pittsburgh, 1; Brooklyn, 0, and Pittsburgh, 2; Brooklyn, 1, the Dodgers tying things up in the ninth in the first game, but losing in the fourteenth. In the second game only to lose out in the fourteenth.

Victory perched on the shoulders of the Corsairs right off the reel in the opening contest for the Pirates. The Pirates scored in the first frame, and were the lone out of the game. It was a pitcher's duel between Jeff Pfeffer and Uncle Robbie's big right hander, and the Pirates' victory was decided by a margin of one run, and a Dodger misdeed aiding in the manufacture of the winning margin in each instance.

SHOCKER HANGS UP ANOTHER VICTORY

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.

Urban Blanks Newark in First Game of Bargain Bill by 2 to 0 Count.