LENOX COTTAGERS HOLD EXHIBITION OF LARKSPUR

Sweet Pea Contest at Bar Harbor Won by Mrs. Robert Winthrop for Second Time--Women Enter Season Contest for Golf Trophy

Lenox, Mass., July 22.—Midsummer has brought to Lenox the last of the cottagers and throughout the region there have been many social activities. A series of gold plate dinners, meetings to view and discuss various specimens of garden flowers, afternoon teas, followed by bridge whist and an occasional dance at the Lake Mahkanean Boating Club, have been among the affairs of the week.

From Canada have returned those who go to Cascapedia region annually for a few weeks fishing. Mr. and Mrs. Grand Foster, Grand Foster, Jr., Miss Heloise Meyer, Miss Gertrude Parsons, Brown Caldwell and his son George Caldwell are among those who passed a part of the month with rod and reel.

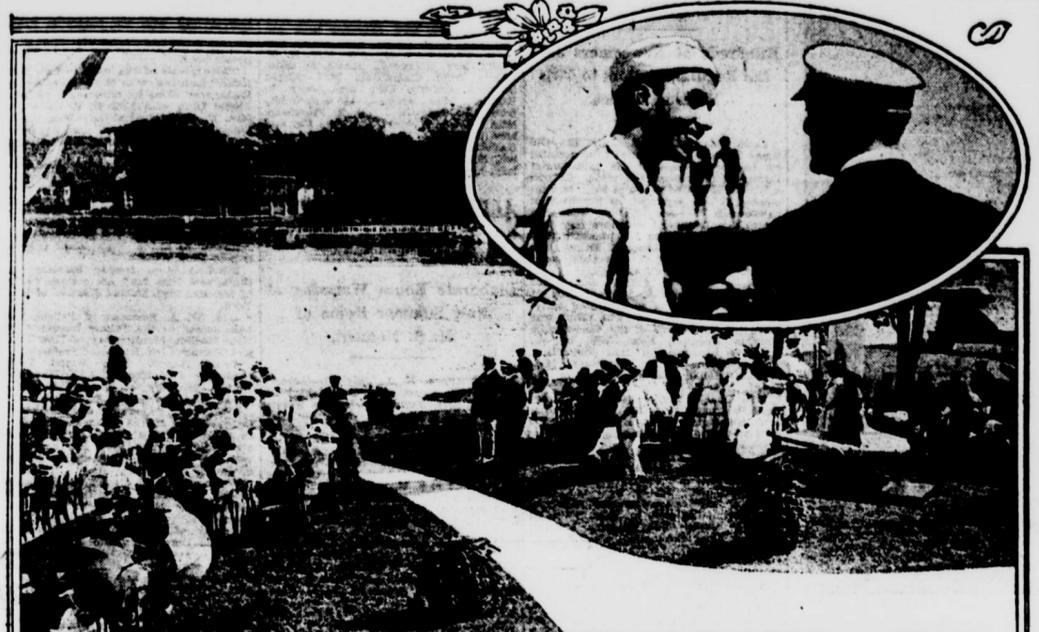

Mr. and Mrs. Banyer Clarkson's entertainment of the Lenox Garden Club Council, Monday afternoon, was one of the interesting affairs of the week. The members carried with them specimens of larkspur, which just now is at its best, and the exhibits were arranged and shown in competition. Mrs. Clarkson won the first award, showing an almost perfect specimen. Mrs. Edwards Spencer, who has a new garden at Ship-ton Court, was second, and Mrs. William Pollock of Honesdale, third in the distribution of awards. Mrs. Spencer, one of the keenest growers of garden flowers in the hills, read a paper on delphiniums. Mrs. Clarkson was assisted at the tea tables by Mrs. Spencer and Miss Margaret French. Those present were the leaders of the Lenox Garden Club, which successfully entertained the Garden Club of America last month. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shields Clark, Mrs. Oscar Jaeger, Mrs. Bernhard Hoffman, Miss Emily W. Hildel, Miss Georgiana W. Sargent, Miss Emily Tuckerman, Miss Anna Blake Rhaw, Miss Nancy C. Wharton, the Rev. Dr. George Grenville Merrill and Mrs. Daniel Chester French.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 22.—The Hon. Alfred Anson, an officer in the British army, who has been spending a brief furlough here with his wife, has left for England to rejoin his regiment. Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer gave a large dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Anson Tuesday evening, when forty guests were present.

BLOCK ISLAND FOLK LANDING BIG FISH

Block Island, R. I., July 22.—The event of the week was a masquerade ball at the Manissee Hotel. The ballroom was decorated with banners and paper streamers strung overhead. Those in costume took part in a grand march led by W. Kaufman of No. 2465 Broadway, New York, who was the leading spirit of the affair. Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Mrs. W. Kaufman, who represented "Liberty," and Eastman Brown, who was dressed as a Cavalier; Miss Beatrice Goldsmith of New York, who was dressed as a newboy, and F. B. Davison of New York made a very realistic tramp.

BALL OF HANANS AT NARRAGANSETT

Opening of The Towers Marked by Brilliant Reception and Dance.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, July 22.—Midsummer at Narragansett finds the famed resort more attractive more beautiful than ever. Improvements now practically completed include new sidewalks along both sides of Ocean road, the Towers and the large new motion picture theatre. The weather, too, always an element of the utmost importance in the life of the Pier, has changed from the uncertain and disagreeable conditions of early summer to long sunny days of refreshing coolness followed by the ideal twilight and moonlight nights over the ocean.

For the mere pleasure seeker and lover of sports there is complete satisfaction in the polo tournament now in progress at the Point Judith Polo Club and the national tennis tournament now on at the courts of the Point Judith Country Club.

The season of conspicuous social events at the Pier was inaugurated on Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hanan, who gave a brilliant reception and dance in The Towers, the recently completed stone pile across Ocean road, formerly the famous old Sherry Casino. The landmarks, now one of the finest pieces of architecture at the Pier, with handsome interiors overlooking the ocean, owes its present existence and reconstruction to Mr. and Mrs. Hanan, and the reception there on Friday night was the nature of a house warming.

mother, Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, at Chatham, coming through in his motor from New York. He will remain here for the month of July.

Saturday afternoons in August the Building of Arts will be the gathering place for those interested in music, and a very diversified programme will be offered. On August 5 Mrs. Alma Gluck will give a song recital. Saturday, August 12, a play from the Portuguese by Julio Dantas will be given, while a week later Josef Hofmann will give a piano recital. On the last Saturday in August an out of door play will be given.

Miss Louise Alexander on Monday perfected the organization of the Lenox branch of the Red Cross Society and established a branch hospital supply base. A trained nurse has been engaged to give instructions in first aid and home nursing. Several women will attempt to qualify for registration as nurses assistants, for call in time of war disaster.

Among recent New York arrivals are: Mathewson—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Haddon, Mr. and Mrs. Percy T. Griffith, Herbert Griffith, Miss James French Dorrance, Mrs. G. A. Churchill and J. F. Alexander.

Imperial—Mrs. S. Barton French, Miss Carlotta Wilson, Charles K. Fleischman and Mrs. Edwin W. Belcher. Hotel Gladstone—E. H. Whitney. Massachusetts Hotel—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sumner. Atlantic House—Miss Gertrude F. Clark.
