

A patrol of Czecho-Slovak soldiers arriving at Kazan, Siberia, during the course of a fluctuating engagement with the Bolsheviki. The town has changed hands several times in the last few months.

Photo International Film.

Spreading the propaganda of Bolshevism. Leninist officers are shown here at Irkutsk on a tour throughout Russia and Siberia preaching their doctrines. Scores of such missions have been sent out by the controlling regime.

Photo International Film.

Premier Georges Clemenceau taking his first walk after he was shot. He is seen here waiting for his automobile. The soldier is one of his guards, on the alert against a second attempt on the aged statesman's life.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

The sign on the door tells what the place is. At the left is Mrs. George W. Reinecke, executive secretary; standing is Miss Flora Payne Whitney, volunteer secretary to the chairman, and at the right is Mrs. Medill McCormick, wife of the Senator from Illinois, chairman of the committee. The organization is very active and the sponsors are confident of its success.

Copyright Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.

Mrs. Emil A. M. Taufflieb, wife of a French General here recently on an official mission, was formerly Mrs. Trenor L. Park of New York. She wears decorations of France for activities in Red Cross and war relief work. Photo Campbell Studio.

Women are continually going into pastures new these days. Out in Southern California some of them have even become prospectors. This businesslike looking outfit is on its way to the gold fields.

Photo by Central News.