

EXEMPTION BOARDS TO FINISH MONDAY

All Are Asked to Work To-day in Order to Have Cards Ready on Time.

APPEAL BY GEN. CROWDER

"Every Day Lost Now Means a Day Lost in Organization of the Armies."

An appeal to State pride, to city pride, was made from Albany yesterday to hurry the draft preparations. In New York city all lagging exemption boards were asked to have the preliminary work done by 6 o'clock to-morrow night.

Letters Held Up in Mails

The letters addressed to the Adjutant-General's office at Albany did not reach there until three days ago and the Post Office Department is trying to speed up the mail.

"It is an imperative national necessity that the seriously numbered cards of the cards all be in the hands of the Adjutant-General of your State and that the copy of the list for the Provost Marshal General shall be mailed before July 7."

Appeal Not Sent to Boards

"In some localities this may be difficult, but the American faculty for the accomplishment of the seemingly impossible was so well exemplified in the conduct of registration that the Secretary of War does not doubt that, in spite of all difficulties, the entire country can be organized and ready for the draft on July 7."

Honor of State Involved

The man who raised the banner of local pride to stir the boards to greater effort, was Capt. Frank S. Hutchison, director of the Federal Bureau in the Adjutant-General's office at Albany.

"The honor of the State is involved," he said. "It is the duty of the lead in every phase of military preparation. It would be intolerable that it should gain unenviable distinction by holding back the draft. All boards must proceed with the greatest haste. Two members constitute a quorum and may without hindrance perform all the functions of a complete board."

20 BOARDS UNREPORTED

All Others in City Have Established Headquarters.

As soon as all the 183 local exemption boards in New York city have reported the addresses of their headquarters the State will publish a complete list, so that the interest of the city and State will know where to go to ascertain the serial number that has been given him.
