

THE WEATHER FORECAST.
Fair to-day; to-morrow partly overcast
and warmer; moderate winds.
Highest temperature yesterday, 53; lowest, 44.
Detailed weather, mail and marine reports on page 11.

IT SHINES FOR ALL

A NEW KINGDOM OF POLAND BY TEUTON DECREE

German and Austrian Emperors Proclaim an Independent State.

COMPRISES ONLY THE RUSSIAN PROVINCES

The Official Announcement Blames Muscovites for "Rule of Knout."

SAYS POLES WAITED CENTURY IN VAIN

Central Empires Expect Big Aid in Fighting Against Russia.

BERLIN, by wireless, Nov. 5.—"Polish provinces occupied by troops of the Central Powers," says the Overseas News Agency, "were the scene to-day of a momentous historic event. Germany and Austria-Hungary by joint action proclaimed Warsaw and Lublin in the kingdom of Poland and re-established the right of the Polish nation to control its own destinies, to live an independent national life and to govern itself by chosen representatives of the nation."

"A few days ago a Polish delegation had called upon the Imperial Chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg. Its members were representative Poles of all classes, all parties, all ranks of the social ladder, the great Stanislas, the old King of Poland in 1674-1696, is now resurrected to new life. The Poles are freed from Russian oppression, no more to be ruled by the heels of the Cossack. The liberty that had been denied a century ago on Russian institutions is now restored. The rule of the despotic monarchs by their armies and their heavy sacrifices for Russian domination toward a happy future, have been restored to these districts a national state with a hereditary monarchy. The Polish people are now free to elect their own representatives to the Diet of Poland. The manifesto declaring the independence of Poland is as follows:

SIR BRYAN MAHON IS ARMY HEAD IN IRELAND

Popular General Succeeds Sir John Maxwell as Commander of Forces.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—It is officially announced that Lieutenant-General Sir Bryan Mahon, commander of the British forces on the western frontier in Ireland, has been appointed to succeed Major-General Sir John Maxwell as commander of the British forces in Ireland. Gen. Maxwell is appointed commander in chief of the northern command in England.

It is also announced officially that Gen. Sir F. Reginald Wingate, Sirdar of Egypt, has been appointed High Commissioner for Egypt in succession to Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Arthur Henry MacMahon.

The appointment of Sir Bryan Mahon will undoubtedly be taken as an answer to the recent appeals of the Irish leaders that a man more in sympathy with and having a clearer understanding of the character of the people be appointed commander of the British forces in the island. Sir Bryan is a "Galway boy" and a typical Irish sportsman. He has had a distinguished career in the Sudan, taking part in Kitchener's Khartoum expedition and the Kordofan expedition and the capture of the Kalifa. He was "colonel of the celebrated Eighth Hussars, at the beginning of the war and afterward commanded the Tenth (Irish) Division.

He is one of the military idols of the empire, and the rising sun of the British Empire. In his career he won distinction in the Sudan, taking part in Kitchener's Khartoum expedition and the Kordofan expedition and the capture of the Kalifa. He was "colonel of the celebrated Eighth Hussars, at the beginning of the war and afterward commanded the Tenth (Irish) Division.

GALE PUTS SCORES OF LIVES IN PERIL

Fishermen in Small Boats Rescued by Coast Guard—Thrilling Episodes.

Sweeping suddenly down out of the northeast, a gale yesterday imperiled the lives of scores of fishermen, driving some of their boats ashore and leaving others helpless in the trough of the heavy seas.

Six small boats called for the help of the coast guard station at Sandy Hook, and another was saved by the guards of the Tammam station north of Long Branch, N. J. Some of the rescues were marked by thrilling episodes.

Thirty-three amateur fishermen were aboard the motor boat Mary H. Combs when she was driven ashore by the gale. The engine got out of order and the boat was helpless. She flew distress signals and the Sandy Hook guard set out in her launch to try to reach her, but the sea drove the Combs ashore so rapidly that before the coast guard could stop and put out lifeboats, the boat was helpless. She flew distress signals and the Sandy Hook guard set out in her launch to try to reach her, but the sea drove the Combs ashore so rapidly that before the coast guard could stop and put out lifeboats, the boat was helpless.

BRITISH AND FRENCH MAKE BIG ADVANCES

Foch's Troops Drive Germans From Strong Positions on Bapaume Road.

SAILLISEL IS TAKEN

Desperate Hand to Hand Fighting Precedes Fall of the Village.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Somme and Verdun were the scenes to-day of victories for the Allies more notable than any in a fortnight. In fighting that lasted all last night and most of today the French on both fronts had great success and the British on the Somme also progressed.

Gen. Foch's main blow, struck in succession all day, were in the region of Le Transloy, southeast of Bapaume. The capture of this strongly held and well fortified village did not result, but it fell to greatly hastened.

French infantry dashed forward against German positions along a four mile front from Les Bœufs east to Saillies, then southeast to the western edge of St. Pierre Vaast wood.

MARINA SURVIVOR PLEADS TO WILSON

"Avenge Our Dead," Writes Former Member of U. S. Navy, Rescued Horseman.

"NO WARNING WAS GIVEN"

"Murder of Neutrals as Cold-blooded and Deliberate as the Lusitania"

LONDON, Nov. 5.—"Wilson, Avenge Our Dead!" is the heading in the Weekly Dispatch over an article written by Samuel Devlin, formerly of the United States navy and one of the survivors of the torpedoed Marina, on which six Americans were killed. In the article Devlin addresses President Wilson as follows:

"I am an American citizen who with the others have just landed at a place far from my home. I have just had a narrow escape from death by murder on the high seas. I have seen six of my partners, also Americans, go to their deaths without warning, without a chance to save themselves, through the deliberate act of a foreign Power that has wilfully broken its solemn promise made to you not to sink merchant ships without warning them and insuring the safety of the lives of the people aboard."

CATHOLICS SPURN DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Secret Eleventh Hour Expedition Revealed by the Rev. John J. Wynne.

CALL CIRCULARS INSULT

Names of 140 Minor Appointments of President Listed as "Bait" for Votes.

How a secret eleventh hour expedition of the Democratic managers to influence the votes of Catholics took form and then collapsed from the resentment of the Catholics themselves was told last night by the Rev. John J. Wynne, of St. Francis Xavier Academy, editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia, director of the Apostleship of Prayer, the largest Catholic organization in the world, and former editor of America, the official organ of the Jesuits in this country.

It developed from his story that while President Wilson was making Jeremiah O'Leary the President's political lieutenant, the Catholic managers were plotting a play to other Irish Catholics through a series of circulars. Within a few days the circulars began going out by thousands, appealing for votes for Wilson and listing about 140 Catholic appointments, mostly minor ones, that Wilson had made while in office.

6 SLAIN, 40 SHOT IN I. W. W. FIGHT AT EVERETT WASH. INVADERS DRIVEN OFF

Sheriffs Posse Forbid Seattle Steamer Party of 250 to Land During Strike—Governor Orders Troops Held Under Arms—Rioters in Jail.

EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 5.—At least six men were killed and forty others wounded to-day in a fight at the Everett city wharf between 250 members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who came here from Seattle on the steamer Verona to insist on the right of free speech in aid of a strike of shipyard workers, and a posse of 150 citizens headed by Sheriff Don McRae. The Sheriff is among the seriously wounded.

When the Verona pulled into her slip the wharf was surrounded by policemen and thirty National Guardsmen under command of Capt. Paul Edwards. Captain of Police D. F. Willard shouted to Capt. Wiman of the Verona not to land. Several pistols were searched for on the Verona. The boat started to land, but the police on the wharf started to climb over the steamer's rail, but policemen halted them at the point of revolver.

One gangplank was lowered, and under supervision of the police the wounded were taken off the boat, first assisted by their unjuried comrades, and were removed to the city hospital. The four dead were taken to the morgue. The dead were found laid out on the floor of the cabin and the wounded were lying on the deck along the walls or lying on the floor.

HUGHES SURE OF VICTORY SCORNS WILSON SHAFTS

G. O. P. Leader Disdains to Reply to the President's Aspersions.

"INVISIBLE RULE" CHARGE AMUSES HIM

He Believes New York City Vote Will Surprise Democrats.

TAMMANY'S KNIFE OUT FOR SEABURY

Whitman and Calder Are Confident of Triumph To-morrow.

Twenty-four hours before election day, with the campaign over to all intents and purposes and with nothing left but to await the verdict of the voters, the candidates rested yesterday after their wearying efforts, each expressing himself as confident of victory.

"Rule of Knout Abolished"

"This the ancient Kingdom of Poland, from which in the past came famous rulers like the Jagiellons (a dynasty founded by Jagello which reigned in Poland from 1385 to 1795) and glorious soldiers like the great Stanislas (who III, King of Poland in 1674-1696), is now resurrected to new life. The Poles are freed from Russian oppression, no more to be ruled by the heels of the Cossack. The liberty that had been denied a century ago on Russian institutions is now restored. The rule of the despotic monarchs by their armies and their heavy sacrifices for Russian domination toward a happy future, have been restored to these districts a national state with a hereditary monarchy. The Polish people are now free to elect their own representatives to the Diet of Poland. The manifesto declaring the independence of Poland is as follows:

WARS FOOD PRICE BOOSTERS

Department of Justice Hints of a Conspiracy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—A statement in the nature of a warning from the Attorney-General was forthcoming from the Department of Justice to-day giving notice that the Federal Government will invoke the severest penalties prescribed by law against persons who conspire to raise the price of food and coal.

The statement authorized by the Attorney-General is as follows:

"The Department of Justice is investigating the recent abnormal and suspicious increases in prices of various necessities of life, especially coal. Whenever any such increase is found to have been due to conspiracy or other unlawful action the Department will invoke against the offenders the severest penalties which the law prescribes."

Deserted by Submarine

"We never saw the captain, the first mate or the second mate or any of the others, including the six Americans, who were in the ship when it was struck."

"A Deliberate as Lusitania"

"That, Mr. President, is our story. You see that when some of us had the good luck to manage to get away the submarine was still in the water. If that wasn't a murder of citizens of a neutral nation as cold blooded and deliberate as the Lusitania murders, then we were safe."

"The British attacks on the Somme were not continued, but were brilliantly repulsed with the hand grenade and bayonet."

"The fighting was particularly bitter at that section of the front. German machine guns were brilliantly repulsed with the hand grenade and bayonet."

"The British statement to-night tells of the capture of the village of Saillies. North of the Somme we made several successful attacks during the course of the day, accomplishing a great part of the village of Saillies. South of this village we attacked from three sides at once the St. Pierre Vaast wood, which is powerfully organized by the Germans. We occupied the entire village of Vaux, and made important advances, capturing successively three trenches which defended the northern horn of the wood and also taking the whole line of the enemy's positions on the southwestern outskirts."

"The fighting was particularly bitter at that section of the front. German machine guns were brilliantly repulsed with the hand grenade and bayonet."

"The British statement to-night tells of the capture of the village of Saillies. North of the Somme we made several successful attacks during the course of the day, accomplishing a great part of the village of Saillies. South of this village we attacked from three sides at once the St. Pierre Vaast wood, which is powerfully organized by the Germans. We occupied the entire village of Vaux, and made important advances, capturing successively three trenches which defended the northern horn of the wood and also taking the whole line of the enemy's positions on the southwestern outskirts."

Deserted by Submarine

"We never saw the captain, the first mate or the second mate or any of the others, including the six Americans, who were in the ship when it was struck."

"A Deliberate as Lusitania"

"That, Mr. President, is our story. You see that when some of us had the good luck to manage to get away the submarine was still in the water. If that wasn't a murder of citizens of a neutral nation as cold blooded and deliberate as the Lusitania murders, then we were safe."

"The British attacks on the Somme were not continued, but were brilliantly repulsed with the hand grenade and bayonet."

"The fighting was particularly bitter at that section of the front. German machine guns were brilliantly repulsed with the hand grenade and bayonet."

"The British statement to-night tells of the capture of the village of Saillies. North of the Somme we made several successful attacks during the course of the day, accomplishing a great part of the village of Saillies. South of this village we attacked from three sides at once the St. Pierre Vaast wood, which is powerfully organized by the Germans. We occupied the entire village of Vaux, and made important advances, capturing successively three trenches which defended the northern horn of the wood and also taking the whole line of the enemy's positions on the southwestern outskirts."

"The fighting was particularly bitter at that section of the front. German machine guns were brilliantly repulsed with the hand grenade and bayonet."

"The British statement to-night tells of the capture of the village of Saillies. North of the Somme we made several successful attacks during the course of the day, accomplishing a great part of the village of Saillies. South of this village we attacked from three sides at once the St. Pierre Vaast wood, which is powerfully organized by the Germans. We occupied the entire village of Vaux, and made important advances, capturing successively three trenches which defended the northern horn of the wood and also taking the whole line of the enemy's positions on the southwestern outskirts."

Objects to Quotation

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

"The first circular was a small eight page pamphlet enumerating the number of Catholic parishes, priests and members of the Faithful during the Wilson Administration. Some were holdovers and others were new appointments. Few were of prominence. There were about 140."

A. H. MURPHY HELD UP IN HOME, $2,100 STOLEN

Bronx Tammany Leader Victim of Bold Robbers in Own Vestibule.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

ARTHUR H. MURPHY, an executive member of the Democratic county committee for Bronx county and one of Tammany's most powerful leaders, was robbed in the vestibule of his own home, 1806 Arthur Avenue, the Bronx, early Sunday morning. Although the robbery occurred more than twenty-four hours ago, the police and Mr. Murphy preserved strict silence about the incident until the news leaked accidentally this morning.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

Enfranchised in Eleven States Send Word They Will Change Presidents.

GERMANS LOSE A SUBMARINE

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.

Stranded on Danish Coast and Crew Blown Off Up.