CORN TASSEL HANGS UP A TRACK RECORD

Travels One Mile and a Sixteenth in Bayview Handicap in 1:44 1-5.

Racing shifted to the Aqueduct track yesterday afternoon and the six events furnished some of the best sport of the season.

The feature of the programme was the Bayview Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward at one mile and a sixteenth.

George Smith's "Boop" was compelled to hang up a new track record. He stepped over the course in 1:44 1-5, clipping one-fifth of a second from the old mark hung up on July 5 by Jack Hare, Jr.

Half a dozen high class horses made up the field. Tippley Withers was added to the field at the last minute and edged George Smith.

James Butler's Spur was the first to show in front. He was followed closely by Tippley Withers, who was in the lead when the race was over.

BULL McCLEARY JOINS ARMY.

Penn State Coach Will Not Assist Headed This Season.

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 16.—Pennsylvania State has lost Bull McCleary, the backfield coach, to the football eleven.

McCleary has joined Hugo Bezdek this season. Bull has assisted the army and will not be available.

McCleary was Penn State's team in 1909 and played full back for three years. During the seasons of 1910 and 1911 he was an assistant coach here.

McCleary was outside coach while being brought in to succeed McCleary. Bezdek has agreed to handle the entire squad, with the occasional help of Coach Clark at former Penn State head back, who coached the wrestlers of the intercollegiate championship last winter.

Yerger is on the faculty staff.

WOMEN BEGIN PLAY FOR TENNIS TITLE

Mrs. Mills and Miss Pollak Reach Third Round in State Championship.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

The New York State championship women's singles tennis tournament got under way yesterday on the old courts of the West Side Club, at 23rd street and Broadway, and the first day's play brought out some splendid tennis.

Mrs. David C. Mills and Miss Helene Pollak emerged from the fray with lead honors. Both scored exciting victories in the second round, edging smoothly through their first round matches.

The tournament, which is being held as women's tournament for the first time, brought together a well balanced field of thirty-two players, including most of the leading racket wielders of the Empire State.

While all the matches yesterday were interesting, most of them were one-sided. One of the fourteen matches played yesterday was between Miss Mills and Miss Pollak.

Miss Mills defeated Miss Pollak in three sets, 6-2, 6-2, and 6-2. The match was a real contest, with both players showing excellent tennis.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

By DANIEL.

THAT Aqueduct is the most popular race track in this vicinity was demonstrated yesterday when the Queens County Racing Association began its fall meeting.

Although Monday is usually an off day, one of the largest crowds of the season turned out to see the sport. And they saw six good contests. There was no foul riding or "running out" and in all but one race the best horse won.

The long homestretch tends to help the best horse, and with one exception it was the best horse which sped home the victor. The exception was in the first race, when Clifford A. Cochran's Fairy Wand was beaten.

It is an ill temperance, and fearing she would kick some of her opponents Mrs. Cassidy placed her on the outside of the field instead of starting her from No. 6, the position she drew. This move proved too much of a handicap for her, and despite the fact that she ran an excellent race the best she could do was finish fourth.

For not giving the mare her right position the starter was severely criticized. Placing Fairy Wand was the public favorite, and in the opinion of racegoers she should have been given the right place, or at least been allowed to remain at No. 6 until she became unruly. Instead she was taken to the outside as soon as she reached the post and while there she was held by the head by an assistant starter.

The only other incident to mar the sport was a wrong placing by the judges. In the fifth race they placed Edward Arlington's St. Isidore third when he finished seventh. When St. Isidore's number was posted a crowd gathered around the stand and demanded a change. The judges then took down St. Isidore's number and placed Piedra third, where he belonged. It was the third time within the last month that the judges have erred in their placing.

Such mistakes cause racegoers to lose faith in the officials. If the fact of placing the right horses is too much for the present officials the Jockey Club should put more men in the stand. The racing public wants proper decisions, and if they don't get them the sport will suffer.

To Play Football at Williams.

All doubt about football being played at Williams College this year was banished yesterday when Capt. Canaday, the new commandant, announced that the sport would continue at the college despite the military drills.

As soon as the students have been formed into military units they will be advised to go to football with the former years. The schedule will be cut in so far as far away games are concerned, but almost all of last season's teams will be played. As in former years, the big game will be with Amherst.

Glants and Yanks Await Series Money.

The Glants and Yankees are wondering when they are to receive their series money. According to the rules the Glants and Cleveland Indians are entitled to something in the neighborhood of $500, or almost as much as the losing club. The Red Sox and Cubs received their alices, but the other two teams have not yet been paid.

One Glant with a sense of humor said: "I can sympathize with poor Fred Merkle. Think of him getting only $500 for losing his year when two years ago he got $2,800 for losing with Brooklyn. And look what he used to get for losing with Y. He must conclude his share is outrageously small this year."

FOR TWO OLD BOYS EARN GOLF PRIZES

Thomas E. Kirby Wins Leg on Boston Cup and Is Only Double Victor.

The official list of prize winners in the Senior's Golf Association tournament at Apawamis last week were announced yesterday. It shows forty-two separate winners in the tournament proper. This does not include the event for the Boston trophy open to Apawamis members only.

The Boston trophy, by the way, is a valuable cup presented several years ago by the Massachusetts section to the Apawamis Club in appreciation for the many courtesies extended by the five organizations. Conditions stipulated that it would have to be won three times before becoming permanent property of any one senior, but the winner each year in addition to getting his name on the main trophy receives a replica for his own.

This time Thomas E. Kirby won the special prize with a card of 214-60, 152. He had a 67 in the first round, and a net prize in Class D, consequently he is the only veteran to win double spoils.

As has been known all along, the new tournament winner or champion, as W. E. Truesdell, the Garden City man, who won eight honors a year ago. His total of 178 for thirty-six holes was only a hair better than the effort of Edward Haase of Philadelphia during the last two days of the tournament. The complete list is as follows:

A. U. WILL NOT BAR UNCLE SAM'S BOYS

Local Members Vote Down Motion to Keep Service Men From Contests.

By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD.

When an attempt was made to bring petty politics to the detriment of Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors at the annual meeting of the Metropolitan Association of the A. U. last night it met with a merited rebuke. Walter Powe, delegate from the Alpha P. C. C., made a motion asking that the soldiers and sailors be debarred from point competition in the A. U. games on the grounds that the strong teams possessed by Pelham Bay, M. T. S. and other nearby cantonments made it next to impossible for the smaller clubs, to capture any point trophy.

Secretary-Treasurer Herman Oberbuehling had made a speech in favor of Powe's motion Judge Jeremiah T. Mahoney, the New York A. C. delegate, stepped to his feet and with ringing words voiced the sentiment of the majority of the delegates by declaring that Uncle Sam's soldiers and sailors were to be barred from the A. U. games, or their affiliations. Mahoney said too much could not be given the boys in khaki and navy blue and the A. U. should be glad to have them.

Mahoney was a good barometer to the vote that followed against the motion. Frederick W. Ruben of the St. George's Athletic Club, who was elected president, and all of the other regular nominations went through. The only fight was over the secretary-treasurer, in which the A. U. members elected Young Men's Athletic Club, St. Anselm's A. C., and Charles Elbert of the Anchor A. C. McInerney was elected by a vote of 33 to 13. The other nominees were:

Western Teams to Have Only One Hour a Day for Sport.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Football practice officially opened to-day in the "big ten" colleges, but at a number of institutions in the conference it was said there was not enough material to form a nucleus of a team. Coaches expressed the hope, however, that at the end of two weeks, when most of the schools will have completed their season, a nucleus of a team may be made toward building up a team.

At the opening of school all discipline passes out of the hands of the athletic officials and goes under military control. Athletic officials will have an hour of football practice will be allowed daily and assert that that will be sufficient to maintain interest in the sport.
