

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1917.
Copyright, 1917, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

FIGURES PROMINENT IN HERO LAND

Miss Virginia Loney at the City of Bagdad booth. She is a survivor of the Lusitania disaster.

The Mayfair War Relief booth, one of the most picturesque at the bazaar. The attendants are in costume and in ordinary dress, and the receipts already are gratifying.

At right—
Mlle. Madeleine Liebert, daughter of the French Consul-General in New York.

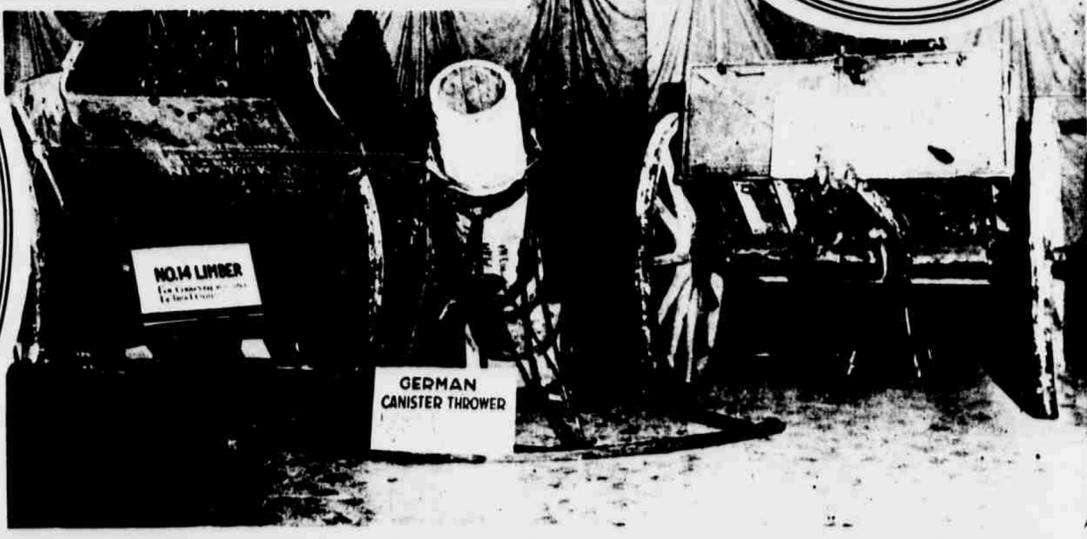

Pieces of a Zeppelin brought down in a London air raid, with machine gun and petrol tank. The crew of the craft died when she fell in flames.

Among the many widely known women interested in the bazaar is Mrs. Charles de L. Oelrichs. The numerous varied costumes add much to the brilliancy of the bazaar.

Photo News Thompson

Ammunition limbers direct from the front add a touch of realism. In the centre is a captured German canister thrower. Its missile contains a high explosive the shock of which kills trench occupants.

Photos, copyright, Underwood & Underwood.