

STATE SUFFRAGISTS DENOUNCE PICKETS

Condemn Harassment of Government in This Time of Great Stress.

STIRLING DEMONSTRATION

Mrs. Catt Evokes Spectacular Scene—Predict Universal Suffrage in 2 Years.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. SARATOGA, Aug. 30.—Aroused to a frenzy of excitement by an address by Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the American Woman's Suffrage Association, 700 delegates and 300 visitors at the afternoon session of the conference of the State Suffrage party here to-day shouted, cheered, sang and marched around Convention Hall for twenty-five minutes in a demonstration which rivaled that of many political conventions, and was unprecedented in suffrage history in New York State.

The fact that a resolution condemning the pickets at Washington was passed with but one dissenting vote, that of Miss Rose Schneiderman of Brooklyn, who stated she was opposed as a picketer, almost was overshadowed by the demonstration in honor of Mrs. Catt.

Women Cheer and Sing. The women waved their handkerchiefs, cheered and sang "Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!" as they filed one by one across the platform shouting praise to America's foremost suffragist. Words that aroused the women to such excitement fell distinct from Mrs. Catt's lips. "We women have proved that we are capable of doing as much for our country as our men and that we must do so as Lloyd George says: 'We must see that this war never happens again.' We must crush out autocracy and we must make every nation a real democracy."

Rankin Resolution Squeezed. That a resolution presented to the committee on resolutions asking that Representative Jeannette Rankin be invited to come to New York State and address the committee did not pass the committee was brought out at the afternoon session when the resolutions were read, and a demand from one in the audience for the committee to pass the resolution was handled the situation, however, by saying: "The resolution evidently did not pass the committee, and the time for resolutions is now over."
