

BACON FAMILY GETS MANY CONDOLENCES

Bishop Brent Will Conduct Services at Funeral of the Colonel Monday.

WAS CHAPLAIN OF A. E. F. Former Diplomat's Valuable Aid to Gen. Pershing Is Recalled.

The funeral of Col. Robert Bacon, who died of blood poisoning Thursday night at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, as related in late editions of THE SUN yesterday, will be conducted by Bishop Brent, senior chaplain of the American Expeditionary Forces and a long friend of Mr. Bacon, at 10 o'clock on Monday in Grace Church, Broadway and Tenth street.

Hundreds of messages of condolence were received yesterday at the Bacon residence, No. 1 Park avenue. Friends of Col. Bacon had made as Secretary of State, Ambassador to France, as liaison officer on Gen. Pershing's staff, as a member of J. P. Morgan & Co., in public and private life, wrote and telegraphed their sympathy to Mrs. Bacon.

Messages of condolence were received from Mr. and Mrs. George W. Perkins, Major-Gen. and Mrs. Hugh L. Scott, Senator Lodge, Gaston Liebert, Dr. John H. Finley, Gilbert S. Murray, Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Charles E. Hughes, from members of the Roosevelt family and from the French Embassy in Washington.

The honorary pall bearers for the funeral are to be: Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Arthur H. Hays Sulzberger, Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University.

Robert Perkins, president of the Harvard Club of New York, Francis R. Appleton, former President of the Harvard Club of New York, Herbert C. Morgan, Charles E. Smith, Henry P. Davison, Richard Trimble, treasurer United States Steel Corporation.

Dr. Henry Jackson, president Somerset Club, Messrs. Trimble, Jackson and Hooper were members of the 1890 class at Harvard.

It had not been known here generally that Col. Bacon was perhaps the most valuable member of Pershing's staff back in the stormy days of 1917 when the American Expeditionary Force was in the making. Col. Bacon's wide acquaintance with the general staff and his knowledge of the zone which had been assigned to the American troops made him invaluable as a liaison officer between the French and American general staffs.

It was Col. Bacon who suggested Chaumont as a suitable place for American General Headquarters and from the time when the French and American States were established on French soil in June, 1917, until the armistice was signed, Chaumont was the American G. O. Col. Bacon was commissioned in the Quartermaster's Department after having been refused a line officer's commission on account of his being immediately transferred to the general staff, on which he served, first as command of Gen. Pershing's Headquarters and later as chief of staff from April 5 last, when he returned here suffering from mastoiditis.

JAMES FOWLER WENMAN. James Fowler Wenman, 86, one of the oldest and best known brokers in New York, died Thursday in his home, 73 East Ninety-sixth street. Known to all his friends as "Capt. Jim" Wenman, he had a picturesque career, being especially prominent in the old Volunteer Fire Department and later in the Exempt Firemen's Association. He was born in Fulton, N. Y., in 1833, the son of Uzziah Wenman. His grandfather was a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. From 1856 to 1859 he was assistant engineer of American engine 17 of the Volunteer Fire Department. His grandfather was a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. From 1856 to 1859 he was assistant engineer of American engine 17 of the Volunteer Fire Department.

ROBERT BURWELL FULTON. Dr. Robert Burwell Fulton, 70, prominent in the South for many years as an educator, died Thursday of heart disease at the Hotel Lorraine, Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street. He was born in Sumner county, Ala., April 8, 1848, and was graduated from the University of Mississippi with the first honors of his class in 1869. Three years later the degree of A. M. was awarded him and later the honorary degree of LL. D. was conferred upon him. For thirty-five years he was connected with the University of Mississippi, beginning as an assistant professor of physics and astronomy. In 1875 he became professor and continued as such until 1892, when he was made chancellor. After serving in that capacity for fourteen years Dr. Fulton went to Virginia as superintendent of the Miller School. He was president of the Southern Educational Association in 1899, president of the Department of Higher Education of that organization in 1904, 1904 and 1905, president of the Department of Higher Education of the National Educational Association in 1909, president of the National Association of State Universities from 1898 to 1902, Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and a member of the Royal Society of Arts of England. He was well known as a public speaker and as a writer on educational, scientific and historical subjects. A statement will be in Washington, D. C.

MICHAEL H. CRANE. Michael H. Crane, formerly associated with the old Publishers Press and the United Press and a veteran of the war, died Thursday at his home, 473 Decatur street, Brooklyn, after a long illness. He was 65 years old and leaves a widow and one child, a teacher in a Brooklyn high school.

The funeral will be held to-day in the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel and burial will be in St. John's Cemetery.

A party of prominent writers with members of a number of historical societies will make a pilgrimage to sight seeing buses this afternoon to the birthplace of Walt Whitman, at West Hills, L. I. The occasion is the one hundredth anniversary of his birth.

The party will make the trip under the auspices of the Brooklyn Society of Arts and Sciences, leaving the Flatbush avenue station of the Long Island Railroad at 9:15 A. M.

Delegations of the Poetry Society of America, the American Science and History Association, the Brooklyn Society of Arts and Sciences, the Huntington Historical societies will make the trip.

DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE TO OPEN ART SHOW. War Paintings Will Be on Exhibition Here.

The Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada, will open the exhibition in New York on June 10 of the war paintings contributed for the great Canadian War Memorial.

In addition to pictorial records of the many Canadian activities at the front, there will be portraits of Generals, statesmen, Canadian C. I.'s and paintings of Canadian military history.

Brief addresses will be made by Hamilton Garland, Percy MacKaye, Gerald Stanley Lee and others. Dr. Mabel Irwin of Brooklyn will read a few sentences from Whitman's works, and the party will then move on for an inspection of the schoolhouse at Woodbury, where Whitman taught. Dr. James B. Cooley, school superintendent, will speak there.

H. C. FRICK BUYS DRAWING. It is Portrait of Col. Bolling, Who Was Killed in War.

Henry C. Frick has purchased the portrait of Col. Raynal C. Bolling in the collection of war paintings, drawings and sketches of the United States Army, which John Elliott of distinguished American who sacrificed their lives in the war on exhibition at the Knickerbocker Galleries, 155 Fifth avenue, New York, died in fighting at the front near Amiens, March 27, 1918, having refused to surrender after being surrounded. It was general Frick's intention to present the drawing to that corporation. Mr. Frick has also purchased the fine portrait of Norman Price.

The entire collection was donated by Mr. Elliott to the Permanent Blind Relief Fund for Soldiers and Sailors of the Allies, the drawings and pictures are being sold, together with an album of reproductions of them arranged with biographical sketches by Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney.

Other pictures on sale are those of Quentin Roosevelt, depicted as gazing laughingly backward over his right shoulder and looking the image of his hero, General Pershing, and a portrait of Hooker of Greenwich, Conn., by John Ward, purchased by his father, Judge Henry Galbraith Ward of this city, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCull Elliott of Philadelphia.

The exhibition will remain open for an extra day on Monday, when it will finally close.

NEW RELIEF UNIT FOR SERBIA. Funds and Recruits Needed for Women's Organization.

A second unit of women physicians, dentists, nurses and motor drivers, for relief work in Serbia, is being organized by the Red Cross and the American Women's Hospitals, 437 Madison avenue, under the direction of Dr. Mary M. Crawford. The first unit of twelve which sailed in February has reported an improved situation and good medical nutrition among the returned Serbian soldiers, and a call for immediate aid has been made.

Funds are needed as well as recruits for the second expedition. The cost of motor kitchens, laboratories, dispensaries and operating rooms is $6,000 each, and the first unit cost about $200. The new unit will sail in June and will establish headquarters at Toblitz, about twenty miles from Nish. A. M. will be in charge of the relief service. It will be sent through the surrounding country.

WEDDING TO QUIT AS A RINGMASTER

With 116 Benefits to His Credit, He Challenges World and Retires.

VACATION FOR GILLETTE Will Close His Season Saturday—60 Stars in Hippodrome To-morrow Night.

Having completed a Broadway world's record of 116 appearances at benefit performances last April, 1917, which he feels will stand for years, Ed Wynn of "Some Time," in the Casino Theatre, has decided to retire from the field and give others a chance at this kind of philanthropic propaganda. He was moved to drop out of the running on receiving a letter of thanks from E. F. Albee yesterday for his part as master of ceremonies at the Salvation Army benefit in the Hippodrome, which he counts the climax of his career as a free will performer.

The fact that the Aunt Polly, William Gillette's dreadnought houseboat, has been seen lurking off New York the last few days led to the report that the star would drop Barrie's "Dear Brutus" over the side for the summer at the Empire Theatre. When this was put squarely to Mr. Gillette he acknowledged that he would be in the theatre on Saturday next, June 7, and the Aunt Polly would then take him to the Never Never Land.

SIXTY Stars to Shine. Aside from the fact that the benefit of the National Vaudeville Artists in the Hippodrome to-morrow night will include among its sixty stars such performers as Ed Wynn, Lillian Russell, Frank Tinney, George M. Cohan, Dolly Sisters, Irene Franklin, Carroll and Wheaton, Charles and Mollie King, McCoys Davis and McIntyre and Health, what really makes it an affair of national consequence is that George M. Cohan will appear personally and present a new act, the first time that he has written a vaudeville sketch since he retired from the two a day act some time ago. It may mark a turning point in his career.

Years ago expressed that "Good Morning Judge," which "did so long in the Shubert Theatre and was scheduled to come to a boil through the many Canadian War Memorial.

Interest in THE SUN Tobacco Fund is perennial and blossoms throughout the year whatever the reason. There is, however, a marked renewal of interest whenever the fund approaches what is known customarily as a "top." The fund friends have manifested on these occasions what without too much exaggeration may be called excitement, and in the days when the fund took a gigantic leap of thousands of dollars this feeling was pleasurable and gratifying. It was especially noticeable among the fund family when the announcement was made that it had "topped" $425,000, and they were proud to call attention to the fact that a fund of this kind had ever reached $450,000.
