

ROOSEVELT AGAIN LA FOLLETTE AGAIN

Would Present Him and "Shadow Huns," Gronna and Lundeen, to Kaiser. SAYS BAER PRO-GERMAN

St. Paul, Sept. 28.—On the platform of the auditorium where Senator La Follette last week decried America's entry into the war on what he termed a violation of "technical rights," Col. Theodore Roosevelt today decried the Wisconsin Senator with the "Huns within our gates" and declared he would like to send La Follette, Gronna and Lundeen to Germany as a "free gift to the Kaiser."

Recent utterances of Congressman Baer, he said, might be all right in the Reichstag, but a man entertaining such beliefs should not be admitted to Congress. Col. Roosevelt declared at the outset that the public man who did not consider first of all the real and permanent welfare of the workman was no friend of democracy.

Col. Roosevelt declared at the outset that the public man who did not consider first of all the real and permanent welfare of the workman was no friend of democracy. He is not true to the United States, either, if he misleads the workmen as to what is to their permanent interests," he added, and then said:

"The most united enemy of democracy in the United States is Senator La Follette." The Colonel had been given a transcript of Senator La Follette's speech before the Producers and Consumers conference held here last week under the auspices of the National League. "I have not had time to read it all," he said, "but I have already found two or three gems."

La Follette's Statement False. Senator La Follette's assertion that America's participation in the war was due to American citizens being passengers on a ship loaded with munitions for Great Britain was declared by the Colonel to be a falsehood, and he said: "He knows it was a falsehood, and he said nothing about the sinking of the hospital ship Sussex and the technical right of the doctors and Red Cross nurses who sank with her to be on board," the former President continued.

ARRIVALS AT WHITE SULPHUR. Princess of Thurn and Taxis Among Sojourners at Resort.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Sept. 28.—Miss Grace Vanderbilt, who arrived here on Thursday from Spartanburg with Mrs. Correll and Mrs. Vanderbilt, rode over Katoa Mountain this morning with Edmund Bayless, who came from New York to pass several weeks at the Greenbrier. Mrs. Vanderbilt drove around Oakhurst.

A. W. Thompson, vice-president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has arrived here today on his private car. The Princess of Thurn and Taxis and Mrs. Wells arrived from Uniontown with J. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hoff, Reginald Barker and J. Stevens Ullman of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Weston, H. M. Dougherty and J. A. Tesardner of Columbus, Ohio, R. S. Taylor of Philadelphia, Stewart Shlito and John Shlito of Cincinnati, and Mrs. H. C. C. Bury of Philadelphia arrived here by automobile.

Miss Edith G. Marshall gave a luncheon for Mr. Thornton Lewis, Mrs. George Dallas Dixon, and a driving party to Katoa Mountain. Mrs. J. Howard Slocum entertained at tea for Mrs. Samuel Rice.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. ALBANY, Sept. 28.—Supporters of Gov. Whitman in his fight to compel the confirmation by the Senate of George W. Perkins as president of the State Food Control Administration, requested tonight the Governor would be successful. They say the confirmation will be effected by the vote of several Democrats as well as Republicans who at first opposed the Perkins appointment.

The Governor is expected to resubmit the nomination of Mr. Perkins to the Legislature in the latter part of Monday night. A quorum is expected to be on hand and an attempt will be made by the Governor's backers in the Senate to force an immediate vote on the nomination. The opposition, led by Senator Elinor H. Brown, majority leader, who is the chief obstacle in the path of Mr. Perkins' confirmation. A lively fight is anticipated.

The opposition to Mr. Perkins is silent, but it is apparent nothing is being left undone by it to keep the check upon the Governor's nomination at the last session of the Senate. In view of the sentiment created in Albany by the Governor's action on the charges made against Justice Daniel P. Cohalan, alleging violation of neutrality in urging Germany to land forces in Ireland, England and France, the Albany measure of the Irish revolution, it is regarded as almost certain that the New York members at least will call attention to the matter. The Cohalan case is now being discussed in the place in legislative discussion if Gov. Whitman is prepared to resubmit the Perkins nomination.

RAINBOW GLEE CLUB SINGS. Society Folk at Concert for Camp Comfort Kit Fund. Many society folk and army officers were present last night at the Garden City Hotel, Garden City, L. I., at the benefit concert for the Soldiers' Comfort Kit Fund of Camp Upton, Garden City, L. I., which was given by the American Red Cross as sponsor for the concert, and Major-Gen. William A. Mann and his staff gave it their personal endorsement. The Garden City Glee Club, composed of men from nearly every State, took part.

LA FOLLETTE PLANS TO DEFEND SELF

Outwardly Calm at Demand for Expulsion, but Stung by Attacks. COLONEL'S WORDS HURT

Says He May Reply Through Press or Through His Own Magazine.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin has returned to Washington, and to all outward appearances is not at all disturbed by his suggestions that his expulsion should follow as the result of his alleged anti-American activities or his pro-German sentiments and the attack upon him by Col. Roosevelt.

Today in refusing to reply to Col. Roosevelt he announced he was preparing a temperate and well considered reply to the Colonel's intimations and suggestions. He refused to permit himself to be any more stung with regard to Col. Roosevelt's attack.

"I may make my reply to Col. Roosevelt through the magazine I may reply through my own magazine at a later date," he said to THE SUN correspondent. "This calm is predicated upon a complete understanding by the Wisconsin Senator of the general sentiment of the Senate. No one knows better than Senator La Follette what the Senate is feeling about the fight to bring the fight to the floor of the Senate would favor a revulsion of sentiment not in favor of La Follette but against the suggestion that he should be expelled from the Congress of the United States."

Admittedly La Follette has opposed certain measures proposed by his friends. He pointed out that since the declaration of war La Follette, while voting against many measures, has never yet voted against any measure which has already been appropriated for the war chest.

Stung by Colonel's Attack. While not willing to admit it, Senator La Follette is stung to the quick by the Colonel's attacks. The long records of both Senator La Follette and Col. Roosevelt as rival propagandists of Progressivism have served to gather to the train a following throughout the United States, and the personal animosity which has become tenacious. To the average progressive, regardless of prior partisan affiliations, the names of La Follette and Roosevelt stood for the same thing.

HEFLIN AND NORTON CLING TO MERIT TO PROMOTE SOLDIERS IN RANKS

War Department Issues Orders Governing Advancement in the Field.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Merit will be the sole basis for promotion of officers in the National Army and National Guard, the War Department announced today in orders governing promotions in those organizations for the duration of the war.

The War Department announced today in orders governing promotions in those organizations for the duration of the war. All officers, including those of the Regular Army attached to the new forces, will be equally eligible for advancement.

Advancement in grades above Second Lieutenant and below Lieutenant-Colonel will be made as far as practicable by the promotion of officers selected from the next lower grade in the same arm or corps, or by the promotion of officers of the same grade in the same arm or corps.

When an army corps commander believes the interest of the service demands the promotion of an officer to a higher grade within a division forming part of his corps by transfer of officers of the same grade and arm from the next lower grade in the regiment or department in an expeditionary force, the vacancy will be filled upon the recommendation of the commanding General of the force in which the vacancy occurs and the commander may fill such vacancies by temporary appointments or by assignments after the approval of the War Department.

Woman Buys Geyser Paintings. Mrs. Margaret Stewart Mackenzie of New York yesterday purchased two paintings of Geyser by Eugene Ionesco, a collection of Boucher's work now on exhibition at the Hotel Plaza. The paintings will be on display at the exhibition closes two weeks hence.

Angling Contest Closes To-day. September 29th is the last day on which you can enter your prize catches for the Evening Post Angler's Medal and the $125 in prizes. There is no cost, no formality. The best specimens in each class win the honors—a real sportsman's event.

ALABAMA CONGRESSMAN IS WORSTED IN FIGHT OVER DISLOYALTY CHARGES.

INQUIRY IS HELD UP. Pon Says U. S. Fears Action Would Hamper German Plot Investigations.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A physical encounter on the floor of the House today followed a report from the Rules Committee to the effect that it had decided not to act upon any of the various resolutions resulting from the speech of Representative Hefflin of Alabama, in which the Southern Congressman was held to have intimated that members of Congress had been influenced by German money.

The clash was one of the most exciting the House has seen in recent years, and it left that body in a fever of excitement. The statement for the Rules Committee was made by Chairman Pon and unloosed a flood of protest. The conflict between Hefflin and Norton was brief and served only to add to the excitement. It was stated that both members will be reprimanded before the bar of the House.

In statements issued tonight Representative Hefflin expressed regret that he did not have a chance to question Senator Norton before an investigating committee, and Representative Norton reiterated previous criticisms of the Rules Committee for not listening to testimony given by Hefflin in the House.

Hefflin saw him coming and waved his hands at him. Norton slipped under the hands of Hefflin, and he quickly parried them. Hefflin, who was toward his hip Representative Baer and others said they thought he was reaching for a gun. Norton pinned his arms, however, and must him back against a row of seats.
