RED CROSS SHOWS RELIEF WORK COST Statement Gives $70,765,966 as Balance Available for Appropriation.

The Red Cross War Council makes public the following financial statement, showing the collections and disbursements for the war fund up to November 1, 1917. The collections on November 1 totaled $78,995,555.48. Of these collections $9,129,889.21 is reserved for return to Red Cross chapters to be spent for war relief work. The estimated balance available for appropriation amounts to $70,765,966.47.

The total appropriations from the war fund up to November 1 amounted to $40,851,269.20, of which $26,934,416.86 was for foreign relief. The foreign relief appropriations were apportioned as follows: France, $19,581,210.47; Belgium, $720,001; Russia, $1,428,040.87; Serbia, $403,202.78; Hunania, $1,518,358.76; Italy, $28,500; United States, $20,000; Foreign miscellaneous, $113,012; Armenian and Syrian relief, $1,800,000.

There was appropriated for United States supplies, $40,000; United States forces, $2,448,729; for United States hospital work, $275,600; for United States sanitary service about cantonments, $182,500; for United States miscellaneous items, $108,487.50; a total of $43,220,216.60. Other appropriations advanced for hospital funds amounted to $229,000. The appropriations for the purchase of articles for resale to chapters, principally materials to be worked into garments for soldiers and hospital supplies, amounted to $1,659,500. This sum eventually will be returned to the war fund. An appropriation of $500,000 for automobiles is a bookkeeping entry to acknowledge a gift of that amount in the form of cars and automobile parts from the Ford Motor company.

In addition to the war fund appropriations specified above the sum of $1,417,623.74 will be returned to the war fund. These funds—that is, from money which contributors have given to the Red Cross for special stated purposes and which can be expended only for those purposes.

THOUSANDS OF GIFTS PACKED. Many Women Aid Red Cross Work for Fighters' Christmas. Volunteer Red Cross workers in all boroughs of New York are assembling and packing Christmas gifts for American soldiers and sailors. The allotment of the fighting men overseas has been completed and the work now going on is in the interest of the men in cantonments and American sailors aboard ships in American waters.

The Red Cross has undertaken to provide 1,500,000 Christmas packages. The New York Chapter has Christmas headquarters on the eleventh floor of 455 Madison avenue. An average of 100 women daily helped in the work last week. The packing is being done under the direction of Miss Edna Mager and a committee composed of Miss Mabel Choate, Mrs. E. P. Fitch, Miss Marion McKeever, Mrs. J. A. Murray, Miss F. Whiting, Miss J. Wallace, Miss Carolyn Morgan, Mrs. E. A. Whitney, Miss Pauline Robinson, Mrs. Leo Arnold, Mrs. Robert A. O'Brien, Mrs. Sidney Berg, Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim and Miss Mary Elizabeth Evans.

ARTILLERY TO GIVE CIRCUS. Travelling Tented Organization Will Put on Show. The Eighth Coast Artillery, New York Guard, will produce a genuine, professional circus in the armory of the First Field Artillery, at Broadway and Sixty-eighth street, on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, devoting the proceeds to the Eighth Coast Artillery Command, N. G. U. S., whose men in khaki are manning the forts of the harbor and protecting the lives and homes of residents of New York, Westchester county, Long Island, New Jersey and Connecticut.

They have erected, intact and unchanged, the American Circus, a noted travelling tented organization, which is completing its season on the road. Samuel McTracken will have professional charge of the performance. Matrons will be given each day after Wednesday.

CONCERT by The Aeolian Company Assisted by THE NEW YORK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA. Walter Damrosch, Conductor. Aeolian Hall, Saturday Evening, November 17th. Program of Exceptional Interest. Tickets at Box Office 50c to $2.00.

ALL RECEIPTS TO RED CROSS. Horse Show Expenses Being Paid by National Association. The entire gross receipts of the National Horse Show, which will begin at Madison Square Garden to-morrow, will go this year to the American Red Cross. The money paid for every ticket will reach the war relief fund intact, precisely as if ticket buyers had made a cash contribution directly into the treasury of the Red Cross.

This important fact was emphasized yesterday in a brief statement by the directors of the Horse Show. They say that it is the purpose this year to realize a fund of $100,000 for the benefit of the Red Cross, and that the realization of this hope will be entirely in the general public. The officers and directors of the National Horse Show Association are paying every expense of holding the exhibition, and the Red Cross will receive every cent taken in, nothing whatever being deducted.

CHASE BANK CLUB DINES. Friends to Number of 850 at Hotel Astor Banquet. Officers and employees of the Chase National Bank with friends to the number of 850, had a dinner and entertainment at the Hotel Astor last night in honor of the Chase Bank Club. A. Barton Henburn, chairman of the board, Albert H. Wiggin, president of the bank, Eugene V. R. Thayer, president-elect of the bank, and other officers made brief speeches.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crane of Washington are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Stettinius at 1021 Park avenue. Mr. Crane is private secretary to Robert Lansing, Secretary of State. Mrs. Henry Asher Robbins has left Astor House, in Southampton, for 721 Fifth avenue, where she will be for the winter. A bazaar for the benefit of the Helpless, an organization that aids needy persons, will be held at the small ballroom at Belmont's on Wednesday afternoon, from 1 to 10:30. Among those who will assist are Mrs. Emily Venable, Miss Georgine Iaelin, Mrs. William Paterson Van Dyke, Mrs. Edouard Not, Mrs. Henry Hall Forbes and Miss Aimee Belmont.

An entertainment to raise funds to aid in the establishment of a hotel for soldiers and sailors will be held on the roof of the Waldorf-Astoria on Friday afternoon and evening. Tea and supper will be served and an exhibition of ice skating will be given. Among those who have given their patronage are the British, Belgian, French and Italian Ambassadors, Lord and Lady Aberdeen, Gov. and Mrs. Whitman and Mayor and Mrs. Mitchell.

A rummage sale for the benefit of the Prospect Hill Day Nursery will be held on Friday, at 40 West Thirty-eighth street, morning and afternoon. Among the board of managers of the nursery are Mrs. James C. Auchincloss, Mrs. James L. Rice, Mrs. Charles L. Riker, Mrs. Hamilton Fish Benjamin, Mrs. Charles D. Dickey, Jr., Mrs. F. M. L. Tonnell, Mrs. Frederick B. Jennings and Mrs. John G. McCullough.

WALLACE-PATTERSON. Notable Guests at Wedding of Captain in Washington. Special Despatch to THE SUN. WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Miss Ruth Raymond Patterson was married this morning to Capt. Neville W. Wallace, U. S. A., in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Raymond Patterson. A small but distinguished gathering attended, including the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker, Chief Justice and Mrs. White. Several friends of the bridegroom's grandfather, the late Chief Justice Fuller of the United States supreme court, were present.

The Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Church, officiated at the wedding, assisted by the Rev. Charles Wood, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. Lieut. Robert W. Patterson, U. S. A., gave his sister in marriage. Capt. Wallace's best man was Capt. W. L. Williams, U. S. A., the only attendant of the bride was her young cousin, the Countess Delicia Glyck. The bridal party passed down the stairway and through the hall to a bay window in the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed. Quantities of Easter lilies were massed there before a prie dieu, where the young couple knelt. The room was lighted only by candles.

The promotion of the bridegroom to the rank of Captain was announced last night at a dinner party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell Wallace, in honor of their son and his bride.

After the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bridegroom's mother in Dupont Circle. The young couple will make their home in Chickamauga, Ga., where Capt. Wallace is stationed.

A small reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, the Misses Norrie, 82 Park avenue. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Norrie, Mr. and Mrs. Norrie Sellar, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Norrie, parents of the bridegroom; Russell H. Roadley, Jr., Mrs. Frederic H. Betts, Miss Louise Hodley, Mr. and Mrs. C. O'Donnell Isehn, Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto C. Fabbri, Mrs. Harrison Carey, Elinor Moore, and Mrs. W. Rathbone Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seton, the Misses Seton, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hadden, Miss Aileen Sedgwick, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bradhurst Field and Mrs. Thomas H. Barber. The bridegroom is stationed at Fort Wadsworth and is in the 105th Infantry.

Member of Canada's Flying Corps Weds New York Girl. Miss Dorothy J. Taylor, daughter of Mrs. M. J. Taylor of 214 West Ninety-second street, was married to John G. Lethbridge yesterday morning in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament by the Rev. Stewart Chambers in the presence of a limited gathering. A nuptial mass followed the ceremony.

The bride entered the church with her cousin, Lieut. George Uermuehle, U. S. A. She wore a gown of white satin covered with old rose point lace, and her veil, fastened in the center, was of the same lace. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. M. Taylor O'Donohue, and Mrs. J. French Miller of Franklin, Pa.

Lieut. Walter M. Lethbridge, Royal M. G. C., who recently arrived from England, was his brother's best man, and the ushers were E. Mattison de Goozard, John J. Slattery, Henry S. Parker, Louis Bassano and Thomas P. Kelly. A breakfast for the bridal party and relatives followed at Belmont's. The bridegroom, who is a soldier in the Royal Flying Corps of Canada, has been living in New York for several years.

BRADY-KENNEDY. Mother Gives Bride Away in Chapel of St. Bartholomew's. Miss Marion Kennedy, daughter of Mrs. Harry Custer Kennedy of 161 Madison avenue, was married to William (Jack) Brady, Jr., yesterday afternoon in the chapel of St. Bartholomew's Church. The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, rector of the church, and the Rev. James M. Farver of Brooklyn were the officiating ministers.

The bride, who was given away by her mother, was attended by her sister, Miss Olive Kennedy. Mrs. Frank E. Bernard of New York and Miss Martha Hill of Port Hill, Okla., were bridesmaids. A niece of the bridegroom, the Misses Anita Zabarskie, Gertrude Geer, Marion Burt and Meilan Wright, Lieut. Ralph M. Hyde, U. S. N., was best man. The ushers were Capt. William Cooper Foote, Lieut. Sidney J. Kelley, Ferdinand D. Sanford and J. Pennington Cooper, Jr., all of the U. S. R. The bride's maid was Miss Mary Elizabeth Evans.

PARSONS-McEWAN. Miss Florence Butler McEwan, daughter of Robert R. McEwan of Lincoln avenue, Orange, N. J., and Leslie F. Porter of Lawrence, Mass., a tanker in Boston, were married yesterday in the Hillside Presbyterian Church of Orange by the Rev. Dr. Charles T. Walker. Mrs. Frederick Lang of Lawrence, Mass., was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Virginia McEwan, cousin of the bride; Miss Dorothy Eldred of New York; Miss Gertrude Porter of Lawrence, Mass.; and Miss Lillian Brown of Manvelwood, N. J. Mr. Everett Rutter of Orange was best man.
