NEW YORK ARTIST PORTRAYS NEW YORK John Sloan's Latest Paintings Are Exhibited in Kraushaar Galleries. LESS SATIRE IN THEM 'McSorley's Back Room' Is One of Most Striking Pictures.

John Sloan, whose latest paintings are now on exhibition in the Kraushaar Galleries, is a New Yorker who has had the wisdom to seek his subjects in New York, and the luck to gain attention in New York. Perhaps there is no luck about it or at least no more luck than brought crowds to the theatre of Harrigan and Hart in the old days—and Mr. Sloan's art has certain affinities with that of Harrigan and Hart.
