SOUTHAMPTON SHOWS FRUITS AND FLOWERS

Cottage Colony Takes Active Interest in the Horticultural Exhibition.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., July 29.—The Horticultural Show which was held Wednesday and Thursday was a great success. The huge marquee erected on the school grounds was beautifully decorated with flowers and vegetables most tastefully arranged, making the show one of the most successful ever held. One-half the net proceeds will go for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital.

There were more than 1500 in prizes awarded. Mrs. Robert Potter Breece offered special prizes for the best kept grounds and best appearing shop fruit and the competition was very keen. The Garden Club contributed $50 toward the prizes.

Special prizes for lunch and dinner table decoration, open to women of the Cottage Colony only, were offered by Mrs. Thomas H. Barber, Mrs. William Morrison Gilmer, Mrs. Charles B. MacDonald, Mrs. Chester Griswold, Mrs. Charles G. Franklyn, Mrs. George Burton French, Mrs. Charles Steel and Mrs. Arthur H. Larkin.

Mrs. Samuel L. Parrish, chairman of the advisory board, offered six prizes for the vase competition on the Parish Art Museum grounds. Among the exhibitors of the advisory committee were Mrs. James L. Breece, Mrs. Thomas H. Barber, Mrs. G. Warrington Curtis, Mrs. Arthur B. Chaffin, Mrs. E. Tiffany Dyer, Mrs. Charles B. Pranklin, Mrs. Chester Griswold, Mrs. William Morton Grinnell, Mrs. P. Barrall Hoffman, Mrs. Charles R. Henderson, Mrs. Rosina S. Hoyt, Mrs. Charles B. Macdonald, Mrs. Rufus L. Patterson, Mrs. Henry K. Porter, Mrs. Horace Russell, Mrs. Frederick A. Snow, Mrs. B. Aymar Sands, Mrs. Robert M. Thompson, Mrs. Howard Townsend, Mrs. Henry G. Trevor and Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff.

The Southampton Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. James Laurence Breece. Owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. Thomas H. Barber, the chair was occupied by Mrs. Peter B. Wyckoff. Mrs. L. A. Brown gave a lecture on "Judging of Flowers." After the lecture the members were taken through Mrs. Breece's garden and later refreshments were served.
