

WHEN THE SEA, WITH WINDS PIPING AND BLOWING, CALLS TO THE CITY

WATER SPORTS AT LARCHMONT. ON THE CLUB-HOUSE PLAZA.

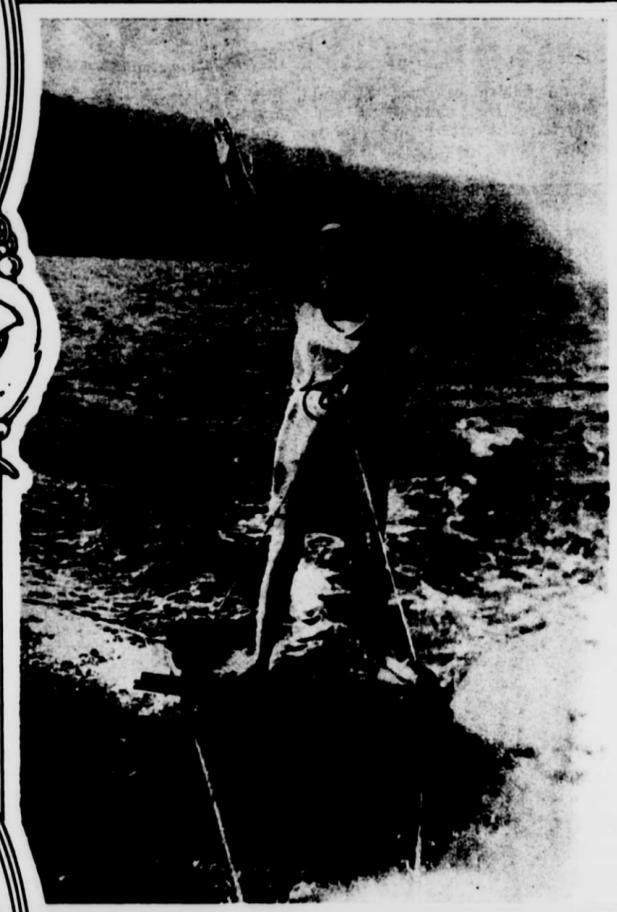

LADIES' DAY AT THE LARCHMONT WATER SPORTS

Miss Dorothy Van Heusen aquaplaning on the Hudson, drawn by a fast motor boat.

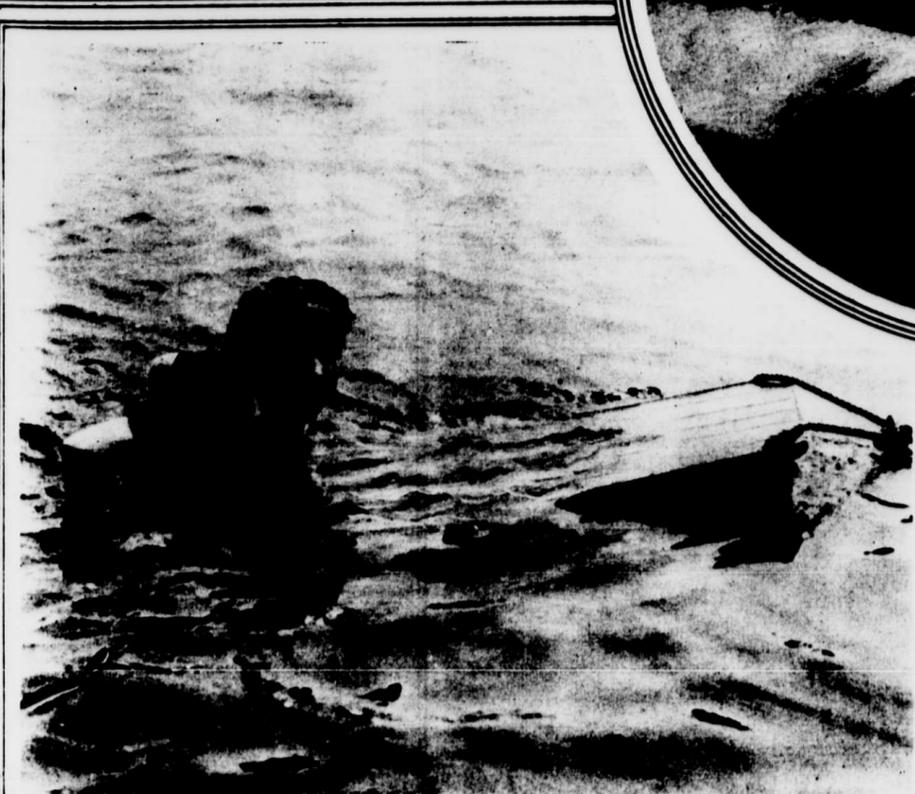

Commodore Scott and friends going out to his yacht Miladi at Larchmont.
Photos by Edwin Levick.

Reminiscent of the Roman chariot race. One of Miss Moller's pupils aquaplaning.

The spirit of Ancient Greece in the gasoline age. Posed on the Hudson by the Helen Moller Classic Dancers.
Photos by Keller & White.

Frances Starr tries out her new aquaplane at her summer home on Lake George.
Photo by Paul Thompson.

Surf riding, the famous Hawaiian water sport, is introduced at Coney Island with modern improvements.
Photo by Reich Press Association.

