

Hard won trophies of the air: Machine guns from Baron von Richthofen's fighting plane being examined by British aviators who brought him down.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

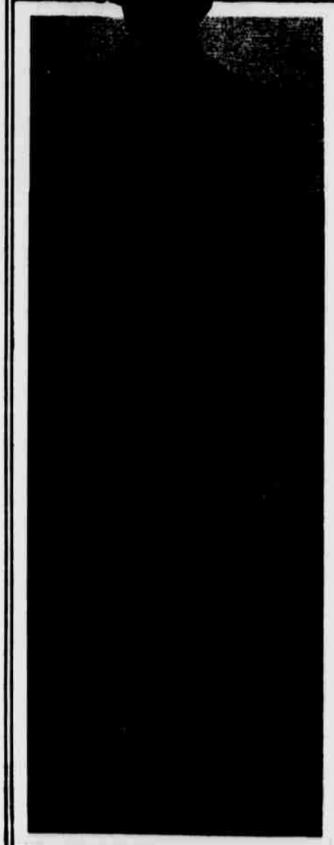

Last honors for Von Richthofen, the German ace. Australians firing a volley over his grave in northern France.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Far from the whirl of war, these Government wards lead a peaceful life on the Navajo reservation in the De Chelly Canon in Arizona.
Copyright, Newman Traveltalks and Brown & Dawson.

Rare photograph of the White House in the De Chelly Canon. The overhanging cliff, 2,000 feet high, protects it from the weather. Below are ruins of other prehistoric dwellings.
Copyright, Newman Traveltalks and Brown & Dawson.

The great-grandson of Andrew Jackson, "Old Hickory," the fighting President, is now a sergeant in the army. He enlisted at Knoxville, Tenn.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

This is not a Remington painting, but a photograph from the mouth of Echo Rock Cave in the De Chelly Canon reservation, Arizona.
Copyright, Newman Traveltalks and Brown & Dawson.

Count Plunkett, M. P. Sinn Feiner, arrested in the recent Irish revolt plot. He, his wife and three sons were involved in the Case ment uprising and one son was executed.