

Daring raid by American Marines on Belleau Wood, near Chateau Thierry, inspires a French artist. In this early morning attack many Germans were taken prisoner and several guns were captured.
From a drawing by Georges Scott of L'Illustration of Paris.

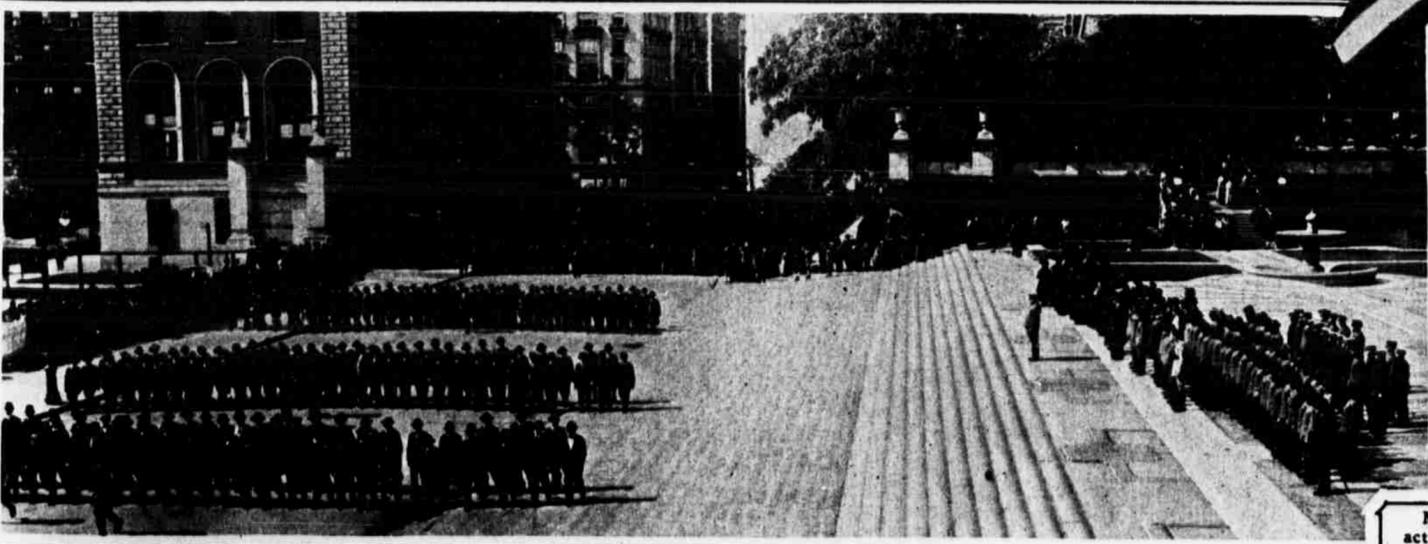

Above—A British bombing machine about to start out on a night raid. Photograph taken by means of a searchlight.
British Official; Copyright by Western Newspaper Union.

At Right—President Wilson being blindfolded preparatory to drawing the first number of the new draft lottery. When the capsule he picked out was opened by Gen. Crowder it proved to contain number 322.
Copyright, International Film.

Mrs. Enrico Caruso is herself taking an active part in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive, and in addition she has pressed her pet dog into the service.
Copyright, International Film.

The 3,000 students of the Columbia University unit of the Students Army Training Camp passing in review on 116th street after having taken the oath of allegiance, which was administered by Col. John P. Finley, U. S. A., commandant of the unit.
Copyright, International Film.