

LAMBS GAMBOL HAS GALAXY OF STARS

1918 Show, Produced at Hudson, Is Best Given in Many Years.

MANY POINTS OF MERIT

Actors Fortunately Do Not Try to Be Serious—Aid for Relief Work.

Pretty good troupe of show folks at the town hall last night—Frederick Wards, De Wolf Hopper, Doyle and Dixon, Andrew Mack, Scott Welch, John Daily Murphy, Willis Collier, Ernest Trux, Clarence Handyside, Alfred Kappeler, Sam B. Hardy, Thomas W. Ross, Donald Brian, John P. Hassard, Justy Ansel, Harry Fisher, W. H. Burnald, Ed. Prossy, Taylor, Holmes, Robert Ober, Joseph Kilgour, Lyster Chambers, John Sainpola.

Reigning Audience.

In passing the fact should not be overlooked that the occasion was the first performance of the 1918 edition of the Lamba Gambol, which was produced for the first time before a reproving audience at the Hudson Theatre last night and will be given all over again this afternoon, to-night, to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow night.

Thunders of Applause.

Last night some one seemed to have been merely "letting the riot loose." And with a crash and a bang the gambol started a happy sprint that ran from shortly after midnight until to-day was beginning, with nothing to interrupt it but thunders of applause and people laughter.

DIED.

BAKER—Suddenly, at Briar Cliff Lodge on June 11, 1918, Cyrus Baker, aged 69 years, beloved husband of Millie L. Baker. Funeral services on Monday, June 17, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of his brother, C. W. Baker, 244 Roosevelt avenue, Newark, N. J.

ment staggered souls held both General Amusement Director Burnside of the Gambol. But Mr. Burnside argued that inasmuch as the German drive had been checked at Hithercock and Lenox, he was hurrying out of one make-up in the Globe Theatre in order to jump over the top at the Hudson Theatre.

All of which was done. High Private Berlin didn't get his name on the program until the very end of the show. He and the War Department had to wait to see how the war was going before releasing High Private Irving Berlin from duty, even long enough to stop a show that proceeded to the end of the afternoon, all being well on the western front and along the Potomac. Gen. Bell called High Private Berlin to headquarters.

They beat it up to the big town. Stay long enough to act the darn fool on the stage to-night, twice on Saturday and twice on Sunday, and on Sunday night you can have a long, long rest and you can be at Upton again in time to hit the parade ground at 5 A. M.

Hopper Announces Him. Wherefore the soft voice of De Wolf Hopper, a black face captain in the "Mess Hall of the 1144th Regiment—Evening" for the nonce, turned to an audience so big that it couldn't find room for the speaker, and he was announced in real Thatcher, Primrose and West fashion, "Ladies and Gentlemen, Private Irving Berlin."

It was in the course of "The Darktown Regiment" which was arranged and staged by Dick Burnside, the Hippodrome's wild director, that High Private Berlin, in the capture of the German, announced in real Thatcher, Primrose and West fashion, "Ladies and Gentlemen, Private Irving Berlin."
