Illustrated Interviews With Some of the

SOMEWHERE ON THE EAST SIDE.
"All you need to be comfortable when it gets real hot is a penny. Because the hoky poky man comes around every day and a penny is all he charges."

"You know, my dear, the roofs are getting to be so fashionable there's no resisting them. Why, even the Waldorf-Astoria had to come to it. Really, it's a pity to be stuck away in some stuffy seashore place with so much going on right here in town. So we stayed right in this summer."

"Wear something loose and baggy like I do and you won't mind it."

IN THE GASHOUSE DISTRICT.
"Gee, we'd hate to be kids that have to ride in automobiles and wear shoes and things."

"I'm staying in town for the horse show. Sure I'm going to ride."

ON THE SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK.
"If you take an active interest in sports you don't get time to worry about the hot spell. Now if you'd see some of the matches our gang pulls off you wouldn't want to be a fresh air kid."
