

Eastern Racing Season Goes Into Full Swing With Record Attendance at Havre de Grace Inaugural

BILLY KELLY WINS HARFORD HANDICAP

Juvenile Champion of 1918 Beats Small But Select Field at Havre de Grace.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. HAVRE DE GRACE, April 16.—Billy Kelly, the three-year-old son of Dick Welles and Gena, which won the juvenile championship last year, came out of winter quarters in good shape and with the Harford Handicap, the opening stake at the Havre de Grace track.

It was a wonderful performance by the little track star, and around the crowd which filled the grandstand and corner of the little track to a high pitch of enthusiasm. So cleverly did he accomplish his feat that veteran horsemen proclaimed him a winner.

At the end of the race a half-furlong jockey Billy Kelly was fighting for his head, a length and a half in front of William C. Clancy's Pickwick, which took the second place. The purses for four lengths from Charley Leysacker, Dr. Johnson, the four-year-old belonging to Mrs. Walter M. Jefferson, of Philadelphia, and the three-year-old Jack Hare, Jr., the brown colt which was a keen contender for three-year-old laurels last year, brought up the rear.

Billy Kelly was owned by the late commander J. K. Ross, the Canadian sportsman, who bought him from W. Poolson last summer for $30,000.

Entered for the stake were twenty of the highest class thoroughbreds in the country, but the rain and heavy track made the blue point to work, and at post time only a quintette was left to do battle. Because of his phenomenal record of last year and the fact that he had been running in the Harford Handicap, Billy Kelly had an army of followers, and they watched on him until the $2 pari-mutuel machines paid out $2.40 against his chances. All the contestants were well played, but Billy Kelly was a strong favorite.

The quality on the card attracted large crowds from all over the country. New York turfmen were here in droves and Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Hot Springs and all parts of Kentucky were well represented. It resembled a holiday gathering on one of the Metropolitan tracks.

With the crowd came a heavy rain storm and when the bugle called the field to the barrier for the Harford it was almost as dark as night and the wind was howling in the ears of the spectators.

The starter went to the barrier a minute. As the webbing went up Billy Kelly sprang to the front, but once in motion he was overtaken by the other horses and allowed Dr. Johnson to set the pace. In the second place the little champion raced along at the heels of Mrs. Jefferson's colt until the field stretched out for home. Then Sanda gave him his head and without touch of whip or heel Billy Kelly bounded to the front and won by a length and a half as he did against the star two-year-olds last year.

Pickwick moved up fast in the run but was overtaken and had little or no duty taking second honors. The time of the race was 1:08 2-5.

Peter Combs Gallops. The Glen Riddle Farms, which is owned by Samuel Riddle, the noted sportsman of Philadelphia, uncovered a new leading colt in the Harford Handicap. He is Peter Combs, bred by Peter Quince and Oliver, Louis Feustel, trainer for Mr. Riddle, sent Peter Combs to the Harford track to race against the other high class juveniles belonging to Mr. Riddle ready for the races and he is confident they will earn brackets before the end of the Pimlico meeting. The results:

First Race—Half mile; purse $12,400. Two-year-olds. Won by Peter Combs, 1:08 2-5. Second place, $4,000; third, $2,000; fourth, $1,000. Time, 1:08 2-5. Second Race—Five furlongs; purse $12,400. Three-year-olds and upward. Won by Billy Kelly, 1:08 2-5. Second place, $4,000; third, $2,000; fourth, $1,000. Time, 1:08 2-5. Third Race—Five and a half furlongs; purse $12,400. Three-year-olds and upward. Won by Billy Kelly, 1:08 2-5. Second place, $4,000; third, $2,000; fourth, $1,000. Time, 1:08 2-5. Fourth Race—Five and a half furlongs; purse $12,400. Three-year-olds and upward. Won by Billy Kelly, 1:08 2-5. Second place, $4,000; third, $2,000; fourth, $1,000. Time, 1:08 2-5.

HAVRE DE GRACE ENTRIES. First Race—Two-year-olds; selling; four furlongs; 100 yards; 1:00. Second Race—Three-year-olds and upward; selling; four furlongs; 100 yards; 1:00. Third Race—Three-year-olds and upward; selling; four furlongs; 100 yards; 1:00. Fourth Race—Three-year-olds and upward; selling; four furlongs; 100 yards; 1:00.

Organized Baseball Asks for New Trial

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Counsel for organized baseball today filed a motion in the District of Columbia Supreme Court requesting a new trial of the Baltimore Federal League Club's suit for $100,000 damages under the Sherman anti-trust law. Hearing of the motion was set for April 25. A jury recently awarded the Baltimore club $100,000 damages, which the court judgment would be tripled, as the suit is under the anti-trust law.

BASEBALL HEARING HEED BY GOVERNOR

Secretary of Mayor's Conference Favors Bill Legalizing Sunday Games.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. ALBANY, N. Y., April 16.—Gov. Smith to-night refused to indicate whether he would sign or veto the Sunday movie bill which has been introduced in the Albany Legislature. The bill would legalize the showing of motion pictures on Sunday.

The reception room of the executive chamber was crowded with advocates and opponents of the bill, many of whom had been at committee hearings and practically the same arguments were repeated.

Dr. Joseph A. Dunne, head of the parochial schools in the Catholic diocese of Albany, Dr. James J. Burrell, pastor of the Collegiate Church, New York City and head of the Lord's Day Alliance, Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Y. W. C. A., Dr. E. Barolin, of the New York State Methodist Conference, and Dr. H. L. Bowley, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke against approval of the movie and baseball bill.

Their arguments were that the measure would commercialize the Sabbath, raise taxes from all over the country. New York turfmen were here in droves and Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Hot Springs and all parts of Kentucky were well represented.

Dr. Joseph A. Dunne, head of the parochial schools in the Catholic diocese of Albany, Dr. James J. Burrell, pastor of the Collegiate Church, New York City and head of the Lord's Day Alliance, Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Y. W. C. A., Dr. E. Barolin, of the New York State Methodist Conference, and Dr. H. L. Bowley, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke against approval of the movie and baseball bill.

Dr. Joseph A. Dunne, head of the parochial schools in the Catholic diocese of Albany, Dr. James J. Burrell, pastor of the Collegiate Church, New York City and head of the Lord's Day Alliance, Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Y. W. C. A., Dr. E. Barolin, of the New York State Methodist Conference, and Dr. H. L. Bowley, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke against approval of the movie and baseball bill.

Dr. Joseph A. Dunne, head of the parochial schools in the Catholic diocese of Albany, Dr. James J. Burrell, pastor of the Collegiate Church, New York City and head of the Lord's Day Alliance, Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the Y. W. C. A., Dr. E. Barolin, of the New York State Methodist Conference, and Dr. H. L. Bowley, secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke against approval of the movie and baseball bill.

ST. LOUIS TITERS IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Doak, Ames, Sherdel, Horstman and Meadows Hurt. Special Dispatch to The Sun. ST. LOUIS, April 16.—The possibility of a St. Louis titling race in the spring season was dashed today when five of the team's pitchers, Oscar Horstman, Leon Ames, Oscar Sherdel, Oscar Meadows and Oscar Meadows, were injured in an automobile accident. The injured players were coming over to Cardinal Field from the Hamilton Hotel in a machine driven by Leo Meadows. The machine skidded and rolled with a street car. The players were thrown out of the machine and it was totally wrecked. All were out of action for several days.

Horstman was severely cut about the head—three well defined gashes, one over his left eye extending backward to the ear. There is some danger within the cut, and it will necessitate probing to remove it. Doak lost consciousness immediately after the crash, but Manager Rickard said he believed that Doak was the least injured of the lot. The spitball pitcher was not revived until a half hour after the accident, and is now suffering mostly from the shock. Sherdel and Meadows were badly shaken up and received a few cuts.

EMERALDS BACK IN FIELD. Strengthened by the addition of three new players the Emeralds will tackle the New London club and the Philadelphia Giants in a double header at Van Nest Oval in the second game Sunday afternoon. The Emeralds will play the Philadelphia team in the opening game and will give a concert and Bill Klem will umpire. The Emeralds are one of the oldest semi-professional clubs in the East, and are coming back after a layoff of several years. They bid fair to regain their old prestige.

WHITE IN CUE FINALS. Charles E. White qualified last night for the final of the Poggensburg Cup tourney at National Recreation, Brook Park, N. Y. White defeated Sidney Russell by 250 to 50. The score:

YANKEES INCREASE LEAD OVER DODGERS

Outscore Brooklyn Team 5 to 1 in Game That Lasts Only 55 Minutes.

Standing of the Teams. New York (A.), 10; Brooklyn (N.), 3. Total Total Wins, Losses, Errors. New York (A.), 3; Brooklyn (N.), 2.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. GOLDENROD, N. C., April 16.—The Dodgers' last hope of annexing the spring series with the Yankees vanished here this afternoon. For the fourth successive time the tribe of Miller Huggins took Uncle Robbie's aggregation into clubs and something which the fans of the Yankees string up to seven victories in ten games, with only three more to be played. The score was 5 to 1.

Goldrods gave the touring ball players a big game in the morning. The town turned out to pay tribute to the soldiers and sailors of this community and the Dodgers did not play. The Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Trotters and pacers tore up the heavy turf of the half mile track inside of the grandstand, and the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

The townfolk looking at the first game ever played here by major league clubs at Goldenrod were not disappointed. The Dodgers were the home team today, and at the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

Three of New York's six hits were bunched in the fourth inning. For two runs in the fourth inning, the Yankees' victory was everywhere when the ball tossers arrived. The ball game and a trotting meet up after the afternoon programme and a business house closed up for the holiday.

HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT

WITH Billy Kelly and other stars running at Havre de Grace and the attendance figures hitting new high marks the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

However, we are inclined to side with Commander J. K. L. Row, who paid $30,000 for Billy Kelly at Saratoga last year, in the belief that the gelding is one of the horses of a year—a stayer for work, a stayer, strong and always willing to take a sulks and a weight carrier. We think that Billy Kelly is another Roamer and will go on to bigger things after he wins the laurels this season. Billy Kelly is one of those animals which races with a minimum of effort and expends little nerve force, for he dispenses with the skittishness and prancing habitual with other horses. He is ever colder and calmer than Campfire and Kommer.

It is a pity that the racing season in the East may be said to be in full swing. Billy Kelly, recognized champion among the two-year-olds last season, yesterday began his campaign for the leadership of the three-year-olds, and unless we are greatly mistaken about the class of the little son of Dick Welles he will attain that position. We believe Billy Kelly has it in him to become the champion among the three-year-olds in spite of the fact that various experts declare that the gelding was raced too much last year. They also declare that Billy Kelly's early racing start this season also will militate against his success in the big championship stakes in the summer.

WALKER BOXING BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Provides for Control by Army, Navy, Civilian Board—Vote, 30 to 19.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. WASHINGTON, April 16.—Following a short discussion, in which Senator James J. Walker explained the provisions of the bill incorporating the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

The bill provides for the establishment of a commission to be known as the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, the Senate by a vote of 30 to 19 to-night passed the Walker boxing bill. This is the second measure which the upper house has approved, previously having taken favorable action on the Gibbs bill.

Ban on Annapolis Oarsmen Is Lifted

Special Dispatch to The Sun. ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 16.—Happiness has taken the place of sadness at Naval Academy, the authorities having consented to hold in abeyance the ban against three members of the first crew and two of the fourth class rowing against Princeton and Harvard here on Saturday. The ban has been lifted.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

GOLF SURPRISES AT PINEHURST LINKS

Seggerman Loses to Watson and Morrison Beats Newtown in Match Play.

Special Dispatch to The Sun. PINEHURST, N. C., April 16.—The first match round of the mid-April golf tournament played on the championship course at Pinehurst to-day was featured by some very close play and by two decided surprises. The first was the defeat of H. D. Seggerman of Watlington by the hands of C. F. Watson, who was played by S. C. Morrison.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within the safety zone.

The incident has been taken as a warning to all mid-men who are not allowed to row on account of defunct scholastic work, but a careful scrutiny of their work for the whole term indicated that they were within