

aid of the Austrians in defending the Carpathian passes, and it is reported unofficially that the troops are being thrown into the same district.

RUSSIAN SAVINGS INCREASE.

Government Revenue in All Lines Shows Large Growth. PETROGRAD, via London, Aug. 12.—Russian savings bank deposits thus far in 1916 are considerably greater than for all the previous years.

Turks in European War Field. LONDON, Aug. 12.—According to the Berliner Tagblatt, wires from the American correspondent, the transport of Turkish troops on a great scale to the European war field is proceeding without a hitch.

BRITISH LOSE 1,799 OFFICERS IN WEEK

Proportion of Killed to Wounded Increases on Western Front. LONDON, July 27.—Officers' casualty lists continue to show the severity of the fighting on the western front.

SINKS 3 SHIPS IN HALF HOUR. German U Boat Held Up Six and Let Three Depart. LONDON, Aug. 12.—A German submarine held up six ships at once and sank three of them in a half hour on Thursday morning.

ALL 'CITIZENS OF POLAND' NOW

Austria Issues an Order Covering the Sections Occupied. AMSTERDAM (via London), Aug. 12.—The Austrian Press has issued an order that all the inhabitants of the part of Russian Poland occupied by Austro-Hungarian troops must be regarded as subjects of the kingdom of Poland.

ANGLO-AMERICAN UNION PREDICTED

Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

MOTOR THEFT REVEALED.

Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

OSTEOPATH IS INDICTED.

Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

SHREVEPORT RATES UPSET.

Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

OHIO FLOOD DAMAGES CRAPS.

MARIETTA, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

THE map shows the location and progress of the Russian offensive. The arrows A, B and C indicate the three main offensives. In the space between B and C the Russians have forced a considerable retirement along a line from Tarnopol south to Buczacz. The arrow A marks the renewed offensive against Kovel. The arrow B shows the drive of Gen. Sakharoff, who aims at the Galician stronghold of Lemberg from Brody. Gen. Lechitsky aims at Lemberg also, and arrow C shows his advance toward Halicz, the key to Lemberg, from Stanislaw. The line marked D shows the position of Gen. Count von Bothmer's Teutonic army falling back before the Russians.

THE map shows the location and progress of the Russian offensive. The arrows A, B and C indicate the three main offensives. In the space between B and C the Russians have forced a considerable retirement along a line from Tarnopol south to Buczacz. The arrow A marks the renewed offensive against Kovel. The arrow B shows the drive of Gen. Sakharoff, who aims at the Galician stronghold of Lemberg from Brody. Gen. Lechitsky aims at Lemberg also, and arrow C shows his advance toward Halicz, the key to Lemberg, from Stanislaw. The line marked D shows the position of Gen. Count von Bothmer's Teutonic army falling back before the Russians.

OFFICIAL REPORTS OF MOVES IN WAR

French Attack Third German Line, Take Maurepas and Make Big Advance. COUNT 1,000 PRISONERS. Paris, Aug. 12.—The French night communiqué is as follows: North of the Somme, after preparatory fighting yesterday and last night, our troops today attacked the third German position, extending from east of Hardecourt to the Somme, opposite Busecourt.

Austrians Hold Out East of Goritz—Turks Claims Retreat of Russians. CONSTANTINOPLE, via London, Aug. 12.—The Turkish War Office issued today the following statement: The Russian force which, owing to bad roads and the difficulties of the terrain, had been unable to advance in the direction of the Bittis-Mush, has been compelled gradually to retreat.

Take All Winter Posts. PETROGRAD, Aug. 12.—The Russian general headquarters report issued tonight reads: The fête day in celebration of the birthday of the heir to the imperial throne, the Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaevich, by a fortunate coincidence happened at the same time as the battering down of the fortified wall which the enemy erected last winter from the Pripiet River to the Rumanian frontier.

Form on New Front. The afternoon French communiqué follows: North of the Somme our troops made use of the night to organize their new front. Our reconnoitering parties penetrated the woods east of Hem station, where they found the bodies of numerous Germans.

Quiet Says British. LONDON, Aug. 12.—The official communication issued by the British War Office tonight is as follows: Between the Aisne and the Somme there is no change. There has been intermittent shelling on the whole front.

Elkus is Guest of Honor. New Ambassador to Turkey Entered at City Club. Abram I. Elkus, recently appointed Ambassador to Turkey, yesterday was entertained at luncheon in the City Club in West Forty-fourth street as guest of honor.

U. S. Prods Britain on Trade Holdup. Backs American Complaints on Detention of Goods Shipped to Netherlands. LONDON, Aug. 12.—Complaints of American shippers over the detention of consignments to the Netherlands Overseas Trust are being supported and pressed by the United States Government.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

OFFICIAL REPORTS OF MOVES IN WAR

French Attack Third German Line, Take Maurepas and Make Big Advance. COUNT 1,000 PRISONERS. Paris, Aug. 12.—The French night communiqué is as follows: North of the Somme, after preparatory fighting yesterday and last night, our troops today attacked the third German position, extending from east of Hardecourt to the Somme, opposite Busecourt.

Austrians Hold Out East of Goritz—Turks Claims Retreat of Russians. CONSTANTINOPLE, via London, Aug. 12.—The Turkish War Office issued today the following statement: The Russian force which, owing to bad roads and the difficulties of the terrain, had been unable to advance in the direction of the Bittis-Mush, has been compelled gradually to retreat.

Take All Winter Posts. PETROGRAD, Aug. 12.—The Russian general headquarters report issued tonight reads: The fête day in celebration of the birthday of the heir to the imperial throne, the Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaevich, by a fortunate coincidence happened at the same time as the battering down of the fortified wall which the enemy erected last winter from the Pripiet River to the Rumanian frontier.

Form on New Front. The afternoon French communiqué follows: North of the Somme our troops made use of the night to organize their new front. Our reconnoitering parties penetrated the woods east of Hem station, where they found the bodies of numerous Germans.

Quiet Says British. LONDON, Aug. 12.—The official communication issued by the British War Office tonight is as follows: Between the Aisne and the Somme there is no change. There has been intermittent shelling on the whole front.

Elkus is Guest of Honor. New Ambassador to Turkey Entered at City Club. Abram I. Elkus, recently appointed Ambassador to Turkey, yesterday was entertained at luncheon in the City Club in West Forty-fourth street as guest of honor.

U. S. Prods Britain on Trade Holdup. Backs American Complaints on Detention of Goods Shipped to Netherlands. LONDON, Aug. 12.—Complaints of American shippers over the detention of consignments to the Netherlands Overseas Trust are being supported and pressed by the United States Government.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

man patrol enterprise was successful and some prisoners were taken. "Russian Attacks Pottli." Front of Field Marshal von Hindenburg. Near Dubuczevo, on the Strumen, west of Lake Nobel and south of Zareze, Russian attacks were rendered futile.

Strong enemy attacks on both sides of Proscianiec, west of Zalozce, were repelled. During the past few days our aerial squadrons found noteworthy objectives for their activity along the Kovel-Sarny railway line and in extensive troop encampments north of the same, on which they freely dropped bombs. A Russian aeroplane was shot down in an aerial fight north of Sokol.

Front of Archduke Charles Francis: Lively fighting was still in progress south of Zalozce last night. Other operations in the direction of the Carpathians. The movements we have initiated are being carried out in accordance with our plans.

During a progressive attack south of Zolze, in the Carpathians, we took 700 men prisoners and captured three machine guns. On both sides of the high German troops have now entered the fight.

Balkan front: Weak feints by the enemy repeated again yesterday, south of the Pripiet River, were speedily repelled by our artillery.

Take All Winter Posts. PETROGRAD, Aug. 12.—The Russian general headquarters report issued tonight reads: The fête day in celebration of the birthday of the heir to the imperial throne, the Grand Duke Alexis Nikolaevich, by a fortunate coincidence happened at the same time as the battering down of the fortified wall which the enemy erected last winter from the Pripiet River to the Rumanian frontier.

Form on New Front. The afternoon French communiqué follows: North of the Somme our troops made use of the night to organize their new front. Our reconnoitering parties penetrated the woods east of Hem station, where they found the bodies of numerous Germans.

Quiet Says British. LONDON, Aug. 12.—The official communication issued by the British War Office tonight is as follows: Between the Aisne and the Somme there is no change. There has been intermittent shelling on the whole front.

Elkus is Guest of Honor. New Ambassador to Turkey Entered at City Club. Abram I. Elkus, recently appointed Ambassador to Turkey, yesterday was entertained at luncheon in the City Club in West Forty-fourth street as guest of honor.

U. S. Prods Britain on Trade Holdup. Backs American Complaints on Detention of Goods Shipped to Netherlands. LONDON, Aug. 12.—Complaints of American shippers over the detention of consignments to the Netherlands Overseas Trust are being supported and pressed by the United States Government.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

Shreveport Rates Upset. Interstate Commerce Board Orders Them Readjusted. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Class rates and commodity rates between Shreveport, La., and points in southern Texas were today pronounced by the Interstate Commerce Commission unreasonable and prejudicial to Shreveport and ordered readjusted.

Ohio Flood Damages Craps. Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 12.—Damage to craps, farm property and live stock estimated at $100,000 was caused by a heavy rain that flooded the Little Muskingum river in Washington and Monroe counties last night.

Anglo-American Union Predicted. Reventlow Sees Pact to Oppose Germany and Curb Japan. Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. LONDON, Aug. 12.—President Wilson's attitude toward Germany is the result of a carefully studied and consistently followed anti-German policy.

Motor Theft Revealed. Two Men Arrested in Cleveland for Receiving Stolen Cars. CLEVELAND, Aug. 12.—David H. Hopkins, attorney and Cleveland law school instructor, and Frank Lyons, former saloonkeeper, were arrested here last night in what police and detectives say is the expose of a countrywide plot to steal automobiles.

Osteopath is Indicted. Boston Man Accused of Murder in First Degree. BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Dr. Eldridge D. Atwood, osteopath, who shot and fatally wounded Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, president of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, is accused of murder in the first degree in an indictment returned today.

J.M. Gidding & Co. FINAL CLEARANCE SALES. Of beautiful Summer Apparel at absurdly low prices. Groups are small—Prices are correspondingly low. Light Summer Frocks Formerly $45 to $65 at $28. Dance Dresses Formerly $85 to $125 at $28 & 48. Afternoon Wraps Formerly $65 to $95 at $28 & 48. Evening Wraps Formerly $125 to $165 at $28 & 48. Smart Street Dresses Formerly $65 to $95 at $32. Afternoon Gowns Formerly $75 to $125 at $32. Street & Afternoon Gowns Formerly $95 to $135 at $45. Evening Gowns Formerly $95 to $145 at $45. Final Suit Clearance. Remaining suits from various lines including white serge jersey silk and cloth formerly $45 to $75 at $18. Small groups of high-cost suits formerly $95, $145, $195 to $250 at $35 & $45.