

MRS. VANDERBILT IS BRIDE OF R. T. BAKER

Ceremony Conducted in Holmwood Home at Lenox, Mass.

Bridgroom's Gift Is Liberty Bonds—Couple Go to Adirondacks Lodge.

Special Despatch to The Sun.

Lenox, Mass., June 12.—Mrs. Alfred Guyon Vanderbilt was married to Raymond T. Baker, Director of the United States Mint, in the Holmwood home of the bride along Laurel Lake this afternoon.

Showers which fell most of the day caused Mrs. Vanderbilt to change her plans for the ceremony to be performed on the Holmwood lawn, and in the forenoon it was decided to conduct the ceremony in the large reception room of the house.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's gardeners sent to the cottage quantities of pink and white peonies and syringas, and Mrs. Vanderbilt personally assisted in their arrangement.

There was a bank of the pink and white peonies before the mantel and fireplace in the old Colonial reception room, an apartment done in dull white.

The effect of the simple setting was very beautiful and in keeping with Mrs. Vanderbilt's plan that everything about her wedding should be simple and unostentatious.

The bank of flowers, backed on either side by tall palms, was the setting for the ceremony, which took place at 4:45 o'clock.

Holmwood is a charming new residence which Mrs. Vanderbilt had occupied only two weeks before her wedding. It was rebuilt of a comfortable but undistinguished old fashioned Berkshire home and is on the site of the residence which she occupied with Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse, whose property Mrs. Vanderbilt bought after the house had been dismantled.

The ceremony took place in the east of the house and looks out across Laurel Lake over a sweep of lawn, lake and meadows, the residence forming a background.

Mrs. Vanderbilt called "The most beautiful spot in the world."

Attended by Mrs. R. C. Vanderbilt.

An orchestra played while the guests were arriving. The wedding procession formed up stairs and entered the reception room with Mrs. Vanderbilt walking with her father, Capt. Isaac E. Emery, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's sons, Alfred G. who is 8 years of age, and George W. who is 4, and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, who was the bridesmaid.

Mrs. Baker, with his best man, United States Senator Kay Pittman, met the party as they came before the floral setting.

Mrs. Vanderbilt wore a plain flesh colored chiffon gown with soft clinging lines that accentuated her slender figure. It was made of silk and was trimmed to advantage with a string of marvellous white pearls of graduated sizes.

The gown was smartly trimmed with rare Venetian lace and was quite long, falling well toward the top of her white satin slippers. Her hat, which set off her pale face, was of delicate pink straw, faced with Georgette of the same shade of velvet roses around the crown. Her bouquet of mauve orchids was arranged with maidenhair ferns and was
