

REPUBLICANS SEE A CERTAIN VICTORY

Veteran Leaders Confident Hughes Will Be Victor in November.

PROGRESSIVES IN FOLD

Call Wilson Campaign Lame Because of Failure to Capture Moose.

Republican campaigners who are sufficiently detached from the routine work at headquarters to form an independent judgment have not hesitated in the last few days to express their positive belief that Charles E. Hughes is to win next November.

The assertion of the Democratic managers that the Hughes campaign already has a bad limp excites nothing but ridicule from these men. As a matter of fact they feel it is the Wilson campaign which has developed lameness because of the failure to make even a fair sized bag of Progressives, without whom they cannot win. This was shown, they say, when the Democratic managers put every Progressive leader of any size at all on the Progressive campaign committee. That committee consisted of seven men.

Reports coming in to these Republican veterans confirm the reports given out for publication at Republican national headquarters that the schism of 1912 is virtually healed and that the Progressives as a body, save for irreconcilable fragments here and there, in every State of the Union are behind Mr. Hughes. Their optimism is based largely on the simple arithmetic of the situation.

Some Criticisms Found.

Along with the confidence they express to the outside world next November there is some criticism, to be sure. It has centered chiefly around the apparent delay in perfecting an effective organization at national headquarters to handle the multitudinous details of the campaign. Those who make this charge, as a rule, do not place the blame on Chairman Wilcox. They say it is due to the enormity of the first task confronting him when he started in to run the campaign.

That was the bringing together at national headquarters of the Republicans and Progressives for the election of Mr. Hughes. Until this was accomplished details generally attended to by now have had to wait. As a harbinger these old time Republicans are frank to say Mr. Wilcox has accomplished wonders. But now that he has this task virtually accomplished there are many Republicans who are hoping that Mr. Wilcox will turn his hands to straightening out the kinks and getting down to an efficient basis, a feature generally of Republican campaigns.

Mr. Wilcox has had more troubles than merely that of bringing together the Republicans and Progressives. Different factions into which the Old Guard has split have attempted to maul and haul him this way and that in the selection of men for important work in the campaign. All this has delayed matters.

May Use Hitchcock.

It is almost certain now that Mr. Wilcox will avail himself of the services of Frank H. Hitchcock in meeting some of the problems which are before him. Reports from Chicago last night were that Mr. Hitchcock was to be one of the main men whom Mr. Wilcox is to name to help him run the campaign. Some of the men on this committee are to be business men of large experience. Others will belong more to the class of politicians. But all are to be men of national prominence whose names will be synonymous for efficiency and organization.

Chairman Wilcox, according to reports last night, will announce this committee to-day or to-morrow. On this committee the Progressives are to receive substantial recognition. Just as they did on the campaign committee, Raymond Robins it is said, will be a member of it representing the Progressives.

Upon the nine men of the committee will rest the duty of arranging, under Mr. Wilcox's supervision, the business of running the campaign on an efficient basis. They will advise with regard to the work at the Chicago headquarters just as with the work here. At least some of the members are expected to put in their entire time here helping Mr. Wilcox.

The advisory committee is entirely distinct from the campaign committee, formed some weeks ago. The members of this committee have already had specific work assigned to them and have been distributed between the two headquarters. Members of this committee now working at New York headquarters are Fred D. Estabrook, Herbert Parsons, Everett Colby, Alva Martin, Charles W. Warren and George W. Perkins. At the Western headquarters are James R. Garfield, assisted specially by woman suffrage; Harold Ickes, John T. Adams, James A. Hemenway and H. N. Howell.

Slap at Senator Murray Crane.

The selection of Frank Hitchcock as a member of the new consulting board or cabinet will be accepted by many as a direct slap at Senator Murray Crane and his friends. Their influence has exerted recently to keep Mr. Hitchcock from getting the Chicago post. However, in this matter of picking the men who are to be his close advisers in the next two months of the battle, Mr. Wilcox, it is said, has been actuated solely by the desire to get the men best fitted for the work in hand and has not allowed old antagonisms to sway him from this purpose.

With the appointment of this committee the Republican campaign is expected to move forward at a fast pace. And the committee will be still further evidence of the manner in which Progressives and Republicans have combined to elect Mr. Hughes.

As a sample of what some of the leading Progressives are doing out in the field, this list of Progressives who are to speak in Maine this week was given yesterday: Ex-Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, Representative Chandler of New York, Henry J. Allen of Kansas, Charles Sumner Bird of Massachusetts, Arthur L. Garrison of Ohio, Medill McCormick and Raymond Rouns of Illinois and E. C. Toner of Indiana.

WHITMAN AGAIN INDORSED.

Kings County, Independence League to Support Him.

Announcement was made yesterday by Records Commissioner O'Connor that the Independence League of Kings county had followed the example of the State organization by endorsing the renomination of Gov. Whitman, Lieut.-Gov. Schoenck and State Treasurer Wells.

The party also pledged its support to almost all the local Democratic nominees. It differed from the Manhattan contingent by voting its approval of the renomination of Frank L. Dowling, Democratic candidate, instead of Henry H. Curran, Republican nominee.

HUGHES PLEDGES AID TO LABORING MEN

Makes Four Speeches on Two Sides of San Francisco Bay.

MEETS WAITERS' STRIKE

Chester Rowell, as Emissary, Said to Plan Pacification of Moose.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—With four speeches on the two sides of the bay, Charles E. Hughes had a busy day at the window of his sojourn here. To the members of the Commercial Club and to a company of iron workers he preached the gospel of cooperation. In addressing country editors of the State, he pleaded for American unity, and to a crowd in Oakland he made a plea for national efficiency.

The day was further featured by a walkout of waiters at the Commercial Club a few minutes before the hour set for the nominee's luncheon there and the openly expressed dissatisfaction of State Progressive leaders with one sentence in Mr. Hughes's speech of last night. In the declaration, "with local differences I have no concern," the Bull Moose felt that the Republican leader gave tacit recognition to the organization of "Old Guardsmen," whose expressed determination it is to "kill off Elmer Johnson."

Would Pacify Johnson Men.

There was a report in circulation just before the candidate's train left for Los Angeles to-night that Chester Rowell, acting as emissary for Mr. Hughes, might go to Johnson and invite him to act as chairman of the meeting to be held in the last five years and were used as security for loans.

Rowell denied he had received such a commission and the nominee was silent. Rowell, as an uncompromising and irreconcilable Johnsonite, was one of the Moose most emphatic in criticizing the "hands off" declaration of last night.

Should Mr. Hughes send an invitation to Gov. Johnson he would offend the Republican organization, which insists that the State politicians to handle their own situation the Presidential nominee is following the pre-eminently wise course. The Bull Moose, on the other hand, in counselling a truce, call attention to the fact that 300,000 Progressives in the State refrained from registering under any party banner this year and are still to declare their allegiance.

California will go for Hughes, say both Republicans and Progressives. The situation was not of his making, and it is the State ticket rather than the State's electoral vote which is involved. At the worst, they agree, the only effect, so far as Hughes is concerned, will be a possible reduction of the majority he would receive under normal conditions.

To 1,000 Iron Workers.

Mr. Hughes managed to keep his morning free from outside activities but he received many callers in his suite in the Palace Hotel.

At 11 o'clock he was driven to the Union Iron Works, where 1,000 employees gave him a hearty welcome. One of them, Ignatius Sullivan, introduced him, and when the speech was ended scenes of cheering, hugging and hugging, shook hands with the nominee.

"It is perfectly idle to say," Mr. Hughes said, "that men can take a job or leave a job at their own choice. It is necessary to existence, and reasonable safety and fair conditions of work are an absolute right in the working community. It is not a matter of favor, it is a matter of securing just demands."

"I believe in proper safeguards of life and limb, in sanitary conditions of work, in reasonable hours of work, in proper opportunities for recreation and in proper provision for old age. These are fair demands of honest labor and I desire to see them successfully maintained."

Not Surgery, but Hygiene.

At the Commercial Club Mr. Hughes pleaded his hearers by pleading for businesslike methods in the Administration. He won applause when he said: "We have come to a constructive period, a difficult period, a period in which America must look forward with greater confidence in the soundness of our life than she has hitherto had. We have had abundant surgery. Nobody can live by surgery alone, however necessary it may be."

"We have got to have hygienic treatment. The system of the patient must be built up by abundant exercise, by fresh air and abundant nutrition. I am glad to think that we are ready for that forward movement, and now I think that we can control monopolistic practices and that we can prevent unjust discrimination."

"We can secure a square deal and yet we can foster enterprise, build up and not destroy, encourage and not fetter, and make the honorable man of business feel that he has a free avenue to an honest success."

Politics and Business.

Mr. Hughes declared further that the Government of the United States could not properly be conducted by mixing politics with business, with preparedness, with the maintenance of international honor or with other administrative functions of government. "When you start out to be military or military and not political," he said.

"You can break down your prosperity by prostituting yourself in the face of an unjust popular demand," was another assertion. "I shall never do that. And the unjust popular demand is only unjust because the facts are not understood. The only thing I am afraid of in this country is the dark."

The nominee spoke of Federal commissions to investigate various situations.

"I believe we can put down what is wrong without destroying what is good. We do not desire in correcting abuses to destroy the opportunities of success. We are competent, if we go about it in the right way, to destroy abuses, to secure open and fair dealing and at the same time make possible honest enterprise."

BIG CAR ABANDONED IN STREET.

Police Seeking Owner of Eight Cylinder Cadillac.

A new 1916 model eight cylinder Cadillac automobile, apparently abandoned by its owner, after standing in front of 215 West Fifty-seventh street from early Friday morning until late last night, was taken by the police to the West Forty-seventh street station house, where it now awaits a claimant.

According to the records of the Police Department the license numbers on the car—12-448 New York—indicates that it belongs to Arthur Seligman, whose address is given as the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. At the hotel last night it was said that a Mr. Seligman sometimes stays there, but has not been at the hotel for several months. At the Yale Club it was said an Arthur Seligman was sometimes there, but had not been there recently.

ADMITS HYPOTHECATING BONDS

Baltimore Man Who Attempted Suicide $60,000 Short.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 19.—Frederick Schless, a young business man, who several weeks ago attempted suicide by shooting himself in the head, admitted to-day to his uncle, Gustave Schless, president of the William Wilcox Company, that he had hypothecated bonds valued at $60,000 from two estates for which he was trustee. The bonds were taken in the last five years and were used as security for loans.

Schless is in a precarious condition. He will be blind if he recovers, the bullet having torn his right eye and destroyed the nerve centre of the left.

OTTINGER FOR STATE SENATOR.

County Committee Recommends Him for Bennett's Place.

Albert Ottinger, who ran in the primary against Representative Chandler in the Nineteenth district two years ago and was defeated, was recommended by the Republican county committee yesterday as the candidate for Senator in the Eighteenth district, to take the place of William M. Bennett.

Bennett this year is running against Whitman for the nomination for Governor. Had the new reapportionment act not been set aside it was said to have been Ottinger's intention to run against Senator Oden L. Mills, who will now be renominated without opposition.

Track Overturning, Kills Man.

MINEOLA, L. I., Aug. 19.—Angelo Pennisi of Montclair, N. J., was killed and James Haycock, Jr., of Palisades, N. J., was severely hurt when a large motor truck that Haycock was driving was overturned into a ditch on the Jericho turnpike, a mile east of Mineola to-day.

HUGHES BOLT SHOT, SAYS CHAMP CLARK

Republican Candidate Has Failed to Hit Bullseye, Asserts the Speaker.

BRAUNSWICK, Me., Aug. 19.—Champ Clark, Speaker of the House of Representatives, opened the campaign in Maine for the Democrats to-day in a speech in which he told of the accomplishments of the Administration and Congress under the leadership of President Wilson. He also took note of the campaign tour ex-Justice Charles E. Hughes is making in behalf of his candidacy for the Presidency.

Mr. Hughes, he said, had thus far made enough speeches to enable people to form judgment as to his opinions on current issues, and in the Speaker's opinion "he has shot his bolt, but failed to hit the bullseye." Mr. Clark said in part:

"Judge Hughes has made enough speeches in this campaign to enable intelligent persons to form something of a preliminary and correct judgment as to his opinions on current issues. He has shot his bolt, but failed to hit the bullseye."

It was universally conceded by both friend and foe that his speech at Youngstown, Ohio, in 1903, was far and away the greatest Republican speech made that year.

"Comparing his speeches since he was nominated for President with his strong Youngstown speech one is forced inevitably to one of two conclusions: "First, that his pen and tongue have lost their cunning measurably, or second, that he has nothing worth while to urge against Democratic accomplishments or to propose as Republican policies, should Republicans by some miracle win the House, the Senate and the Presidency."

GARBAGE PLANT PERMIT REVOKED

Richmond Folk Jubilant When Violation of Building Code Is Reported.

There was rejoicing among the 100,000 inhabitants of Richmond borough last night when announcement was made that the Building Department had revoked the permit issued to Gaffney, Gahagan & Van Netten to erect the $1,000,000 garbage disposal plant on Lake Island.

Acting Building Commissioner Ralph Langere, who was directed by Justice Crane to issue the permit, was the official to revoke it yesterday. Langere holds that the plans and specifications do not meet with the requirements of the Building Code.

Yesterday Langere went to Lake Island with a staff of men and made an inspection of the foundation of the garbage building. The permit issued called for a clay bottom or footing and the acting commissioner found that it was not so. He thereupon revoked the permit. Half the footing for the building has been laid.

The vigilance committee will now file an appeal from the decision of Justice Crane on the grounds that the plans and specifications do not comply with the Building Code. Counsel for the vigilance committee were confident last night that

THE SUPREME COURT WILL ENTERTAIN A MOTION FOR AN APPEAL, AND IN THAT EVENT THE WORK OF THE DESTRUCTOR ON LAKE ISLAND WILL BE HELD UP PENDING A DECISION OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION.

J. H. TYSON SUED FOR $1,682.

Plaintiffs Seek to Hold Up $200,000 Trust Income.

GREENWICH, Conn., Aug. 19.—John H. Tyson of Riverside, Conn., is defendant in a suit started by the D. Maher Sons Company, coal and ice dealers here, to recover on a bill for goods amounting to $1,682.82.

In papers filed in the Superior Court at Bridgeport yesterday the Greenwich Trust Company, trustee of about $200,000 willed to the defendant by his aunt, the late Fannie O. Hamilton, is summoned to appear before the September term of the court. The plaintiffs ask that the income due Tyson on the fund held in trust for him be applied to the debt unless fully satisfied.

LABOR INSURGENTS DEFEATED.

Attack on Federated Union for Compulsory Training Law Fails.

Insurgents, many of them women, made little headway yesterday with the Central Federated Union, which turned down hard the scheme of the Women's Trades Union League and the Brooklyn Central Labor Union to put the present State labor administration out of office. The Central Federated Union, instead of endorsing the administration headed by James P. Hiland by practically a unanimous vote. One motive for the rebellion was the passage of the military training law, which the insurgents said the leaders should have been able to prevent.

Remarkable Road And Race Track Records

JUNE, July and August have recorded a series of remarkable racing records achieved with the aid of Goodyear Cord Tires.

These victories are valuable because they offer corroborative evidence of the very qualities for which Goodyear Cord Tires are famous.

The terrific speed of the shorter contests, and the sustained speed of the longer ones, are added proof of that stoutness, liveliness and speediness which every Goodyear owner experiences in every-day use, and which led to the adoption of Goodyear Cord Tires as standard equipment on the Franklin, the Packard Twin-Six, the Locomobile, the Peerless, the White, the Haynes Twelve, and the Stutz.

Goodyear Cord Tire achievements to date have been as follows:

World's record for one mile on one-mile track, Des Moines, Ia., June 25, 1916, De Palma driving Mercedes car. Speed at the rate of 103 miles per hour.

World's record for 5 miles on one-mile track, Des Moines, Ia., June 26, 1916, Lewis driving Crawford car. 3 minutes, 3 seconds. 98 miles per hour.

Fourth place, 150-mile race on one-mile track, Des Moines, Ia., June 26, 1916, Lewis driving Crawford car.

First place, 50-mile race, on one-mile track, Des Moines, Ia., June 26, 1916, Lewis driving Crawford car. 89 miles per hour.

Second place, 20-mile race, Des Moines, Ia., June 26, 1916, Lewis driving Crawford car. 82 miles per hour.

Second place, 10-mile race, Des Moines, Ia., June 26, 1916, Lewis driving Crawford car. 90 miles per hour.

First place, 5-mile race, one-mile track, Des Moines, Ia., June 26, 1916, Lewis driving Crawford car. 90 miles per hour.

First place, 100-mile race, 1 1/4 mile dirt track (poor condition), Kansas City, Mo., De Palma driving Mercedes car. 43 miles per hour.

First place, Eddie Richmond driving Maxwell car. Third place, Lewis driving Crawford car. Fourth place, De Palma driving Mercedes car. Fifth place, Henderson driving Maxwell car.—350-mile race on 3-mile track at Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 5, 1916. Speed of winner 89 miles per hour.

In this race, the biggest event of the season on the Pacific Coast, and one of the few races recognized by the American Automobile Association, Eddie Richmond won on Goodyear Cord Tires without tire trouble. He changed his four tires for safety's sake only. Lewis, who won third changed but one tire. De Palma who won fourth changed but one tire. Henderson who won fifth through the entire race without a stop.
