

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, - JUNE 1, 1919.
Copyright, 1919, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

AT THE BELMONT PARK RACES.

Scene in front of the club house and field stand at the finish of the $5,000 Fashion Stakes, showing Bonnie May flashing under the wire, a winner.

Mrs. J. Allen Townsend on the club house lawn. Belmont Park opened its gates on May 22, and the renewed popularity of racing has been shown by a big attendance each day.

Photos by Sun Staff Photographer.

A thrilling moment in a steeplechase event. Crest Hill was taking the last jump when he stumbled and fell, throwing Jockey Nicklaus over his head. Neither horse nor rider was injured.

Miss Priscilla Taylor and Miss Katherine Knapp were among the members of the younger set who enjoyed the sport from the vantage point of the lawn.

Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden was present and with the rest of the throng took delight in several thrilling finishes.

Robert Hilliard, the actor, and his wife were among the interested spectators. Here Mrs. Hilliard is seen trying to pick a winner and asking her husband's advice about it.

Ex-Lieut. and Mrs. A. Musgrave Hyde also speculating on the possibilities in one of the races.