

GRAVEST U. S. LACK IS MEN, SAYS GARY

Steel Corporation Chairman Urges Importation of Oriental Labor.

SHOWS GERMAN MENACE

Americans, He Asserts, Are "Slow, Stupid or Indiffer- ent" to Danger.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, declared before the Commercial club here that Americans have been "slow, stupid, or at least indifferent" to the danger which threatens us as the result of our participation in the war.

He declared that the cessation of hostilities, in the minds of the majority, seems to be far distant and that Germany contrary to expectations at the beginning of the war is now, after three and a half years of conflict, "more virile, more efficient, more determined and more aggressive than she was at the beginning of the war."

He said we have ships, railroads, food and money. Our worst need is men, and he suggested the importation of Oriental labor.

Judge Gary had as the subject for his address "Business Problems During and After the War," but declared that this was a time for plain and frank expression of opinion and that in what he said there was involved no intention to criticize unfavorably or to condemn anything that has been done or omitted.

Judge Gary said that complaints or objections, even though there may be cause are not helpful and that whether our legislators or administrators were wise in making preparation for the war is not of immediate consequence. He added that times never returns simply to furnish a second opportunity.

Diagnoses Present Conditions.
"Just now," said Judge Gary, "we are concerned in the consideration of conditions and future possibilities. The former can be diagnosed. The latter depends upon proper decision and action based on the one hand or on no decision or action on the other."

"When the war commenced on August 1, 1914, it was generally asserted by Americans that the instruments of destruction as then perfected made it impossible for a long continuance. After England decided to fight, however, it became worse. All previous calculations have been upset. One nation after another has entered the war, one after another has appeared, and now, in the minds of the majority, the cessation of hostilities seems to be far distant. In a recent editorial published in the Philadelphia Ledger it was stated that every business man should hang over his desk the phrase, 'Germany is winning the war.' We may not be willing to subscribe to the sentiment, but it indicates the opinion of a considerable number of persons.

Enemy Holding Ground.
"Notwithstanding claims of progress made by the Allies from time to time, many of which have been refuted, though others were made in a spirit of bravado or with the purpose of creating sentiment, the fearful fact remains that at the end of nearly three and a half years the armies of Germany and Austria are fighting on foreign soil and in the possession or control of territory and of avenues to the German Gulf which, if held—considered from a military standpoint alone—would justify them in commencing and carrying on the war with all its costs and misery to their people."

"Prussian Germany is in control of the German Empire, of the Austrian Empire, of Turkey, Rumania, Serbia, Albania, the most of Belgium, a large area of the best and richest part of France, Poland, and probably a considerable portion of Russia, a substantial section of Italy, and much other territory with large quantities of iron ore, coal and other minerals and also food products. The natural resources under the domination of Germany have been augmented many fold since the war commenced, and they are increasing.

Plans to Subjugate World.
"The Prussians have perfected a centralized, comprehensive, powerful business organization which, considering its size and ramifications, has never before been approached. Their programme boldly contemplates the subjugation of various nations separately, either by force or other means. It is probable the Russian revolution and its consequences were planned in Germany and have been financed and directed by Germany and brains. She is now endeavoring to 'Russianize' several other countries."

"We are appalled, though we are not dismayed, by these conditions. Our determination is unshaken; our faith is set. We have been forced into the war and we are fighting in self-defense. So far as we are concerned it is a combat between right and right. Considered by themselves, the existing conditions are so pleasant that they are dangerous though not desperate; they compel one to fear Americans are confined by a long and ruinous war, destructive of life and limb, and of mental, moral and physical health, devastation of property and annihilation of wealth."

"The nature of war conditions as presented is not pleasant to look upon, but it is not exaggerated and it stares one in the face. We have been slow and stupid or indifferent. We have not realized and do not yet realize the full extent of the danger which threatens us, and in this respect there is little difference between the citizens of the various parts of the United States or of any country."

COLLECTOR WARNS ALL TAX SLACKERS

Record Attempt to Be Made to Catch Evasions of Income Payments.

FINES AND JAIL TERMS

Several Hundred Inspectors to Scan Books—Appeal to Patriotism Made.

Wons of many and dire sorts are threatened by the Deputy Internal Revenue Collector to those perverse ones who, hearing the sound of the Government's call for 2 per cent. tax from afar, hide the truth concerning their income.

Mark Elmer, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third District of New York, yesterday laid a bomb out of his office to warn New York that evasion of the income tax law is not to be tolerated. Mr. Elmer speaks with the Department of Justice behind him when he says that correct income statements must be filed with his office.

Year in Jail for False Report.
"The punishments are comparatively light," Mr. Elmer casually hinted. "But when summarized these same penalties seem far from innocuous. Fix the required 2 per cent. of your annual net income in your mind and read this: 'Penalties for Individuals'—For failure to make a report at the proper time: fine not to exceed $1,000, and an increase of the tax by 50 per cent. For making a false report, a fine not in excess of $2,000, or imprisonment for one year, or both, and an increase of the tax by 100 per cent."

Several Hundred Inspectors.
"For New York city," said Mr. Elmer, "we will have several hundred skilled inspectors on duty to discover delinquents and check up returns. These men are all accountants and it can be safely assumed are able to go through the books of an ordinary business house in a few hours. If we would take the maximum number of visits, let us say, two a day, 350 inspectors would be able to make 700 visits a day or 4,200 a week, and at this rate it will not be long for them to check up the entire city."

Force Believes Shortage in the Adirondacks and Catskills.
Special Dispatch to The Sun.
ALBANY, Jan. 5.—The entire forest ranger force of the Conservation Commission is being used to relieve the fuel shortage in the Adirondack and Catskill regions, as a result of instructions issued to-day by William G. Howard, Assistant Superintendent of State Forests and head of the Wood Fuel Bureau, recently established by the Conservation Commissioner George D. Pratt.

Forest Rangers Get Fuel.
Special Dispatch to The Sun.
The number of anonymous communications that the office of the collector receives daily, commonly called 'squalls,' would astonish the average citizen. Some people who have thought they have succeeded in evading tax do not hesitate to boast of it to some friend. The result is a letter to us. These letters are going to get prompt attention and no attempt will be made to discover the source of the communication, nor will the taxpayer who is found delinquent be given an indulgence as to how we got the tip."

Can't and Shouldn't Be Done.
"It will be seen that not only the taxpayer's own statement will be received in our office, but also the statement of the people who have paid taxes to the taxpayer will be filed. Even brokers' accounts, sometimes carried on their ledgers in code numbers or other means, will be the disclosure of customers' names, will be subjected to scrutiny and report."

NOVEMBER LIVING COST WAS LOWER
Prices Decreased 1 Per Cent. From October Levels.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The high cost of living is on the downward trend, according to a statement to-day of the Bureau of Labor statistics, which says that the retail price of food as a whole for November was 1 per cent. less than in October. Of standard articles twelve showed decreases, four remained stationary in price and eleven increased.

SPARROW POPULATION MAY BE NEXT.
Special Dispatch to The Sun.
CLATON, N. J., Jan. 5.—Sparrow population has possibilities as a meat source, according to some of the residents of this town who have tried the dish and related it. The only obstacle in the way of adopting a "sparrow day," along with the beefsteak and wheelless ones, is that of trapping or shooting enough birds to eat a people. One family here used 200 sparrows to fill a pie and the women cooks in the family were "berating" the horrors of war by the time they got all the birds plucked and cleaned.

Read Your Instructions.
Business men are asked to examine their instructions carefully and not to bring their books to the collector's office. Every item that shows net income must be included and deductions made afterward. The business man must state total sales for the year, inventory at

That Gaston B. Means, recently acquitted of the murder of Mrs. Maude A. Peters, temporary administrator of the estate of the dead woman.

In explaining why the Corn Exchange Bank declined to honor a check of Mrs. King, Mrs. Peters, wife of Gaston Means, for $4,907 after Mrs. King had signed the bank's papers on file assert Means had stolen the estate of the woman who met death while out automobiling with him and a party of friends.

January Sale of China, Glassware and Artwares

Drawn From Our Own Rich Stocks

At Price-reductions of 20 to 50%

For years China and Glassware have been a very important feature of the Abraham and Strauss business. We have been direct importers—and are now—of great quantities of these wares, from the leading potteries of the world. We have accumulated huge surpluses of the most wanted kinds—bought when prices were much lower than they are now. And it is these already low prices that we have made still less—by one-fifth to one-half—to give New York people the table-furnishings they need at savings that will be as warmly welcomed as a load of coal!

So freight traffic may be paralyzed; potteries may be overworked; prices may have shot skyward; but this Sale, and our customers, are independent of all of them!
