BERLIN SCATTERED $27,850,000 IN U. S.

Mr. Hearst's man who brought him over here. The ostensible purpose of Bolo Pasha in coming to this country, it was explained by Mr. Bielaski, was to secure a supply of print paper, but Bolo's real idea was to collect funds here with which to take over an important newspaper in Paris.

Branch offices of the Lebeau bureau were established in Chicago, Cincinnati, Bridgeport, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities, and persons were enrolled under the bureau in a military as well as an industrial way. The surveillance over all manufacturing plants through militant sentiments and German persuasion, and he further said that through the Von Igel head of the bureau, while posing as a philanthropist, was really getting $75 a week for his work as an organizer of trouble.

Branch offices of the Lebeau bureau were established in Chicago, Cincinnati, Bridgeport, Detroit, Cleveland and other cities, and persons were enrolled under the bureau in a military as well as an industrial way.

At this Senator Sterling wanted to know if Otto had ever been apprehended and punished, but Mr. Bielaski said all his bureau was able to do was to keep close watch on the man, but as he was an American citizen they could do nothing.

Senator Nelson asked whether Capt. Franz von Rintelen had any connection with the financing of Victoriano Huerta, the late Mexican dictator. "We have evidence which helped to finance Huerta, but it cannot be proved," he said.

Bielaski read to the committee at length from the diary of Dr. Karl F. Fuehr, the German agent, whose activities figured prominently in the investigation. The notes of Fuehr said on the day following the publication of private letters of H. F. Albert, N. Y., and later discussed the incident with Samuel Untermyer.

Efforts of the Germans to create pro-German feeling among the negroes of the South proved entirely unsuccessful, Bielaski stated. Stories were circulated there to the effect that the negroes were descendants of the Indians and that they were the rightful owners of the land instead of the white people.

With the exception of the pending decision of the investigation as to making public the Hearst telegrams Mr. Bielaski to-night completed his testimony.

He will appear to-morrow in connection with the Palm Beach communications if the committee decides to show them. An exhaustive report from Von Bethmann-Hollweg, Chancellor of the German Empire, to Ambassador Bern-portation of arms, general peace movements, strikes in munition plants and other effective or supposedly effective means of crippling the Allies. The Hans Lebeau Relief Bureau was organized in New York with German money. Mr. Bielaski said, to take care of workmen who left their jobs in munition plants through militant sentiments and German persuasion, and he further said that through the Von Igel head of the bureau, while posing as a philanthropist, was really getting $75 a week for his work as an organizer of trouble.

More German Checks. But this was purely "camouflage," it was explained by the witness, who said that under a later date another letter was found with a cashier's check for the $495, which was sent to Dr. Heinrich Albert.

The reference to labor agitation in the Ridder letter, it was shown, included numerous movements, among them the attempt to force Congress into enacting an embargo on the ex-

stiff was read in part into the Record. It concerned the policy to be followed by German firms in this country in regard to accepting orders from the Allies. The Chancellor took the position that it would be better for the firm to accept contracts and then by various forms of delay tie up the work.

The connections between the German Government and the leaders of the I. W. W. was also established, according to Mr. Bielaski, by a letter to Capt. von Popen in which it was explained how the "reds" were agitating a strike among the metal workers.

DR. MAGNES'S STATEMENT. No Mystery About Relief Work Abroad, He Says. Dr. J. L. Magnes issued the following statement yesterday:

"Denity Attorney-General Becker tells to-day of mysterious intercepted messages between Ambassador Bernstorff and Foreign Secretary von Jagow, showing that I had acted in cooperation with German officials when I was sent in 1916 by the Jewish Relief Committees of America to survey the conditions of the Jews in Poland and other territories occupied by the Germans."

"Why mention mysterious intercepted messages? Of course I cooperated with the German officials of those regions. So did representatives of other American relief agencies, among them the Rockefeller Relief Commission. The German officials were the only officials in control of the country, just as they were in Belgium, where the Belgian Relief Commission cooperated with officials of Germany."

"Belief work in a country at war is impossible without cooperation with officials there. Moreover, I was aided and encouraged to cooperate with the German officials by Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, by the United States Consul at Warsaw, and the State Department at Washington, who was fully in touch with all the details of my activities in Poland, Lithuania and Galicia."

"In addition to this I have delivered public speeches and have printed a lengthy report on the trip and my findings. Why does Mr. Becker speak mysteriously of intercepted messages, &c.?"

Chinese Murderer Pardoned. HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 9.—Charlie Gong, who killed a fellow countryman in a quarrel, was pardoned to-day after serving twenty-seven years on a life sentence.

BOGUS VICTORIA CROSS HERO SEIZED Carved Decoration Out of Old High Jump Medal.

It was the Victoria Cross he used to wear that got Albert Nygaard into trouble. Everything else about his British officer's service uniform was impeccable and his acting was so good that his stories of hairbreadth escapes and war's alarms used to get over as well as Othello's—even among soldiers.

The cross looked all right, too. But a British officer who met Nygaard recalled that the Victoria Cross is never, never worn with a service uniform.

So they took him in charge yesterday—"they" being Ensign J. D. Sullivan, U. S. N.; Lieut.-Col. M. Thwait, British Provost Marshal in New York; Lieut. C. R. D. Brooks, his aid, and Thomas A. McGrath of Mr. Swann's staff—and when they had done with their questions, Nygaard had admitted that his "V. C." was a high jump trophy, remodelled and received with considerable skill.

And it wasn't Nygaard who did the jumping. He got the trophy from another man, for a price. He had a list of 200 American and allied officers. They don't know what his game was—he says he is a Dane who served in the Belgian army, admits serving sixty days in Brooklyn for posting an American Ensign—but he is in the Tombs for the present.

RIDDER MAKES NO COMMENT. Silent on Alleged Sending of Von Popen Letter. Bernhard H. Ridder, editor of the Staats-Zeitung, whose name was introduced into the inquiry in connection with a letter he is alleged to have written to Capt. von Popen regarding 494 expended in propaganda refused last night to comment.

Wanamaker's These $60 Luxurious Overcoats $43.50

The comparison is accurate. We have overcoats in our regular stock at $60 in which the fabric is no better in quality than these fine "Hockinum" fabrics. Add to this fact the heavy all-silk lining and you have as fine a coat as any man could want.

In Addition—We Have Reduced $47.50 to $65 Suits to $43.50

Every fabric, of course, is an all-wool cheviot or worsted; and the patterns are the kinds a well-dressed man prefers to wear—neat little stripes, small checks, and the almost invisible patterns that have just a touch of color to give them individuality. Every lining, every button, every coat facing, and every collar bears testimony to the care and precision of Wanamaker clothing standards. Burlington Arcade floor, New Building.

ONEIDA—The name of a great truck

Not a new truck—not just another truck—but a "great" truck in the sense that it combines high ideals with sound engineering practice—time-tried fundamentals with new features not found on other trucks.

Will your heirs conserve what you leave them?

TWO young men were each left a large amount of money by a relative whose estate we settled, and without using even a dollar of the principal, they immediately made trust agreements with us, under which we hold the principal and pay them the income. The result is that the principal is intact.

In contrast is the action of a young man and woman, who were each given $150,000 under their father's will. Within two years the son had entirely dissipated his share. Since he had not been educated to support himself, he is now dependent on relatives and is exceedingly unhappy. Much of his sister's money has also melted away and the remainder is being used and controlled by her husband.

As trustee under will or trust agreement, this Company will safeguard the interests of your heirs. Our officers at either the Uptown or Downtown office will be glad to talk with you about this matter.
