

PREPARATORY SCHOOLS, COLLEGES AND ACADEMIES

This Is the Time When Graduates Are Entering a New Sphere of Life

Governor Smith Attends Graduation at Academy of Holy Name—Commencement Festivities at Columbia Grammar, Pennington, Kingsley, House in the Pines, Peddie and Elsewhere—Other School and College News.

THE closing days of the school year at the Peddie Institute, Hightstown, N. J., were featured by the services before the graduating class and the Young Men's Christian Association held in the Baptist Meeting House on Sunday. The senior class roll contains the following members for the year 1919: Thomas Smith Anderson, Frederick W. York, George Cook, Thomas Newbush, N. Y.; Carl Fridman Burns, West Hoboken, N. J.; John Randolph Chamberlin, Hightstown, O.; Taylor Clark, Hightstown, N. J.; Robert Jameson Corbet, Jamestown, N. Y.; William Dighton, 20, Monticello, Ill.; Clark Winchester Emmons, Pennington, N. J.; Clifford Howard, Jamestown, N. Y.; John Howard Jeffrey, Jr., Narberth, Pa.; William Forest Johnson, Camden, N. J.; William Joseph Lundberg, Pennington, N. J.; Robert Philip Phillips, Pennington, N. J.; Phillip Nott Ober, Montclair, N. J.; Robert Ashley Phillips, Pennington, N. J.; James White, Pennington, N. J.

On Wednesday, June 4, the Peddie baseball team wound up its unusually poor season by defeating the Blair Academy team in the final game of the season, and made two runs to Coach Rogers of the Peddie aggregation sprung a surprise when he "reversed" his battery of the former games, and placed Clarke behind the bat and Jeffrey on the mound. The combination proved to be an enigma for the men from Blairtown, who scored their only run of the game on a base on balls and a wild pitch. The Peddie aggregation sprang a surprise when he "reversed" his battery of the former games, and placed Clarke behind the bat and Jeffrey on the mound. The combination proved to be an enigma for the men from Blairtown, who scored their only run of the game on a base on balls and a wild pitch.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY. Since field day at St. Joseph's Academy, Brentwood, N. Y., has claimed an annual recognition it is anxiously looked forward to by teachers and students from the beginning of the school year. On former occasions horses and automobiles added life and significance to the cortege, including floats, tableaux and musical groups. This year, however, without these striking features the pageant this year proved very interesting and enjoyable.

ACADEMY OF THE HOLY NAME. Commencement exercises took place at the Academy of the Holy Name, Albany, N. Y., Saturday, June 7, at 10 A. M. The occasion was unusual even in the history of the school. The solemnity and dignity of the Right Rev. Edmund F. Gibbons and his Excellency Gov. Al Smith gave a charm to the exercises that all present regarded as a fitting tribute to the school's history.

ROSEMARY HALL. Commencement exercises at Rosemary Hall, Greenwich, Conn., were held Thursday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon was the service in the chapel followed by the exercises and the presentation of diplomas. After the winding of the tree supper was served to the guests. In the evening the students gave "The Tempest" in play form.

HOUSE IN THE PINES. House in the Pines, Norton, Mass., held its commencement exercises from May 31 to June 3. On Saturday, May 31, the Shakespeare play "Henry VIII" was given by the girls in the pine grove. On Sunday, June 1, the tennis field hockey, netball, standing broad jump, sprint, discus, throw, shot put, basketball. Then came class cheers and class songs. The seniors carried on the tennis and netball for the third time, winning in every contest three games out of four. The field hockey, sophomores vs. freshmen, closed in a 2-1 victory for the freshmen. The netball Class A scored over Class B, 4 to 3.

OSISING SCHOOL. The Ossining School for Girls, Ossining-on-Hudson, N. Y., had the pleasant year of celebrating its fiftieth anniversary. The closing exercises were numerous and were in order as follows: May 23, piano recital by Miss Helen Schaffmeister, Ossining, N. Y.; May 27, piano recital by Miss Velma Shepard, Ossining, N. Y.; May 30, presentation of "Triumph of Democracy" under the direction of Miss Laura Lea; piano recital by Miss Katherine Turnbull, Ossining, N. Y.; May 31, "The Spirit of Ossining," a play written by Miss Freda Brendel of Buffalo, N. Y., vice-president of the Ossining School Republic, and Miss Marion Blackton, Yonkers, N. Y., president of the Junior class, closed the senior class of which Miss Elizabeth Kimball of New York City was president; June 1, baccalaureate sermon, held in the Holy Trinity Church, Yonkers, N. Y., by the Rev. Dr. Frank B. Dwight of Morristown, N. J., delivered the commencement sermon; June 2, the Rev. Dr. Dwight, in the presence of William H. Barber, director of the hospital department, and Perry Averill, director of the vocal department, under the direction of Miss Heppie En Earl Weeks; June 3, 10 A. M., business meeting of the Alumna and School Association, held in the Holy Trinity Church; 2 P. M., luncheon on campus; 8 to 12 P. M., reception.

RIVERDALE COUNTRY SCHOOL. Commencement exercises at Riverdale Country School, Riverdale-on-Hudson, New York City, centre chiefly on the evening production on the open air stage of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The effects produced by the lights and shadows upon the rich foliage of background. The breeze which sprang up during the performance flattered the leaves in such a way as to make the atmosphere absolutely lyrical. With the soft notes of Mendelssohn's music, the ensemble caused many of the audience to say that they never had attended a more beautiful play before.

MARYMOUNT COLLEGE. The Biennial, the annual at Marymount, Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., for the current year, edited by the class of 1919, was published in the form of a book dedicated to "The Heroes of the Arrogance." The occasion was made particularly interesting by the presence of a large number of former graduates and friends, who had gathered during the preceding week from all parts of the country.

KINGSLEY SCHOOL. The two weeks ended June 5 at Kingsley School, Essex Falls, N. J., were full of interest. Following alumni day, May 24, the senior banquet Monday, May 26, and the senior picnic Tuesday, May 27, were very successful. The senior picnic was held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Butler on the death of his son Pierre in the Argonne Forest and to Mrs. M. A. Butler on the death of her daughter Bertha.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE. The commencement exercises of St. John's College, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y., were held at the college on June 12. The following is the programme: Sunday, June 12, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.; Monday, June 13, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.; Tuesday, June 14, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.; Wednesday, June 15, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.; Thursday, June 16, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.; Friday, June 17, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.; Saturday, June 18, St. John the Baptist Church, Lewis and Willoughby, N. Y.

PENNINGTON SCHOOL. The week has been an extraordinarily busy one at Pennington School, Pennington, N. J., since the commencement week. Many activities were crowded in. To start off the week the track team won the first of the season, a 100-yard race. It was a one-sided affair practically from start to finish and the boys were jubilant over the victory. The track team was also victorious in the 200-yard race. The baseball team won several coveted pennants because of its prowess. The baseball team hung up a large score when it won by a score of 5 to 0.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY. Universities and schools of the middle West will be largely represented on the faculty of the Columbia University Summer School, New York. There will be more than 400 students. The school is expected to reach 10,000. The curriculum, just announced, embraces the widest range of subjects in the school's history. The faculty will be made up of the best teachers in the field by side with lay language, literature, education and other familiar topics. Lieut.-Col. Allan R. Edwards, a West Pointer, will teach tactics and strategy to history students, and scores of courses in household, industrial and fine arts will be given.

CAMP CHENANGO. THE PLACE FOR YOUR BOY THIS SUMMER. Let him go with me to the most beautiful and healthful camp in the world. He will return home, self-reliant and manly. MILITARY TRAINING, GARDENING, HORSEBACK RIDING, BOATING, FISHING, LAND AND WATER SPORTS are all included. Address: Mr. J. L. LOVELAND, 531 Maple St., Brooklyn, N. Y., Phone Flatbush 746-J.

NEW YORK COLLEGE OF MUSIC. EXPERT INSTRUCTORS. IN ALL BRANCHES OF MUSIC. SEND FOR CATALOGUE. 122-130 East 84th St. BERKELEY-IRVING SCHOOL. A Preparatory School for Boys. 311 West 83rd Street. BERKELEY-IRVING SCHOOL. A Preparatory School for Boys. 311 West 83rd Street.

PHILLIPS ANDOVER. The second and last day of the 141st commencement of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., was ushered in by the procession of the trustees, faculty, reunion classes, general alumni who had no regular reunions, and the members of the graduating class, starting from the Peabody House at 9:30 A. M. The most impressive ceremony of the day was probably that which followed the events of the morning; the memorial services in honor of the former students of the school who gave their lives in the great war.

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY. The Hon. A. Mitchell Palmer, Attorney-General of the United States, will make an address at the commencement exercises of the Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., on Tuesday, June 17. The Hon. Martin C. Conroy, director of the drafts of New York, will make an address at the unfurling of the gold star service flag on Monday, June 16.

COLUMBIA GRAMMAR SCHOOL. The 156th year of the Columbia Grammar School, New York City, closed with simple and appropriate exercises in the assembly room Friday morning. The usual announcement of honors and prizes won by those displaying superior merit throughout the year was given by the headmaster, The highest honor of the year was the highest honor of the year, the highest honor of the year, the highest honor of the year.

BORDENTOWN. MILITARY INSTITUTE, Bordentown, N. J. PURPOSE: The individual development of the young man, the development of the world in college, scientific school of business. LOCATION: Healthful location on the Delaware River, seven miles from Trenton on the Pennsylvania Railroad. SCHOOL: A large, sympathetic, and efficient body of instructors. 34 years' experience in the instruction of boys.

BALLARD SCHOOL. For Practical Education. Summer Sessions—July 7 to August 15. Short Courses In: Stenography, French, Typewriting, Spanish, Bookkeeping, Business, English, Bookkeeping, Business, English, Bookkeeping, Business, English.

BERKELEY-IRVING SCHOOL. A Preparatory School for Boys. 311 West 83rd Street. BERKELEY-IRVING SCHOOL. A Preparatory School for Boys. 311 West 83rd Street.

SUN EDUCATIONAL BUREAU. 150 Nassau St. New York. Would you like to know of a school or summer camp, which will meet the requirements of your boy or girl? Why not write us? We can aid you in the selection of the right school.

SUN EDUCATIONAL BUREAU. 150 Nassau St. New York. Would you like to know of a school or summer camp, which will meet the requirements of your boy or girl? Why not write us? We can aid you in the selection of the right school.

SUN EDUCATIONAL BUREAU. 150 Nassau St. New York. Would you like to know of a school or summer camp, which will meet the requirements of your boy or girl? Why not write us? We can aid you in the selection of the right school.