

N. Y. READY TO DEFY HIGH COST FOR A DAY

Thanksgiving Dinner Plans Show No Falling Off From Other Years.

TURKEY TO BE KING

Hotels Expect to Dispose of Thousands—Wants of the Needy to Be Supplied.

There was every indication last night that despite the high cost of food every body in this big town will have a real Thanksgiving dinner to-day. This is going to be turkey day. Advance reservations at the leading hotels and restaurants show that the number of people who will dine well will be up to the normal, and if any of the less fortunate thousands go hungry it will not be the fault of charity organizations, which have laid their plans to carry cheer to the crowded sections of the city.

The cost to the Waldorf of its Thanksgiving menu is about 35 per cent. higher than last year, according to Chief Steward Augustus Nulle. Turkeys are up more than 25 per cent, potatoes 100 per cent, cranberries 30 per cent, celery 25 and other requisites in proportion. But Dr. Boidt nevertheless expects to entertain a quarter more diners than on Thanksgiving day last year.

1,000 Turkeys on This List.

According to preliminary estimates the Waldorf will dispense 1,000 gobblers. Six hundred will be eaten by the hotel patrons, and the hotel servants at the special dinner the proprietor is giving for them and 100 by outside residents who have ordered their dinners served hot from the hotel kitchen.

Chief Etouard Panchard estimates that the guests at the McAlpin will consume two tons of turkey, that 1,900 pounds of white and dark meat will be disposed of at the Claridge and that patrons of the Cafe Savarin will consume the disappearance of some 1,000 pounds. Managing Director L. M. Boomer has arranged a big dinner for all the employees of the McAlpin and others at the special program will be given tonight in the grill and other dining rooms.

The Salvation Army is arranging a feast for 1,200 drinkers and "teet" in its Memorial Hall. Half a dozen water wagons will scour the streets this morning and any inebriated who takes kindly to the invitation will be given a free ride to the Cafe Savarin at the end of the route. There will be more food for him in the evening, and if he continues in a receptive mood he will receive a ticket entitling him to lodging and breakfast at one of the Army's hotels. Those who are physically fit will be offered work and others will be sent to a hospital.

Food for the Needy.

The Bowers branch of the Y. M. C. A. will feed 800 men, and 1,000 will be cared for at Hadley Rescue Hall, also in the Bowers. The Seaman's Christian Association will serve 1,000 at 339 West street at 7:30 this evening.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Children's Society, of which Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt is the head, will give a dinner to 100 children in the custody of the city, and in the afternoon there will be an entertainment and a programme of games.

Many poor children will enjoy dinners in the various stations of the city. The Green's Aid Society, which has industrial schools at 535 East Sixteenth street, 552 West Fifty-third, 224 West Sixty-third, Fifty-fifth and 407 East Sixty-third, 350 East Eighty-third, 630 East Sixth, 219 Sullivan, 295 East Eighth and 419 West Thirty-eighth streets. The society's lodging houses are at 14 New Chambers street, 347 East Forty-fourth, 307 East Twelfth, 225 West Thirty-fifth, 138 East 127th, 311 East Twenty and 141 West Sixty-first streets.

Entertainment for Prisoners.

Special dinners will be served the patients and employees in all the hospitals. Keith's Minstrel, an organization of musical artists, will give a concert on Thanksgiving Day, will go to Blackwell's Island this morning and give a two hours' entertainment for the city's prisoners. Candy and cigars will be distributed with the compliments of A. Paul Keith and E. F. Albee.

St. Andrew's One Cent Coffee Stands Society will keep open house at 21 West Fifty-third street from 11 o'clock this morning until 6 p. m. prepared to give dinners to 2,000 persons. Two hundred and fifty baskets filled with turkey and other food will be sent to persons unable to leave their homes. Charles E. Harris, 142 West Twenty-fourth street, will distribute forty dinner baskets. The American Female Guardian Society and Home for the Friendless, 218 Woodcrest avenue, will give a dinner to the 200 boys and girls under its care.

Congressman Peter J. Dooley will give a Thanksgiving dinner to 2,000 persons at the Amsterdam Opera House in West Forty-first street, tonight. This is announced as the first Tammany social of the season. President-elect Frank L. Rowling of the Board of Aldermen and others have been invited to attend and make addresses.

Mayor Mitchell is to review the children of the Hebrew Orphan Asylum at the exhibition of their military and athletic work in the City College stadium, Amsterdam avenue between 136th and 138th streets, at 10:30 this morning. The boys' band will play.

Festivals for Boys and Girls.

The children of the Park Department playgrounds will enjoy festivals during the afternoon, with athletic events, folk dances, games and songs, under the direction of their teachers. These entertainments will be held on the grounds at Hopkinson and Blake avenues, Brooklyn; Sackman and Christopher streets, Brooklyn; Putnam avenue near Knickerbocker avenue, Brooklyn; McKibbin and White streets, Driggs and Manhattan avenues, Tillary and Jay streets, and Richards and Pioneer streets.

Religious services will be held in most of the city churches this morning. Offerings in all the Episcopal churches will be given to the Red Cross Fund. At the door of the Church of the Strangers, West Fifty-seventh street, of which the Rev. Paul Mansfield Spencer is pastor, will be large baskets, into which every worshiper will be expected to drop a potato. The vegetable will form a part of the dinner to be sent to poor of the parish.

The Internationalists are to meet for a social service in their church, 125 West Twenty-third street, at 4 o'clock, and at 5 the Rev. Bouck White will preach on "Thanksgiving for the Near Approach of the Revolution."

TO AID WAR VICTIMS.

Contributions in Catholic Churches Will Go to Relief.

Cardinal Farley has directed that all collections in Catholic churches of New York to-day shall be given to the suffering. The Rev. John J. Dunn, chancellor of the archdiocese, sent instructions yesterday to this effect to the various parishes, with a reminder that the offering is for the relief of the war victims. The letter read as follows: "In the formal proclamation of the President on Thursday, as Thanksgiving Day, attention is called to the blessings we enjoy as a people, while a pall of suffering has settled more completely and pitilessly over the war-stricken nations of Europe. Our own happiness is in striking contrast to their dire distress."

He urges all to resort to their several places of worship on this day to thank Almighty God for the blessings of peace and unbroken prosperity, and asks that contributions be made out of their abundance to the relief of the suffering, as an evidence of heartfelt thankfulness.

"His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop, accepting the suggestion of the Chief Executive of the nation, directs that the collections taken up in our churches on Thanksgiving Day be given to the people of Europe, upon whom war has brought unparalleled disaster. A kindly and liberally towards the afflicted will win for us, a happy and contented people, increased blessings from God, in return for our charity."

9 POLICE STATIONS TO HOUSE PRISONERS

Officers Will Be Taken to Cells Nearer Courts by Woods's Plan.

At one minute after midnight to-night, the Police Department will inaugurate in Manhattan a radical change in its methods of handling prisoners. Instead of locking up men for the night in the station house of the precinct in which they were arrested, policemen will take them to one of seven police stations. All women locked up for the night in the whole borough of Manhattan will be taken to the station house of their precinct.

The change is another instance of Police Commissioner Woods's effort to simplify police work. Instead of having thirty-two station houses to lock up men prisoners and nearly as many for women he will have only seven for men, and two for women, and each will be close to the police court in which the prisoners are to be arraigned.

Old timers at Police Headquarters shook their heads last night when asked what good results the change will effect. They said they thought it will take a lot of work to transfer the prisoners, also the use of many automobile patrols. Each prisoner arrested by the police is taken to the station house of the precinct in which he is arrested, and if he is to be held overnight, or for the night if the men in Buffalo should stay there and develop their part of the State. We wish to remain here to build up our organization. We intend to do it, and have opened headquarters in this city for that purpose.

"Our organization is very, very secret," he continued. "A man who joins does not know who other members are. We are fighting rum and Romanism. Tammany Hall and the Catholic Church. I started out to fight rum, and I found that it should have 200,000, and I am in politics. It is our purpose to drive the church out of politics."

"P. S. Please send me eighteen copies of the Sun containing the above. I am promised to send a copy to every man that voted for me and I am a man of my word."

"Well, friend Editor, little or nothing remains to be told. John Gosser himself it sounds like 'grocer, don't it?'—the big boss himself has just asked me to drop my pen and everything and go out to the barn and hitch up the baggage team. So I've resigned my job. They got fat trying to treat me like I was dirt under their feet!"

"Forrest is coming to New York to take charge of the organizing work because he is an able man, and we are not going to be interfered with by the Western fellows. He has opened headquarters in this city for that purpose."

"Our organization is very, very secret," he continued. "A man who joins does not know who other members are. We are fighting rum and Romanism. Tammany Hall and the Catholic Church. I started out to fight rum, and I found that it should have 200,000, and I am in politics. It is our purpose to drive the church out of politics."

"P. S. Please send me eighteen copies of the Sun containing the above. I am promised to send a copy to every man that voted for me and I am a man of my word."

"Well, friend Editor, little or nothing remains to be told. John Gosser himself it sounds like 'grocer, don't it?'—the big boss himself has just asked me to drop my pen and everything and go out to the barn and hitch up the baggage team. So I've resigned my job. They got fat trying to treat me like I was dirt under their feet!"

"Forrest is coming to New York to take charge of the organizing work because he is an able man, and we are not going to be interfered with by the Western fellows. He has opened headquarters in this city for that purpose."

"Our organization is very, very secret," he continued. "A man who joins does not know who other members are. We are fighting rum and Romanism. Tammany Hall and the Catholic Church. I started out to fight rum, and I found that it should have 200,000, and I am in politics. It is our purpose to drive the church out of politics."

STATE LODGE OF 'P'S' SPLIT IN BITTER ROW

Secret Anti-Catholic Organization Rent Into Three Factions.

HOT FIGHT FOR CONTROL

New York Divided Into Two Divisions in Hope of Peace.

There is disruption in the New York State Lodge of the "P's" called the Patriots, Protestants and Pathfinders, a secret anti-Catholic organization, which is an offshoot of the Guardians of Liberty.

So bitter has become the fight and so rent is the organization that the Supreme Grand Lodge has divided the State lodge into two different divisions with the hope of harmonizing still another faction that succeeded in the fall.

Heading the faction from the western part of the State is H. H. Van Natter of Buffalo, who, according to his opponents, has sought to control the group of anti-Catholics in this city and who also has sought the Supreme Grand Lodge. On the other side are the Rev. Augustus E. Barnett, Supreme Registrar of the national lodge and pastor of the Church of the Redeemer in Philadelphia; ex-Congressman Charles D. Haines and the Rev. William Milton Hess, pastor of the Trinity Congregational Church at 176th street and Washington avenue.

His Expense Statement. "But to come back to the important matter at hand. I am enclosing you a list of expenses incurred by me during my recent campaign for the salary that goes with the Presidency. The law so directs, as Fortia or Shylock or somebody says, or words to that effect, so enclosed please find statement of expenses."

"McDevitt's Presidential Expense Account—First letter to the Honorable Mr. Wilson on his manly fight. Again let me say that Hughes was a worthy foe. I do not know what Mr. Hughes contemplated when he entered the contest. I presume it's back to the foundry. I am sorry for my Uncle Hugh McDevitt, who had hoped for my success."

"No man who never entered the contest has the highest office in the world will ever realize the feeling of defeat and all that it means. But the people know best, and I am glad they do. I am giving below a list, as close as I can now recall, of my expenditures during the campaign."

Special train to New York City, $242.00
Fines paid to police authorities in New York City, $4.00
Fines paid to police authorities in New York City, $4.00
Fines paid to police authorities in New York City, $4.00

Former Mayor of New York City, my vice-president, $125.00
Daniel J. Hart, my vice-president, $125.00
Major Knook, my vice-president, $125.00
John Cavino, my vice-president, $125.00
Todd Washburn, my vice-president, $125.00

"The amount was given with the understanding that I should not do anything about it, as he would make the balance of his life miserable. I mean more miserable."

"JOHN JAY McDEVITT.
Late Candidate for President.
Deficit of $237.50.
Total expenses $968.50. Contributions $731. Deficit $237.50."

"Being informed that the Democratic National Committee has sent out the R. O. C. sign, I am not opposed to having the above balance cleared."

"P. S. Please send me eighteen copies of the Sun containing the above. I am promised to send a copy to every man that voted for me and I am a man of my word."

"Well, friend Editor, little or nothing remains to be told. John Gosser himself it sounds like 'grocer, don't it?'—the big boss himself has just asked me to drop my pen and everything and go out to the barn and hitch up the baggage team. So I've resigned my job. They got fat trying to treat me like I was dirt under their feet!"

"Forrest is coming to New York to take charge of the organizing work because he is an able man, and we are not going to be interfered with by the Western fellows. He has opened headquarters in this city for that purpose."

"Our organization is very, very secret," he continued. "A man who joins does not know who other members are. We are fighting rum and Romanism. Tammany Hall and the Catholic Church. I started out to fight rum, and I found that it should have 200,000, and I am in politics. It is our purpose to drive the church out of politics."

"P. S. Please send me eighteen copies of the Sun containing the above. I am promised to send a copy to every man that voted for me and I am a man of my word."

"Well, friend Editor, little or nothing remains to be told. John Gosser himself it sounds like 'grocer, don't it?'—the big boss himself has just asked me to drop my pen and everything and go out to the barn and hitch up the baggage team. So I've resigned my job. They got fat trying to treat me like I was dirt under their feet!"

"Forrest is coming to New York to take charge of the organizing work because he is an able man, and we are not going to be interfered with by the Western fellows. He has opened headquarters in this city for that purpose."

BUTCH McDEVITT OUT $237 FOR CAMPAIGN

Filing of Expense List Removes Last Doubt That Wilson Defeated Him.

ADMITTED HE GOT 18 VOTES

Millionaire for a Day Says He's Quit Job Driving Wagon for Grocery.

Any last doubts which may have remained in the minds of the American people whether Woodrow Wilson had defeated his opponent, the Hon. Millingtonaire-for-a-Day John Jay Butch McDevitt of Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton and other Pennsylvania environs, for the Presidency, were set at rest last night when the following letter reached THE SUN from Mr. McDevitt himself:

"Office of John H. Gosser & Co., wholesale grocers, Hazleton, Danville, Tanques, Cataaugus and Hokendaugus, America's greatest grocers. Also coal and wood. Give us a trial—one trial will be enough. To the editor of THE SUN, Friend Editor:

"Well, here I am holding down a job driving a wagon for this concern. But don't think I care for the position. I hate all kinds of work. My heart ain't in it. As I said only the other day to Major-Gien. C. Bow Dougherty, head of the National Guard of this State—'General,' I said, 'sometimes I think I'm a genius. But, I said, 'maybe I'll find out some day, General, that I ain't. And once I become convinced I ain't a genius, do you know what I'm going to do? I'm going to be a General!'"

"But to come back to the important matter at hand. I am enclosing you a list of expenses incurred by me during my recent campaign for the salary that goes with the Presidency. The law so directs, as Fortia or Shylock or somebody says, or words to that effect, so enclosed please find statement of expenses."

"McDevitt's Presidential Expense Account—First letter to the Honorable Mr. Wilson on his manly fight. Again let me say that Hughes was a worthy foe. I do not know what Mr. Hughes contemplated when he entered the contest. I presume it's back to the foundry. I am sorry for my Uncle Hugh McDevitt, who had hoped for my success."

"No man who never entered the contest has the highest office in the world will ever realize the feeling of defeat and all that it means. But the people know best, and I am glad they do. I am giving below a list, as close as I can now recall, of my expenditures during the campaign."

Special train to New York City, $242.00
Fines paid to police authorities in New York City, $4.00
Fines paid to police authorities in New York City, $4.00
Fines paid to police authorities in New York City, $4.00

Former Mayor of New York City, my vice-president, $125.00
Daniel J. Hart, my vice-president, $125.00
Major Knook, my vice-president, $125.00
John Cavino, my vice-president, $125.00
Todd Washburn, my vice-president, $125.00

"The amount was given with the understanding that I should not do anything about it, as he would make the balance of his life miserable. I mean more miserable."

"JOHN JAY McDEVITT.
Late Candidate for President.
Deficit of $237.50.
Total expenses $968.50. Contributions $731. Deficit $237.50."

"Being informed that the Democratic National Committee has sent out the R. O. C. sign, I am not opposed to having the above balance cleared."

"P. S. Please send me eighteen copies of the Sun containing the above. I am promised to send a copy to every man that voted for me and I am a man of my word."

"Well, friend Editor, little or nothing remains to be told. John Gosser himself it sounds like 'grocer, don't it?'—the big boss himself has just asked me to drop my pen and everything and go out to the barn and hitch up the baggage team. So I've resigned my job. They got fat trying to treat me like I was dirt under their feet!"

"Forrest is coming to New York to take charge of the organizing work because he is an able man, and we are not going to be interfered with by the Western fellows. He has opened headquarters in this city for that purpose."

"Our organization is very, very secret," he continued. "A man who joins does not know who other members are. We are fighting rum and Romanism. Tammany Hall and the Catholic Church. I started out to fight rum, and I found that it should have 200,000, and I am in politics. It is our purpose to drive the church out of politics."

"P. S. Please send me eighteen copies of the Sun containing the above. I am promised to send a copy to every man that voted for me and I am a man of my word."

"Well, friend Editor, little or nothing remains to be told. John Gosser himself it sounds like 'grocer, don't it?'—the big boss himself has just asked me to drop my pen and everything and go out to the barn and hitch up the baggage team. So I've resigned my job. They got fat trying to treat me like I was dirt under their feet!"

"Forrest is coming to New York to take charge of the organizing work because he is an able man, and we are not going to be interfered with by the Western fellows. He has opened headquarters in this city for that purpose."

STAR GAZING AT MOVIE BALL.

7,000 Persons in Madison Square Garden See Favorites.

If the "movie" stars didn't know before what the public thought of them, they learned last night at the annual ball of the Motion Picture League, held in Madison Square Garden. The stars were there, all of them practically—or at least all who do their work before the camera east of Los Angeles—and for hours a parade of curious ones crowded on the floor and about the boxes where they sat, openly worshipping and criticizing.

The ball drew about 7,000 people to the Garden. It opened at 8:30, when an auto parade in which all of the Eastern corporations were represented started from headquarters in the Astor in charge of President Leo A. Ochs. But it was midnight before the grand march was called for, and indications were that the dancing would continue until dawn this morning.

The various stars were brought out onto the big stand in the center of the Garden floor and introduced. There was Mary Pickford—she was the one of the audience seemed to want to see—and Anita Stewart, Jane Gail, Alice Joyce, Leah Baird, Pauline Frederick and a score of others of the same sex. There were some male stars, but male ideas didn't seem to exist in the "movie" world.

CITY'S PHONE BILL $323,642.19 A YEAR

Comptroller's Investigators Offer Plan to Cut Cost—Company's Taxes Raised.

A report made to Comptroller William A. Prendergast yesterday by a committee he appointed last July to make a survey of the telephone service rendered to all city departments, shows that the city is expending the sum of $323,642.19 a year for such service. This includes the telephone system of the Fire Department, the telephone system of the Police Department.

The committee, which is headed by Putnam A. Bates, chief of the Bureau of Fire Alarm, Telephone and Fire Department, and includes Michael R. Brennan, superintendent of telegraph, Police Department, and Chester M. Gould, assistant engineer, and Robert B. McIntyre of the Finance Department, points out that as a result of its work additional revenue has been turned into the city treasury, and that if certain recommendations are followed the cost of the telephone service can be materially reduced.

One of the big gains secured for the city treasury as a result of the committee's inquiries was an increased assessed valuation of the property of the New York Telephone Company. It is pointed out that the company's property assessed $5,000,000 more than last year, so this year it will pay $148,000 more in taxes. A compilation prepared by the committee showing the sums paid annually to the telephone company is as follows:

For local service, leased wires, $25,000; for interborough tolls, $42,730.95; other tolls, $13,252.19; patrol box telegraph service, $25,913.45; and special service, $2,832.17. From this sum was deducted $12,921.21 paid by outside users of city phones, leaving a balance of $323,642.19.

The departments showing the highest cost for telephone service were the Police Department, $46,203; Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, $31,272; Department of Education, $24,175; Department of Health, $23,154; Fire Department, $14,177.

The committee recommends that all of the various departments establish central switchboards. In this way, it is pointed out, many of the present wires can be eliminated and the cost of the service greatly reduced.

"Governor FREES MURDERER. Woman Who Served Fifteen Years Obtains Liberty. ALBANY, Nov. 29.—Mary Jennings, convicted of second degree murder in New York in October, 1901, was pardoned by Gov. Whitman to-day. The woman has been in prison fifteen years, and persons interested in her case told the Governor they would look after her if she should be liberated.

Mary Jennings stabbed Katy McKeight in a dispute in a restaurant where they were employed. The Governor said there had been some doubt whether murder or manslaughter had been committed, and as the woman has served a longer term in prison than would have been imposed for manslaughter he was willing to grant a pardon to her.

MAKES WILD RIDE IN SINKING OF MARINA IS CALLED MURDER

Forty-five Survivors of Torpedoed Boat Say They Had No Warning.

A wild automobile ride from Green-wick, Conn., to New York yesterday transformed Max Phelps from a fear inspiring individual to a peaceable and unobtrusive person as one could meet. After racing about in the sanitarium of Dr. W. H. Wiley in Greenwich, threatening various forms of death and bodily injury to the attendants, brandishing an iron bedstead bar whereby he compelled his guards to unlock the manacles that bound his wrists, intimidating an automobile driver to bring him at top speed to New York, he walked quietly and unconcernedly into the Plaza Hotel yesterday morning, registered without ado, casually remarking that he was a nephew of Miss Mary Phelps, secretary to Mrs. Mark Hanna, and went directly to a room which was assigned him.

"Just Wanted the Air." "I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

MAKES WILD RIDE IN SINKING OF MARINA IS CALLED MURDER

Forty-five Survivors of Torpedoed Boat Say They Had No Warning.

A wild automobile ride from Green-wick, Conn., to New York yesterday transformed Max Phelps from a fear inspiring individual to a peaceable and unobtrusive person as one could meet. After racing about in the sanitarium of Dr. W. H. Wiley in Greenwich, threatening various forms of death and bodily injury to the attendants, brandishing an iron bedstead bar whereby he compelled his guards to unlock the manacles that bound his wrists, intimidating an automobile driver to bring him at top speed to New York, he walked quietly and unconcernedly into the Plaza Hotel yesterday morning, registered without ado, casually remarking that he was a nephew of Miss Mary Phelps, secretary to Mrs. Mark Hanna, and went directly to a room which was assigned him.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.

"I guess I just wanted to get the air," he explained apologetically when Robert Stanton, one of the directors of the sanitarium, came to the hotel for him about noon. Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends. Despite the fact that he had been in the sanitarium, Phelps returned to Greenwich without protest with Mr. Stanton and one of his own friends.