

PREPARATORY SCHOOLS AND ACADEMIES

Latest News of the Life and Spirit Within Academic Walls

Miss Marion Coats Is Elected Principal of Bradford Academy—Next Meeting of Camp Directors Is on March 16—Economic Prizes Awarded—Other News.

CAMP DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION.
The regular monthly meeting of the Camp Directors Association of America was held Saturday, February 16, at the Faculty Club, Columbia University. The next meeting will be Saturday, March 16, at the Faculty Club, New York City. All members are urged to be present with one or more guests. This dinner will take the place of our annual banquet. The association will meet under the present conditions not to hold our regular banquet.

BRADFORD ACADEMY.
BRADFORD, MASS., Feb. 23.—Dr. Raymond Calkins, president of the board of trustees of Bradford Academy, announces the election of Miss Marion Coats as principal to succeed Miss Laura Coats. At present Miss Coats is principal of Ferry Hall, Preparatory School for Girls and Junior College, at Lake Forest, Ill.

MOSES BROWN SCHOOL.
The annual winter entertainment programme for Moses Brown School, Providence, R. I., was given at the school on March 4. Charles Taber, principal, presided. The programme included the following: "The Mutability of Literature," by Stephen Leacock, Litt. D.; March 15, musical, the Carolyn Belcher singing. There will be held also, as usual, a series of debates and the annual school declamation contest, the dates for which have not yet been definitely scheduled.

MARYMOUNT NOTES.
A most successful retreat was given to the students of Marymount, Tarrytown, N. Y., from February 10 to 14 by Rev. Fr. John J. Drumm, S. J., distinguished lecturer and professor of Woodstock College.

GLASON POINT ACADEMY.
The annual review and drill of cadets of Glason Point Military Academy, New York City, took place in the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory on Monday evening, February 19.

ECONOMIC PRIZES.
On Friday, Feb. 23.—Frank Hyman, Knit, Cornell postgraduate, has won a prize of $500 for an economic essay on "Cost Value and Profit." Mr. Knight is instructor of political economy at Cornell University and is the fourth Cornell man to win one of these prizes.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The second intercollegiate conference on vocational opportunities for college women will be held on Thursday and Friday, March 7 and 8, at Wheaton College, Northfield, Vt. The conference is the brain of the Bureau of Vocational Opportunities, of which Catherine Flinn of Boston is director.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
This year was organized a year ago by the first intercollegiate conference on vocational opportunities for college women. The bureau was organized to meet the need for a bureau which would furnish a closer correlation of the activities inside and outside academic walls. Among the members of the advisory board are President Samuel W. Eaton, Col. Hon. Frederick P. Fish of Boston, Major Hammond of Boston, chairman of the Industrial Service Commission, William Flinn's Sons Company, Boston.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

Georgia H. Marin of Newton Centre; Miss M. E. Clapp, N. D., and Sybil U. Ward of Wilmington, N. C. Last year, delegates are expected from a large number of the women's colleges east of the Mississippi. The special inclusion of men and women of national reputation in their chosen fields, and there will be an opportunity for discussion at the close of each address. The advisability of forming national intercollegiate organization will be one of the chief subjects considered. Much stress will also be laid upon a discussion of the present situation and how it can render the greatest service under the present war conditions.

CLASON POINT ACADEMY.
The annual review and drill of cadets of Clason Point Military Academy, New York City, took place in the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory on Monday evening, February 19.

ECONOMIC PRIZES.
On Friday, Feb. 23.—Frank Hyman, Knit, Cornell postgraduate, has won a prize of $500 for an economic essay on "Cost Value and Profit." Mr. Knight is instructor of political economy at Cornell University and is the fourth Cornell man to win one of these prizes.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The second intercollegiate conference on vocational opportunities for college women will be held on Thursday and Friday, March 7 and 8, at Wheaton College, Northfield, Vt. The conference is the brain of the Bureau of Vocational Opportunities, of which Catherine Flinn of Boston is director.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
This year was organized a year ago by the first intercollegiate conference on vocational opportunities for college women. The bureau was organized to meet the need for a bureau which would furnish a closer correlation of the activities inside and outside academic walls. Among the members of the advisory board are President Samuel W. Eaton, Col. Hon. Frederick P. Fish of Boston, Major Hammond of Boston, chairman of the Industrial Service Commission, William Flinn's Sons Company, Boston.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

WHEATON COLLEGE.
The student committee in charge of the conference is made up as follows: Margaret K. Gray of Lehigh, Elizabeth H. Hines of New York, Myrtle W. Johnson of Williams, Conn.

ANDOVER'S WAR POLICY.
The following statement of Andover's war policy is taken from the Bulletin of the school, dated Feb. 23, 1918. "We at Phillips Academy are far from being in sympathy with the policy occasionally announced by some other preparatory schools of 'education as usual' and 'normal life.' Whether we like it or not, these are not 'normal' and 'regular' times, and the sooner even our boys here have their minds impressed on the mobilization of our people will become complete, and therefore effective. We submit that there is no conceivable reason why, because a young man happens to be a year or two under the draft age, he should be kept in blissful ignorance and allowed to go easily on in his 'normal' way of living. He should have a course of instruction to learn to refrain from frivolity, from waste of time and energy, from carelessness and indolence and selfish pleasure. The responsibility rests largely upon their teachers. The boys themselves need little encouragement to loyalty, bravery and renunciation, and their instructors are in the wrong, we believe, if they do not assist in assisting their pupils to play the part of men. "It is not only fitting, it is clearly necessary, that for the present military training should be made a part of the high and unusual schedule. For our Phillips boys to delay in making preparation for that army and navy service which is likely to be their lot in the future would be to ignore the important lesson which we as a nation have just begun to learn. We are convinced that they should have it impressed upon their minds that the time for such preparation is abnormal times, in which normal routines must be modified or abandoned. "In our present programme, for instance, athletics and sports should be given their utilitarian value as a means of promoting health and bodily vigor; but sports obviously deserve no more attention than is essential to maintain the body in a condition to do its part in them. So also with social diversions; they need not be eliminated, but they must be curtailed, especially if they should all day long be spent in dress, what we as a country and as a school, as teachers and as students must soon comprehend in this pregnant time that we are engaged in a serious and unprofitable pursuit and still conduct this war to a fortunate conclusion. Our enemies are devoting their every resource to the consummation of their evil designs, and we must be prepared to adopt their policy in this respect we shall have to face many painful and shameful reverses."

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.
On Friday last an entertainment was given by the Circle Mothers of St. Joseph's College, Brooklyn. The programme included the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Marseillaise" by the college an address by the Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Molloy. The programme included the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Marseillaise" by the college an address by the Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Molloy.

THE PENN CHARTER SCHOOL.
It is interesting to record that the Penn Charter School, Philadelphia, Pa., the oldest secondary school in the country, despite the loss of its famous headmaster of forty-two years service has not lost still during the present year. It has increased its enrollment by 117, the largest gain in the whole history of the school. In the sale of Liberty bonds the boys of the school, numbering nearly 500, surpassed the record of any school, public or private, by disposing of a total amounting to $222,856. One lad alone, Claude H. Bennett, Jr., made a record of $10,000.

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE.
The programme closed with an address by the Rev. Dr. Thomas E. Molloy, the honorary president of the circle. Among those present at the entertainment were Dr. G. H. Whipple, Dr. Hooper and Dr. Meyer, together with other members of the staff of the George William Hooper Foundation for Medical Research, and other prominent investigators, among which are studies of anatomy resulting from loss of blood, and studies dealing with various conditions of the nervous system. Prof. P. R. Day has carried on investigations on typhoid and tuberculosis, often reported before.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
Prof. Joseph Hurdley of the University of Michigan Engineering College, Ann Arbor, has been called to Washington to assume direction of the training of men throughout the country in ordnance work. Major Hurdley is a graduate of this particular college.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
About 270 students in the engineering, architectural and chemical departments of the University of Michigan have petitioned to be enrolled in the reserve corps of the engineering section of the army. Those who are accepted will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN.
The scholarship requirements for enrollment in the reserve corps are very stringent. Of those who rank with the first one-third in the scholarship records of the past two years will receive a course of instruction in training at the university and upon being graduated will enter active service.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY.
PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 23.—A movement of yet unknown strength is said to be on foot among the members of the sophomore class at Princeton to continue the rebellion against the upper class clubs which was started by Richard Cleveland and a number of his classmates last year. The members of the sophomore class are planning to strike at the clubs in the same manner as did the sophomores last year— to pledge as many men as possible not to join any organization and thereby decrease the numerical strength of the clubs. Open agitation will probably not start until around the "bicker period," the time when the clubs are allowed to enroll members from the sophomore class, which comes about the last of March.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS.
A RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS has been established at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and a full recognition is granted by the War Department. Major E. T. Bookmiller, U. S. A., has been appointed professor of military science and tactics by the President.

CORN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.
NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 23.—Many new courses are being offered at the Connecticut College for Women this semester. Among them is the course in bacteriology open to all those students who have had one year of college biology. In the absence of Dr. Edward Chapman, President Benjamin T. Marshall is conducting the class in Bacteriology.

TRINITY COLLEGE.
HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 23.—With the pledging of the members of Sigma Psi Fraternity to Sigma Psi of the City of the local fraternity at Trinity College has passed out of existence. Sigma Psi was organized here in 1911, and had attained considerable strength.

SMITH COLLEGE.
At a meeting of the senior class of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., it was voted to do away with all commencement exercises the following June. This means that there will be no inauguration of the new president this year, and following the six weeks intensive study, the men will be sent to a United States arsenal for further work.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 23.—Preliminary arrangements have been completed for giving an eight weeks free course of instruction in business subjects to 1,000 men and women by the College of Business Administration of Boston University, beginning in June. It will be a special war emergency course patterned after similar courses offered by the London County Council and following the total mobilization of the United States War and Navy departments.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY.
PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 23.—A movement of yet unknown strength is said to be on foot among the members of the sophomore class at Princeton to continue the rebellion against the upper class clubs which was started by Richard Cleveland and a number of his classmates last year. The members of the sophomore class are planning to strike at the clubs in the same manner as did the sophomores last year— to pledge as many men as possible not to join any organization and thereby decrease the numerical strength of the clubs. Open agitation will probably not start until around the "bicker period," the time when the clubs are allowed to enroll members from the sophomore class, which comes about the last of March.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS.
A RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS has been established at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and a full recognition is granted by the War Department. Major E. T. Bookmiller, U. S. A., has been appointed professor of military science and tactics by the President.

CORN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.
NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 23.—Many new courses are being offered at the Connecticut College for Women this semester. Among them is the course in bacteriology open to all those students who have had one year of college biology. In the absence of Dr. Edward Chapman, President Benjamin T. Marshall is conducting the class in Bacteriology.

TRINITY COLLEGE.
HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 23.—With the pledging of the members of Sigma Psi Fraternity to Sigma Psi of the City of the local fraternity at Trinity College has passed out of existence. Sigma Psi was organized here in 1911, and had attained considerable strength.

SMITH COLLEGE.
At a meeting of the senior class of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., it was voted to do away with all commencement exercises the following June. This means that there will be no inauguration of the new president this year, and following the six weeks intensive study, the men will be sent to a United States arsenal for further work.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 23.—Preliminary arrangements have been completed for giving an eight weeks free course of instruction in business subjects to 1,000 men and women by the College of Business Administration of Boston University, beginning in June. It will be a special war emergency course patterned after similar courses offered by the London County Council and following the total mobilization of the United States War and Navy departments.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY.
PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 23.—A movement of yet unknown strength is said to be on foot among the members of the sophomore class at Princeton to continue the rebellion against the upper class clubs which was started by Richard Cleveland and a number of his classmates last year. The members of the sophomore class are planning to strike at the clubs in the same manner as did the sophomores last year— to pledge as many men as possible not to join any organization and thereby decrease the numerical strength of the clubs. Open agitation will probably not start until around the "bicker period," the time when the clubs are allowed to enroll members from the sophomore class, which comes about the last of March.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS.
A RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS has been established at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and a full recognition is granted by the War Department. Major E. T. Bookmiller, U. S. A., has been appointed professor of military science and tactics by the President.

CORN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.
NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 23.—Many new courses are being offered at the Connecticut College for Women this semester. Among them is the course in bacteriology open to all those students who have had one year of college biology. In the absence of Dr. Edward Chapman, President Benjamin T. Marshall is conducting the class in Bacteriology.

TRINITY COLLEGE.
HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 23.—With the pledging of the members of Sigma Psi Fraternity to Sigma Psi of the City of the local fraternity at Trinity College has passed out of existence. Sigma Psi was organized here in 1911, and had attained considerable strength.

SMITH COLLEGE.
At a meeting of the senior class of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., it was voted to do away with all commencement exercises the following June. This means that there will be no inauguration of the new president this year, and following the six weeks intensive study, the men will be sent to a United States arsenal for further work.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 23.—Preliminary arrangements have been completed for giving an eight weeks free course of instruction in business subjects to 1,000 men and women by the College of Business Administration of Boston University, beginning in June. It will be a special war emergency course patterned after similar courses offered by the London County Council and following the total mobilization of the United States War and Navy departments.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY.
PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 23.—A movement of yet unknown strength is said to be on foot among the members of the sophomore class at Princeton to continue the rebellion against the upper class clubs which was started by Richard Cleveland and a number of his classmates last year. The members of the sophomore class are planning to strike at the clubs in the same manner as did the sophomores last year— to pledge as many men as possible not to join any organization and thereby decrease the numerical strength of the clubs. Open agitation will probably not start until around the "bicker period," the time when the clubs are allowed to enroll members from the sophomore class, which comes about the last of March.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS.
A RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS has been established at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and a full recognition is granted by the War Department. Major E. T. Bookmiller, U. S. A., has been appointed professor of military science and tactics by the President.

CORN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.
NEW LONDON, Conn., Feb. 23.—Many new courses are being offered at the Connecticut College for Women this semester. Among them is the course in bacteriology open to all those students who have had one year of college biology. In the absence of Dr. Edward Chapman, President Benjamin T. Marshall is conducting the class in Bacteriology.

TRINITY COLLEGE.
HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 23.—With the pledging of the members of Sigma Psi Fraternity to Sigma Psi of the City of the local fraternity at Trinity College has passed out of existence. Sigma Psi was organized here in 1911, and had attained considerable strength.

SMITH COLLEGE.
At a meeting of the senior class of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., it was voted to do away with all commencement exercises the following June. This means that there will be no inauguration of the new president this year, and following the six weeks intensive study, the men will be sent to a United States arsenal for further work.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY.
BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 23.—Preliminary arrangements have been completed for giving an eight weeks free course of instruction in business subjects to 1,000 men and women by the College of Business Administration of Boston University, beginning in June. It will be a special war emergency course patterned after similar courses offered by the London County Council and following the total mobilization of the United States War and Navy departments.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.

UNION COLLEGE.
Schenectady, Feb. 23.—The assistant treasurer of Union College reports a resignation for the second semester, which has just expired, of 300, with indications of a few more to be indicated. This means an approximate loss of 100 students since college opened in the fall. Forty-seven of these men have left to enter the army and navy.