They insist that there is possibility of overturning the apparent result by the official canvassers made for a count of the vote in close States seems justified. In other words their attitude is that the election is still in doubt and that Mr. Hughes cannot be counted out.

may appeal to the courts to pass upon disputed ballots. In order to get a recount at all the contesting side must present to the courts convincing evidence of fraud or of error. If the turn of events disposed either side to stand upon technicalities the contest might be a very protracted affair. The Republicans do not seem as yet to take the attitude of falling back upon technicalities. It was the opinion yesterday that a recount in most of the States would take only a few weeks and that the absolute result could be known long before inauguration day.

OFFICIAL COUNT MONDAY

Errors in 900,000 Votes Cast May Cut Democratic Plurality.

NEW MEXICO: WILSON. President Leads by 2,000; Two-thirds of Vote In.

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 9.—With a lead of more than 2,500 votes New Mexico President Wilson seemed fairly assured of the State in tonight's latest returns. One hundred and fifty-eight precincts are missing out of 633 but these are not expected to change the result materially. Socorro and Roosevelt counties are not included in the list tabulated. The clerk of the county, however, had been in the ballot boxes, but had Wilson carried the county by 425. Returns of the forty-seven precincts in Socorro county, the clerk announced, had been lost in the ballot boxes, but Wilson will carry the State by about 3,000.

KANSAS BALLOT QUESTIONED. Council Engaged to Investigate Constitutionality of Vote.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 9.—James H. Session, Republican state chairman, announced today that legal counsel had been engaged to investigate the constitutionality of the electoral vote in Kansas. Chairman of both parties said tonight that a contest of the result would not be started.

It was claimed at Republican headquarters that the voters cast their ballots for the President rather than for electors. The vote for electors this year was made for the group instead of for individual electors as in the past. It is asserted that the manner of voting was unconstitutional. Before the ballots were prepared by the Secretary of State, Attorney-General Brewster gave out an opinion that the electors could be voted for as a group instead of individually. The ballots were prepared in this manner, and there was only one square placed at the bottom of the list of electors, thus making it possible for the voter to make an individual choice. It was asserted.

Hubert Lardner, Democratic state chairman, made the following announcement: "The ticket was prepared by Secretary of State Hoskin under an opinion by Attorney-General Brewster that voting in the square opposite each party's name would be showing his intention to vote for the electors. The ballot is legal. The people had the intention and the Secretary of State, Kansas has decided that the voters' intention must obtain in such cases."

Practically all of the stakeholder yesterday sent letters to the bettors that no money would be paid immediately. One large holder said he would pay only when he had a statement in black and white from the loser that he was satisfied that his favorite had been defeated. This is a policy that probably will be adopted by all of them, especially where large sums are involved. The betting fever has spread rapidly since the election. Every mail has brought new money to be placed. But practically all of it is outside money and the commission themselves are content with taking their 2 per cent. and letting pro bono publico take the chance.

More money and the commission themselves are content with taking their 2 per cent. and letting pro bono publico take the chance. "How much have you bet on the election?" was asked of Edward McQuade, a curb broker, yesterday. He would not give the actual figures, but said it was several hundred thousand dollars.

Every day the decision is postponed means thousands of dollars in the pockets of betting commissioners, for they are receiving a rich harvest. The betting fever has spread rapidly since the election. Every mail has brought new money to be placed. But practically all of it is outside money and the commission themselves are content with taking their 2 per cent. and letting pro bono publico take the chance.

Some of the bets were $1,000 to $500 that Wilson would carry California, $500 to $400 that the Democratic candidate would carry Minnesota. Schumm has refused to pay wagers placed with him on the result of the Presidential contest until after the Electoral College meets on December 18. He has paid out more than $60,000 wagered on State and local officers.

HUGHES IN MINNESOTA.

Error Gives the Republican Candidate 400 Additional Votes.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 9.—Minnesota was still in the doubtful column at midnight, but Charles E. Hughes won a substantial advantage by the discovery of an error whose correction gave him nearly 400 additional votes and placed his lead slightly above 1,000 with only 35 precincts missing out of 3,024. It is believed the remaining districts can wipe out this lead.

It is reported from Ithaca, Grande, that the members gave Wilson 400 majority, but this was not confirmed. Other Minnesota units are reported to be for Hughes.

Except for President, Minnesota delivered its customary big Republican majority, as shown in the pluralities of Gov. Burnham and Frank H. Kellom, candidates of the United States. Republicans also were uniformly successful on the balance of the State ticket.

Hughes' lead in the State was threatened several times today by returns from the northern part of the State, but always some other section added the necessary votes to the Republican candidate to keep him ahead. The closeness of the vote attracted unusual interest throughout the State, which normally has questioned only the returns of the Democratic candidates.

On the California result more than $50,000 was wagered on the Broad Street curb at from seven miles to odds of 2 to 1. A large number of bets were placed on the curb that Wilson would carry California by 10,000 votes. This was at even money.

Of course part of the money wagered yesterday was in the nature of "hedging," which bettors who have put up money on one candidate or the other are grateful for the opportunity to step gracefully out from under a heavy loss. But a large part of it, too, was real money, brought into the curb by the unprecedented situation that has arisen.

The vote in individual States yesterday became a better gambling proposition than the general result, according to the opinion of bookies, who with paper and pencil could figure out exactly the result or thought they could. California and Minnesota were the principal States on which bets were placed.

It is also hinted that the word was passed and there was a secret understanding between the Non-Partisan League and McChesney, who was not called upon to vigorously deny partisanship in the national affairs. The league caucuses are held in secret and such connivance is hardly possible.

The league advocates farmer owned terminal elevators at St. Paul and in Brookline, mammoth farmer owned flouring mills in the State and equity-pooling plants.

Grambling Heard. The chances that the election might result in a long drawn out contest probably deterred many who would have bet on the curb yesterday. Already there are grumblings of dissatisfaction that the result has not been officially declared one way or the other. As it is, a huge sum is in the hands of stakeholder, withdrawn from circulation.

Illian territory to the county seat of the tram. Some of the smaller towns mailed their returns sheets without notifying the county auditor of the result. Some, more interested in their own affairs, thought that the State would give its usual Republican majority for the national ticket, delaying counting the Presidential returns.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CLOSE.

Hughes Leads by 7 Votes, With 26 Precincts Missing.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 9.—With only 26 precincts out of 284 in New Hampshire heard from, Hughes has a small lead. While the official figures given out by the Secretary of State show that the vote with 26 precincts missing is 10,428 and 10,421, the official reports from the 25 missing precincts give the State to the Republican candidate by the small margin of seven votes.

It is practically certain that no matter which party carries the State a recount will be asked. The official count has important corrections to be made. The average of $25,000 is not far wrong, although there is no manner of ascertaining the exact amount wagered. The largest bet of the day was $10,000, at odds of 10 to 6, wagered by a prominent Stock Exchange broker, that Wilson will be re-elected. It was split up into several smaller sized bets.

The unprejudiced betting—forty-eight hours after the polls closed—drew a great crowd of brokers to the Broad Street curb market, and as on the previous day, the curb was thronged with fairly fighting to get their money placed. The small betting ring, which was of sufficient size before the market opened, was crowded to the curb by the throng of stock traders off the street.

NORTH DAKOTA: WILSON.

Republican State Chairman Concedes Defeat by 500 Plurality.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 9.—Republican State Chairman Lemke concedes North Dakota to Wilson by about five hundred votes. Democrats are claiming two thousand plurality. Twelve hundred is probably nearest correct.

Political observers are saying that $2 wheat and Federal reserve and rural bank legislation are largely responsible for the swing in the State. The Republican plurality to the Democratic column. They add, too, that Hughes didn't make a very striking impression when he visited the State on his first Western tour, especially since he followed close on the heels of Estabrook, who didn't have the punch necessary to catch the Scandinavian farmer.

The farmers non-partisan ticket swept through almost every district, except a few legislative districts. The farmers will control both houses of the Legislature, the State executive offices and the Supreme Court.

Two Biggest Cities for Wilson.

Fargo and Grand Forks, largest cities in the State, rolled up heavy leads for the president, although both are normally strong Republican. Undoubtedly the heavy railway men's vote in both places helped considerably. The United States Senator by a heavy majority over Democratic opponent. Incomprehensible that the Democratic State chairman and the Democratic candidate for Governor should have been so far apart. The latter charging he was trailed off for Burke, greatly curtailed the latter's vote.

6 VOTE CONTEST UP TO SOLDIERS

Their Ballots to Decide Important Job in Rockland County.

NYACK, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Eight Nyack members of the Seventh Regiment, encamped at the Wilson hotel here today, were called upon to decide whether Halloran H. Brown or Dr. N. Leslie Belle is to be Superintendent of Poor for Rockland county.

When the ballots were counted today it was found that Mr. Brown, the Democratic candidate, had six votes over his opponent. Brown has 3,375 and Belle 3,373 votes, but the Nyack Guardsmen are fighting for Belle's six votes. The Democrats pin their faith to A. J. Gross, an independent candidate, whose home is in Nyack. If two or three of the Nyack vote for Gross victory for Brown is assured.

Pluctation in the Votes. A little later in the day Hughes cut into Wilson's lead, reducing it to 3,226. There were only twenty-one precincts to be heard from in Los Angeles. Hughes' strongest hope. The lead subsequently was cut to 3,058 and then jumped to 3,509, later dropping back to 3,056. At this juncture, however, a decided drop in the vote was followed. This was caused by the rectification of the Alameda county vote, the county clerk announcing a correction in Hughes' favor of 492 votes.

Following this pronounced Hughes gain, Registrar McAleer of Los Angeles county announced a rectification which gave Wilson a net gain of 1,933 and left Wilson with a plurality of 500 votes. Another swing back to Wilson due to a rectification in nine other counties, gave him a plurality of 889.

State Returns Are Final. Mr. Wickham said yesterday it already had been established that the recount lay in the jurisdiction of State and State courts alone and that whatever decision was reached in this wide could not be disputed by Congress. Under a law passed some years ago, subsequent to the Hayes-Tilden contest, the returns of a State under Presidential election must be accepted as conclusive. Congress has no authority to go behind the returns, as those returns have been certified from the States. Under this law there can be no more electoral commissions such as gave the Presidency to Mr. Hayes.

An examination of the United States Supreme Court decisions and of the statutes showed that electors are plainly regarded as State officers and that the question of their proper or improper choice is for State election officers and not for the President. It should be watched closely in every county seat on the virtual certainty that there would be a split electoral vote.
