Patrons of Laurel in Pines Give $540 in Response to Popular Demand.

LYRIC PROCEEDS LARGE

McCreery & Co. Help to Sell Liberty Bonds and to Pur- chase Tobacco.

Toping the new contributions to THE SUN Tobacco Fund—a list that carries the total upward more than $1,000 from yesterday morning's figures—is an offering for $540 from the guests of the Laurel in the Pines, Lakewood, N. J. subscriptions were taken in response to a popular demand upon the part of patrons of this popular house and the committee in charge was composed of the following who were selected from their own number:

The spirit which actuated the Laurel guests was expressed on cards which were distributed to the various rooms a short time ago, inscribed thus:

with the constantly increasing number of our soldier boys going "Over There" the need of funds to buy and make Liberty Bonds and to purchase the Sun Tobacco. Will the guests of the Laurel in the Pines help THE SUN TOBACCO FUND?

GUNTON STARTS COLLECTION.

From his seat in the orchestra George Gunton, the veteran magazine editor, rose and called attention to the fact that the audience received the proposal with applause and when the collectors reported the results of the hat passing a few minutes later it was found that $135.50 had been raised for soldiers' needs. This was another big night at the Lyric Theatre, where the Vitaphone's master production, "Over the Top," is being shown. At the intermission, when the audience still was feeling the thrill of the marvellous scenes it had witnessed, Keaney Arthur Guy Empey, the hero of the picture, stepped upon the stage and made a stirring patriotic speech. As in all his addresses Empey, speaking from the heart, told of the sufferings of the soldier experiences when he is without food and urged support for THE SUN Tobacco Fund.

andie and Robert Matland, and joined to Mr. Mellor's it will be possible to estimate correctly the musical importance of this event.

In addition Miss Grace Elliott will recite a war poem and Miss Virginia Larrabee will give a humorous monologue. The Scotch pipers, John Fraser, James Elder and Murdoch Mackenzie, will provide an interesting feature, and Miss Betty Gray, soprano, and Miss May Thomson, harpist, are recent additions to the programme.

Events which promise to be as enjoyable as they are unique will be the two concerts by the Kitchen Band of the Crippled Children's East Side Free School, at 167 Henry street, Saturday afternoon and evening. All of the young musicians are students in this remarkable institution. Their patriotism is evidenced by the fact that they have elected to give the entire proceeds of these entertainments to THE SUN TOBACCO FUND.

The officers of the school are: Honorary president, Mr. Henry Good; honorary vice-president, Mrs. Samuel Hines; secretary, Mrs. J. B. Green; president, Mrs. Arthur Lehman; vice-president, Mrs. Julius Hart and Mrs. Moses Kaufman; treasurer, Mrs. Gustave Kaufman; secretary, Mrs. Albert Belligman; Mrs. Stanley M. Isaacs is chairman of the entertainment committee in charge of the coming benefit.

Twenty per cent of the gross proceeds of an entertainment to be given at the Westchester Woman's Club, Mount Vernon, by the pupils of the Misses Sprague's School of Dancing Saturday afternoon will come to the fund. "The Enchanted Prince" an original and pantomimic idyll, will be produced. About fifty young women and girls are to take part.

Dance at the Cumberlands.
A dance, the entire receipts of which, above necessary expenses, will go to further the soldiers' smoke cause, is being arranged to take place at the Hotel Cumberlands, 115 West 42nd street, Saturday evening. Tickets at 50 cents each are selling rapidly.

A delightful entertainment last night was the dance in the ballroom of the Hotel Gotham. This affair, also voluntarily arranged by its promoters as a fund benefit, was in charge of Miss Myrman Abrahamson and Mrs. Herman Sigel.

John Irving Woodruff is a youngster down in Somerset, Va. who is so interested in the nation's soldiers that he is sending $30 to buy smokes for them. Pathetic requests are in the form of a lettering a list are Gordon Gordon, 165 Broadway, and THE SUN's stereotyping department.

How the Fund Stands To-day.

THE SUN and THE EVENING SUN $400.00
United Cigar Stores, including special 6 per cent of Gross Sales $1,200.00
Other contributions $1,400.00
Total $2,000.00

WORK TO BE GIVEN DISABLED SOLDIERS

Manufacturers Association Surveying Industrial Field.

The ways of industry and chances for a livelihood will be open to crippled and maimed soldiers who come back from the front. The National Association of Manufacturers is making a survey of the field to determine in which branches of industry they may fit in best. A report of this work was made by F. W. Keough in an address before the State Charities Association yesterday.

Will Be Shown Widely.

When the picture has been completed it will be shown all over the United States for the purpose of showing foreigners and others that the property rights to live is right here under the Stars and Stripes, whether they were born in Italy, France, Holland, Germany or wherever they happened to be born.

TAKES SCHOOL FOR HOSPITAL.

The Medical Corps of the United States Army shortly will take over Public Schools in Hoboken, which will be transferred into a military base hospital, according to an announcement by Richard Marcell, business manager of the Hoboken public schools. The arrangements for taking over the school were conducted between Col. Kennedy and Major King of the Medical Department. U. S. A. Mayor Griffin of Hoboken, James Lavery, president of the Board of Education and Mr. Marcell.

Meeting for French League.

The work of the French League in America will be discussed at a meeting to be held Tuesday evening next in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Kahn, at which Major Gen. J. Franklin Bell, Dr. John H. Finley, State Commissioner of Education, and Lieut. Adrien de Pachmann of the French High Commission will speak.

WAR FILMS TAKEN UNDER DIFFICULTY

Washington News Prussians Have Good Excuse for Ruthlessness.

STUDIO FOLK BUTT IN

Even Patriotic Aircraft Is Guilty of Hampering Federal Work.

If any one had walked by Washington news, that quaint little court which runs between Fifth avenue and University place, where there is a row of stables which were struck by the reform wave and turned themselves into artists' studios, he would have seen it packed with German soldiers yesterday and with peasants and old fashioned hay ricks and a number of other things.

For the news was commandeered by the Government as a suitable location in which to take a scene for the first Government propaganda film, and it was being photographed by the Department of Films of the Committee of Public Information.

Paul Mansthai's studio was changed, for the nonce, into a "Gasthof zur Krone," and the action of the picture seemed to be centered around this spot.

Another studio was being used as a wardrobe and still a third had been changed into a shoemaker's shop. The charge d'affaires was Edwin L. Hollywood, chief of the production department of the division of films, and under his guidance the German soldiers were being as ruthless as "they can make 'em."

From the sidewalks by bold Prussians, children were being paraded in the ribs with the points of swords and everything was humming ruthlessly along.

Just at this point the German army was about to enter Paul Mansthai's "Gasthof" and clean the place up generally when from out of the side street came one of the Gentlemen of Greenwich Village in his sandals, tunic, hooded hat and all. He stepped directly in front of the clicking camera, withered the entire German army with a single glance, took the ruthless Captain's toe and entered one of the studios. Directly Hollywood gritted his teeth and mumbled something about justifiable atrocities, the army did a rather ragged "square right about," and then the scene started up again.

Even More Ruthless.

This time the soldiers looked even more ruthless than ever, the women and children even more cowed and just as the "Gasthof" was being cleaned up for a second time the huge airplane which flew over the city yesterday swooped down with its thundering engines and dropped a bunch of Liberty Loan literature on the crowd. But Director Hollywood is patriotic, so he didn't say a thing.

Finally, after a number of false starts, the scene was photographed and the actors signed with relief. And, incidentally, these movie actors and actresses are a patriotic bunch. In view of the fact that they are all giving their services to the Government, it might be well to mention their names," suggested Director Hollywood. So here they are:

George, Richard Barthelmess, Warren Cook, William Marston, T. Morse Koussler, Barbara Allen and Capt. Paul McAllister, who, besides being an actor, is in the Regular Army. And some one, possibly he had just asked for a raise, suggested that the name of Miss Beth Hollywood, the big boss's sister, ought to be mentioned.

Nearly every one of this list has played opposite a Mary Pickford or a Marguerite Clark or some other high light in the show business. For this time, however, they are forfeiting their salaries and are allowing themselves to be hampered around and maltreated generally by the German army. Which calls to mind the fact that the army was the only thing that was paid for working. But, thinking back on the Hessians, no one would expect the Germans to do much of anything unless they were well paid for it.

Will Be Shown Widely.

When the picture has been completed it will be shown all over the United States for the purpose of showing foreigners and others that the property rights to live is right here under the Stars and Stripes, whether they were born in Italy, France, Holland, Germany or wherever they happened to be born.

PADEBIEWSKI TO BE HONORED.

The patriotic service that has been rendered by Ignace Paderewski in calling the Polish to arms to fight the German menace will be recognized publicly at a meeting to be held in Carnegie Hall Wednesday evening, April 10, under the auspices of the Civic Forum.

REAR ADMIRAL PARKS REVIEWS 5,000

Five regiments of young men who are being trained for naval service at Pelham Bay were reviewed yesterday by Rear Admiral Wm. H. Parks, general inspector of recruiting. Admiral Parks complimented Commander William H. Franklin on the appearance of the men. There were 5,000 in the trim columns which marched by. A Parker, 215th avenue is to be held soon in the interest of the Liberty Loan.

COL. COLGATE RUNS ON WAR PLATFORM

Says Paramount Issue Is the Successful Prosecution of Conflict.

WANTS VICTORIOUS PEACE

Calls for Stern Punishment of All Who Impede U. S. Fighting Machine.

Col. Austen Colgate, former State Senator of Essex county, who will contest with Gov. Walter E. Edge and George L. Record and perhaps one or two others for the Republican nomination for United States Senator in the September primaries, made public yesterday his platform, the paramount issue of which, he said, "is the successful prosecution of the war against Germany and her subservient allies."

"The world," he said, "must be assured full protection against the idea of right dependent upon and enforced by night and accomplished by whatever device, barbaric or cunning, unless power may seize opportunity to inflict."

"In this conflict we must not be content with an inconclusive peace. There must be no halting or tramping back. The measure of our devotion and whatever sacrifice may be required must and shall equal the ideal for which we contend."

"There is no room for mere partisan criticism or obstruction. Our leaders speak for a nation united. There is no place for fair and constructive criticism in a democracy such as ours unless we concede that the intelligence of the nation is vested in a chosen few."

Condemns Ostrich Policy.
"The Government should take the people at home more fully into its confidence by giving them all possible information concerning the movement of our troops on land, sea and air, and withholding only such information as would be of benefit to the enemy. The American people are not afraid to know the truth and they should be acquainted with the facts not inconsistent with the proper safeguarding of military and naval secrets."

All forms of opposition to the efficient prosecution of this war must be sternly repressed and the offenders severely punished. Wherever established rights of capital interests they must be maintained. Wherever established rights of labor conflict with the necessary operations of the Government they also must be maintained. Where the impingement of labor is not sufficient to bring about the back of the selective draft must be used.

"This nation should never again be required to face the stupendous task of war preparation to have been required to discharge in haste because of our failure to realize in time of peace the necessity of preparation for war. We must never again be found by any emergency act to be unprepared for the necessities of such complete unreadiness. We must adopt a system of universal military training, to be ready to do our part either as a member of the army or as a citizen of an independent nation standing alone for our national ideals."

Homestead Rights for Fighters.

Col. Colgate favors the granting of homestead rights to all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors. He said the present "unworkable" and ineffectual laws have been required to discharge in haste because of our failure to realize in time of peace the necessity of preparation for war. We must never again be found by any emergency act to be unprepared for the necessities of such complete unreadiness. We must adopt a system of universal military training, to be ready to do our part either as a member of the army or as a citizen of an independent nation standing alone for our national ideals."

Stokes Probably in Race.

Mr. Bugbee said he didn't believe the Republican party could afford to have Mr. Stokes as its gubernatorial nominee. "He would have the whole State at sixes and sevens in less than two weeks, just as he balled up the work of the State in the election of 1913."

FOUR INJURED IN CRASH.

More than forty persons were cut and bruised, four of them so seriously that they were taken to the city hospital to have their injuries dressed, when a motor bus plying between Port Newark and Newark crashed into a trolley car in front of the City Hall, Newark, yesterday morning.
