

RUSH INCREASES TO SEA, MOUNTAIN AND COUNTRY RESORTS

Newport's Crowded Programme Indicates Informal Social Activities Will Predominate--Looks Forward to Entertaining Prince of Wales and Other Notables From Abroad

Newport, R. I., June 14.—MEMBERS of the Newport summer colony continued to come in by almost every boat and train this week, and it can be said that Newport is having the earliest season it has had in a long while.

Besides the constant making ready and opening of the villas and cottages the prominent gathering places of the social set during the summer months have been opening one by one and the last will open for the season to-morrow. This will be the Newport Clam-bake Club, on Easton's Point. Walter S. Andrews, acting for the officers, has been superintending the opening of the clubhouse. The season's first bake will be held on the Fourth of July.

Some entertaining took place this week, and the prediction has been made that while there will be many more affairs this summer than in the last few years the majority will be small ones and more or less of an informal nature. This form of entertaining was adopted at the beginning of the war and seems to have met the popular fancy of the members of the colony.

There will be a few large affairs given principally for the younger set and if the Prince of Wales visits Newport during the summer, probably in August, as the guests of Mrs. Ogden Coelet and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, his presence will surely result in a gay round of entertaining in his honor.

It is said also that there was a possibility of the Duchess of Marlborough and her son visiting Newport during the summer. If they come and if Lady Herbert of England is in Newport at the same time August will be a decidedly busy month.

Lord and Lady Duncan of England, who sailed recently for home, were in Newport a short time ago, though their presence was known to but a few.

Former Commodore and Mrs. Arthur Curtis James, who have since returned to New York on the Aloha, were among the early week entertainers. Miss Charlotte Pell has given a dinner at her Rhode Island avenue home. Mrs. Lawrence T. Paul, at the Paul residence on upper Mill street, entertained in honor of Mrs. E. Rollins Morse, who with Mr. Morse are preparing a short part of the early season at the LaPort.

The Breakers on Ochre Point have been opened for Mrs. Vanderbilt and prominent among the week's arrivals have been Mr. and Mrs. George Bakhteff of Washington. They are at Stone Villa, which they occupy a number of seasons when Mr. Bakhteff was Russian Ambassador to the United States. They were absent last season.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffer Tallor and family, motoring from New York, were arrived at Honeyuckle Lodge; Mrs. Helen Oelrichs has occupied her Bellevue avenue home, Rosecroft; Mr. and Mrs. Harry LaMontagne have arrived and Mrs. Charles F. H. Gilbert have taken possession of Rest Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel got to Fallholm early in the week, coming almost immediately after the wedding of their daughter, Miss G. Drexel, to Capt. William Barrett of the army aviation corps. The announcement of this wedding came as an early season surprise to the members of the summer colony.

Another wedding surprise came within a few days when word reached Newport that Miss Mimi Scott had become the bride of Philander Cable, third secretary of the American embassy at Paris.

With these two weddings and a couple of divorce cases that have already reached the courts of this State it would appear that this season as a good season of surprises had made a good start.

Many Cottages Are Opened.

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Mattison have arrived from Amherst, Pa., and are at their estate, Bushy Park. Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus S. J. White are at the Wrightington cottage. Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Jr., have arrived at the Parker cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Perin of New York, who have taken the Thurn cottage, have arrived. Miss Evelyn Burden, who rented her own summer home to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener and who will arrive here in a short time, has taken the Booth bungalow near Bailey's Beach. She will move in soon and in the meantime she is occupying the King. Mr. and Mrs. Paul and Mrs. Philadelphia also are at the hotel while waiting to take possession of the Abney estate, Cave Cliff, which they have leased for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Graham have arrived at Wheatstone. George Woodrow and his family have arrived and reached their Bellevue avenue home. Capt. and Mrs. John W. Wainwright, Jr., of New York; Mr. and Mrs. R. Horace Gallatin and Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Padelford are others who got to their summer homes within the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, who were absent from Newport last summer, are having their Bellevue avenue estate prepared and they are expected in a short time. Another absentee last season was Mrs. Richard Hambright, whose estate has been made ready for occupancy. It has also been said during the week that there was a possibility of Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer returning to her own summer home for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman de R. Whelan are expected at their home next week. Mr. and Mrs. Wilford are looked for by the end of the month and the early July arrivals are expected to include Mr. and Mrs. William Goadby Loew, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Agassiz and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren, Mrs. F. Lophor Ames, Mrs. E. H. G. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham Glasgow, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hillhouse are also looked for before the end of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Capen of New York arrived at the Woodin cottage in Great Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Davis of Havana have arrived at Oronoque on Prospect Hill, Stockbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Biden of New York are at Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Rice's cottage in Stockbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Rice will come up to the hills next week.

Francis W. and Edward Crownshield, with Conde Nast, were at Konkopot cottage in Stockbridge this week. Miss Mary Brooks of New York arrived this week at the Morrissey cottage in Stockbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. O. Alop and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Boston are at the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Hoffman of New York are at their country place, the Orchard, in Stockbridge.

Several large gifts to the Berkshire County Society for the Care of Orphaned Children were announced this week. Mrs. D. H. Coolidge of New York has given $1,000; Mrs. William H. Bradford of New York, $1,000; Dan R. Hanna of Stockbridge, $3,500; and W. Murray Crane of Dalton, $5,000. Winthrop M. Crane, Jr., was elected president of the society. Among the trustees are Dr. William Norton Bulard of Boston, Dr. Henry F. Jaques of Lenox, Mrs. W. Murray Crane of Dalton, Bishop Thomas F. Davies of Lenox and Miss Ethel F. Folsom of New York.

Mrs. Olive Livingston Du Val of New York has delayed opening Woodlawn farm because of the illness of Mrs. Du Val. Mrs. Harold Farquhar Hadden of New York came up this week to Stockbridge, where she has the Choate cottage.

Mrs. R. Manson Smith of Baltimore is with Mrs. Frederick W. Whitridge in Stockbridge. Mrs. Stephen D. Field and Miss Virginia Field are at their Stockbridge country place. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Southworth of New York are at the Van Deusen cottage, Stockbridge.

Mrs. Dennison D. Dana, assisted by Harry Rose Shelley of New York, gave a service at the Jamaica Church in Great Barrington, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Pease have arrived at the Orchard. Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Freeman of New York have leased The Pines in Great Barrington. Mrs. Stephen Clark arrived at Fernbrook this week, ending an automobile journey from Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Walker of Chicago are at the Warren estate in Stockbridge. Their sons, Capt. Arthur Walker, who was thrice wounded in the service, and Wirt D. Walker, who served in the Red Cross, are with them.

Sherman S. Rogers and Henry D. Sedgwick of New York were passing the week with Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sedgwick in Stockbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gregory Mason of New York are occupying a cottage at Onota Lake, Pittsfield.

Arrivals at the Curtis Hotel this week included: Mrs. John J. Lapham, Mrs. James R. Jesup, Mrs. M. T. Gerahy, Miss Geraldine F. Adee, Miss Rebecca Wetmore and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Wendell Anderson, Dr. Wendell Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Seaman, Judge and Mrs. Alfred C. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Glandon, Mr. and Mrs. Gino C. Speranza, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Livingston, Miss Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Barclay, Miss Helen Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Whitman Farnum of New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barry of Montclair, N. J.; Mrs. de Freres Critten and Miss Marjorie Critten of Washington.

At Maplewood, in Pittsfield, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Clark, Thomas Pearsall Field, Mrs. John H. Scoville, Miss Scoville, Mrs. William L. Harkness, Miss Louise Harkness, William H. Harkness of New York, Francis Ramlet, Miss Susan C. Amory, Miss A. F. O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thompson of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jennings of Bridgeport, Mr. and Mrs. James Clement Dunn of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rodgers of Brookline.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bulkley Hubbard of New York, entertained friends at luncheon at the Maplewood Friday afternoon.

Those at the Hotels.

MANCHESTER, VT.

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

MANCHESTER-IN-THE-MOUNTAINS, Vt., June 14.—For many years more than half a century Manchester has been a summer playground catering to an ever increasing number of sojourners. The mountain air, cool breezes, pleasant drives and the fact that Manchester is easy of access from all points in New York and New England alone served in the days gone by, but in more recent years golf, the Ekwonok Country Club, and the leading attraction, The Ekwonok course will show little change this year, but the usual careful attention to detail in its care will insure excellent playing conditions.

The Equinox House opened to-day for its sixty-seventh successive season and during all these years it has been owned and operated by the Orvis family. The present proprietor, Mrs. George Orvis of New York and Manchester, gives the hotel a large measure of personal attention. A. E. Martin continues in his post as manager. Additions and improvements place the Equinox House in the first class of summer hotels.

Aside from the Equinox House, the Orvis Cottage, Macnights and the Orchard Park Hotel are annually catering to increased patronage.

Mrs. Hugh J. Grant of New York has leased Tranquility from Mrs. George Orvis. J. F. Housner of New York purchased recently The Cascades and is here with his family. John D. Beals of New York has leased the Battle House, James Lynch of Lakewood has taken Epelhurst on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Halsey of New York have leased Ben's Brook from Mrs. George Orvis. Miss Grace Kelly of Pittsburgh has leased Elmhor from Dr. Clark Burnham of Brookline. Mrs. Albert B. Fayrell of Ansonia, Conn., will occupy the Faigo-house this summer. Robert T. Lincoln and Mrs. Lincoln have been at Hillside for some time. The Misses Hoyt of New York have come to Manchester early this season after their year in France, where they contributed their vocal and instrumental talent to the entertaining of the American forces.

Others from New York who have already arrived at their summer homes are: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McKnight, Mrs. John Jacob Gunther, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tag, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Isham, Mr. and Mrs.

R. L. Makin, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Taylor and Miss Alice B. Fox. New York families who will be here soon include: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pray, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Given and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stanley and family. Mrs. W. H. Madure, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thacher and Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Young, all of Albany, are here as usual. Mr. and Mrs. William Ritter of Washington will open soon their new summer home.

C. H. Overton of Montclair will have his new summer home at the Wyman farm available this summer. Fred Westcott of Chicago is just in receipt of a villa of the bungalow type on the promontory overlooking the Battenkill valley.

Dorothy Canfield (Fisher), Mr. Fisher and their children, who returned recently from service in France, will pass the summer at their cottage in Arlington. Edwin Lefever of The Bronx will be at his summer home in Dorset.

ton, took place on Tuesday in St. Luke's Church here.

The marriage of Miss Julia Newton Pole of Hot Springs to Newton Wylie of New York, scheduled for last Wednesday, will take place next week, owing to the express wish of Mrs. Pole shortly before her sudden death recently.

NEW CASTLE BY THE SEA.

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

NEW CASTLE BY THE SEA, PONYBROOK, June 14.—The Hotel Wentworth will throw open its doors for the summer on June 26. The New Hampshire Pharmaceutical Association will arrive for a three days stay to be followed for three days by the New Hampshire Bar Association.

Judging from those who plan to return, this is sure to be a big season at this historic spot, where the Russian-Japanese peace treaty was signed in the large hotel that graces the hill. In addition to those who remain there will be the continuous stream of motorists who make this one of their stopping places on their way to more northern New England.

Much activity is promised in shooting contests on the ranges of the Wentworth Gun Club. Competitions will be headed by the director, Miss Annie Oakley and Frank Butler.

Improvements to the golf course will attract devotees of that sport. The week of July 28 has been set as tournament week on the Wentworth, which will warrant marquee whoosies held at reasonable prices.

On his return from Europe Mr. Caldwell will probably come here as the summer guest of Mrs. Mitchell, a member of the United States Economic Commission to France and England. He has in mind the raising of great herds of elk and deer on the island, which will warrant marquee whoosies held at reasonable prices.

Beautiful View Unfolded.

From the exalted promenade one may look down upon a clear stretch of water broken only by the emerald green Isle of Orleans, and from there the vision lifts to the high mountains, whose peaks are convulsion and through unathomable depths a river of ink gropes its way to the St. Lawrence.

From here on, until Ha! Ha! Bay is reached, the scenery is wild and gloomily picturesque beyond description; a rocky mountain chain gashed through its heart by a magnificent Danzig river convulsion and through unathomable depths a river of ink gropes its way to the St. Lawrence.

This is indeed a scenic climax—one of the most wonderful inland water trips which the civilized world can offer.

Quebec, the cradle of New France, is like no other city on the American continent; it is itself; it seems to imitate; it is the one Canadian city that defies the American invasion. True, it had compromised by erecting a magnificent hotelery along the lines demanded by the great army of American globe trotters, but it refuses to make any other important concessions.

It transpires in its own easy, indolent way; it listens politely when you suggest what ought to be done to make it more modern and responds with a shrug of its unphiborical shoulders. Its French "beau monde" is not that of old France, its English society not that of old England.

True, each speaks its own language most charmingly, but the void of that harshness which its larger commercial sister, Montreal, affects, but the fact is the two nationalities have been thrown together in this quiet city that with its French "beau monde" is not that of old France, its English society not that of old England.

Berkshire Colonies Grow

Lenox, Mass. June 14.—The wild laurels in all their glory now abound along the Berkshire highways. Automobiles are passing through the towns decorated with its pink and white blossoms as though returning from a carnival within ten days the wild roses will be in full bloom.

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. David Percy Morgan, Jr., in Stockbridge last Saturday brought to Lenox and Stockbridge a great company of young people. Numerous affairs were given for entertainment of the guests. The "largest" dinner given by the Misses Mary and Gertrude Parsons at Stoneover and Mrs. Edward Spencer at Shipton Court. Both dinners were followed by dancing at the Lenox club.

Mrs. Edwards Spencer's dinner-dance was given in honor of her guest, Mrs. Charles Campbell of Paris. Mrs. Campbell was formerly Miss de Paris, well remembered in Lenox for several seasons she was Mrs. Spencer's house guest. She married Capt. Campbell when he was a secretary at the American legation at Lisieux. Mrs. Campbell will pass the season with Mrs. Spencer while her husband is serving on Gen. Pershing's staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Cortland F. Bishop have gone to California. He maintains a fleet of automobiles at Pasadena, from where he will start on explorations of the California mountains. One long trip will be made to the Mexican border and the Imperial Valley. After attending the boat races at New London their daughter, Miss Beatrice Bishop, will cross to California to join her parents. Then they will tour to the Yosemite Valley and thence to British Columbia.

Miss Bishop was graduated lately from the Briarley School, New York, receiving a silver cup for being the best all round scholar of the class. She has taken examinations for both Bryn Mawr and Vassar.

Charles Lanier, who has been an annual donor of rare volumes to the Lenox Library, of which he is a trustee, has lately sent to the library a set of the war sketchbooks of Lucien Jonas, war portrait painter. The library will elect trustees to fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of F. Augustus Schermerhorn and Frederick Schenck.

the meeting of the Garden Club of America at Lake Forest, Ill. The club will be represented by Mr. and Mrs. Banyer Clarkson, Mrs. Bernhard Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. West. The regular meetings of the Lenox Club, with paid lecturers, will be held the first Monday of each month beginning with July. A council to arrange the meetings consists of Bishop Davies, Miss Adele Kneeland, Mrs. Banyer Clarkson, Mrs. Francis C. Barlow and Miss Georgiana W. Sargent.

Mrs. William Douglas Sloane arrived this week at Elm Court for the season. She had been a guest of Mrs. Adrian Iselin at New Rochelle, after an automobile trip to the Adirondacks and Quebec.

Miss Mary de Peyeter Carey of New York was in Lenox this week on her way to Northeast Harbor, Me. The Rev. George Glenville Merrill of St. Paul's Church, Stockbridge, has been at Princeton this week for the thirtieth reunion of the class of 1839 in which he was graduated. Bishop Thomas F. Davies of the Episcopal diocese of Western Massachusetts will go to New Haven Monday to attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of the class of 1894, in which he was graduated.

Many congratulations were sent to Mrs. Francis Dillon Fitz Gibbon at Sunnyside, Lenox, where a son was born to Mrs. Fitz Gibbon last Sunday. Mrs. Fitz Gibbon was Miss Gerorgette T. Lout of Pittsfield, her marriage abroad to Lout Fitz Gibbon, who is in the English service.

Mrs. J. C. O'Donnell of Washington, who last year came to Lenox for a season, has returned to the Cliffwood cottage.

Mrs. Carlos M. de Heredia of New York, owner of Westhaleigh, has given the Lenox Brotherhood the use of a grove and a parcel of land on the north shore of Lake Mahkenac for a boat club.

Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco was in the Berkshires this week. He visited the estate of the late Hil-dreth K. Bloodgood in New Marlboro and bought six sporting spaniels for $2,000. Mayor Rolph and the late Mr. Bloodgood were intimate friends.

New Yorker Among Arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Macy Willetts have arrived at Cassile farm in New Marlboro. The Misses Hoguet of New York arrived this week at the Whitwell cottage in Great Barrington. Miss Virginia Butler, who has been in New York since the season opened, has arrived in Stockbridge. She will pass the season with her sister, Miss Helen C. Butler at Linwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Crane, after several years' residence in England, are in Dalton visiting Mrs. Zenas Crane.

Mrs. Theodore B. Ledyard and Miss Ellen King of New York opened their Stockbridge cottages this week. Mr.

Throngs at Southampton

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., June 14.—Beautiful clear skies and pleasant warm days have brought many of the summer colony to Southampton this week.

Mrs. C. F. Rogers, who has leased Sunnycroft again this summer, arrived Monday. Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson opened their villa, Fair Lawn, on Wednesday. Mrs. Edward H. Van Ingen arrived at the Dolphins on Thursday.

Mrs. J. S. Doubleday, who leased the Edward H. Davis place on Hill street, has sublet her house to J. H. Schermerhorn of New York and has taken a place at Easthampton for the summer.

W. G. Oakman, who has been absent from Southampton for many years, has leased H. A. Burrows's Moonlight on Shinnecock Hills and will arrive the latter part of the month.

Another arrival at Shinnecock Hills are the Stevens C. Clark, who arrived Wednesday and are occupying the Swayne House, Neaugogue, for the season. They occupied the Bonnie Dune cottage during the seasons of 1915 and 1916.

Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock of Westbury has leased Helme Lea for the summer and will be a welcome addition to the colony.

Other arrivals are: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilson, who have taken a cottage on Shinnecock Hills, the former of whom has just returned from England, where he was connected with the diplomatic corps; Mrs. Walter Curtis at their cottage on Meeting House lane; Joseph R. Dilworth, at Mrs. Bett's Mocomanto, on First Neck lane; Dr. Norman E. Dittman, at Mrs. L. L. Terry's Hill street house, and Lyttleton Fox at Breezy Hill.

Mrs. Dallas B. Pratt has taken the George Fordham East Cottage; Ralph J. Jreston is at Quay's Dunedale, and Mrs. Oren Root has arrived at the Root cottage on Great Plains road.

Rudcan Ellsworth has leased and is now occupying Thomas M. Carnegie's cottage, Clenden, on Cooper Neck lane. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCarty have arrived at their cottage, Golden Rod. Mrs. J. Metcalf Thomas is at her cottage, Wee Cot, for the summer.

The season here will probably open in earnest the latter part of the month and entertaining will be on a large scale.

Several house parties are planned for over the Fourth of July and from then on till the end of the season there will be many house parties and much entertaining.

Tournaments at Garden City

Golf, tennis and polo are well under way now at Garden City and vicinity. The national tournaments have commenced at Meadow Brook, and for some days there have been scores of players on the Salisbury course, opposite the Meadow Brook Club. Between golfing and watching the polo tournament, Salisbury visitors have found their time well taken up.

The Garden City Country Club and the Garden City Golf Club, together with the Cherry Valley Club, are planning a number of interesting events. All macadam highways to the Salisbury course have been remade and the electric rail system has been extended to Meadow Brook station.

Two hundred or more officers of the United States air service gave a farewell dinner on Tuesday evening to Lieut.-Col. H. W. Greig, for some months in command of the famous Mitchell Flying Field at Garden City, which has been purchased by the Government. Col. Greig has been assigned to command the supply depot of the Detroit field. Col. Archie Miller, in command of a Long Island flying field, and a score or more of his staff came over from the Hazelhurst field.

Miss Madge Dinnell of New York spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Sydney L. Smythe at Garden City. A Long Island Council of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Prescott Sherer of Garden City president, held its annual convention in the Garden City Hotel on Tuesday, about two hundred members being present.

SARANAC LAKE.

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

SARANAC LAKE, June 14.—Fishermen hereabout are discussing the effect of the change in the penal code upon fishing in the Adirondacks. The consensus is that the repeal of that portion of the code which formerly made Sunday fishing a misdemeanor will not serve to increase the number of fishermen on Sundays, as most anglers at all intents and purposes have a dead letter for a long period.

Golf is to receive more attention than has heretofore been paid it in this village. The need of better links has been agitated and it is proposed to obtain a tract of land suitable for the purpose. The committee in charge, headed by Dr. C. C. Framley, has been investigating the feasibility of utilizing the links of the former Hotel Adirondack, which was destroyed by fire several years ago. These links, which were leased by Frank McCarty to Woodruff Leeming, has leased the red cottage at the Birchies, on the Lower Saranac Lake. Dr. Clark Dennis has leased a cottage.

Among those who arrived recently to pass the season here is Major J. Woods Price of the Army Medical Corps.

From Riverside Inn and the other Northern hotels, reports are coming in excess of those of former seasons, with a preponderance of sojourners from New York.

NEWLYWEDS AT WHITE SULPHUR

Special Dispatch to The Sun.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 14.—This might well be called "honeymoon week" here, as many young couples have come to the West Virginia hills, where sports abound during the ideal weather that has characterized June. Mr. and Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin, Jr., who were married in Pittsburg a fortnight ago, have taken a country house at Warrenton, where they will go during the hunting season. Their Northern home is at Pittsburg, Pa., and Mrs. John H. Lummis, whose wedding took place recently in New York, are passing their honeymoon here. Mrs. Lummis was Miss Anita McLean. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Orlin are among other honeymoon couples from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Turner A. Sumner are also here from New York, where they were married. They will make their home in Louisville, Ky.

Christian B. Zabriskie and W. J. Falson of New York, with R. C. Baker of London, are at the Greenbrier, where they have come to play golf.

Kate's Mountain Club is attracting many persons, who gather on the broad porch for a late tea or early dinner. Mrs. Rene La Montagne, who is here from New York, entertained at dinner here Monday evening. Mrs. Christian Hahnen, who has come to join her daughters, Miss M. L. Hahnen and Mrs. Rudolph Zinsler, gave a dinner for several friends on Tuesday. James Cresson Farish entertained on Wednesday. Mrs. Samuel Pomeroy Colt of New York and Providence, R. I., is at the Greenbrier. She motored on Tuesday to Lewisburg with Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. McKean.

Miss Mary U. Hoffman, Miss Angelica Livingston, Mrs. Roland Redmond, Mrs. Lewis L. Deland, Miss Emily Trelawny and Mr. Arthur Mrs. John Greenwood are prominent among New York sojourners at the Greenbrier this week.

ASBURY PARK.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 14.—The season in Asbury Park got fairly under way to-day with the opening of the New Monterey Hotel for 800 members of the Guarantee Club of New York, here for a day's outing, and for the reception of the vanguard of homeopathic physicians who are assembled for the National Institute of Homeopathy, to open on Monday. Along with the New Monterey, the Columbia, the Ford, Brunswick and other houses will assist in entertaining the 1,500 physicians, who will remain for a five days convention. A week from to-day the convention will convene in New York.

The newly organized Asbury Park Hotelkeepers Association has elected Harold Sexton of the Marlborough Hotel president; Howard Gutnick of the Leach Asbury Hotel, vice-president; E. D. Townsend of the Albion, treasurer, and Charles H. Boers, Jr. of the Manhattan, secretary. The annual dinner will be given in the Ocean Hotel next Wednesday evening. A. R. Parsons of the Brunswick Hotel will be toastmaster, and among the speakers will be Charles E. Carrigan of the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark.

The first big striped bass of the season was turned in Tuesday by Al Hunt. It weighed thirty pounds. The Asbury Park Fishing Club's annual prize fish, just announced, shows fifty-one prizes, including a special prize of a complete rodman's outfit offered by C. W. Fitzgerald. N. J., to take the cure.
