

Cream of Thoroughbreds in East and West Will Strive for Laurels at Empire City Race Meeting in Yonkers

WESTERN HORSES TO RACE AT EMPIRE

Will Measure Strides With Eastern Stars at Meet Which Begins Saturday.

BIG ENTRY FOR STAKES Purchase and Sir Barton Are Among Those Entered in Empire City Derby.

The meeting of the Empire City Race Association, which opens on Saturday next, July 13, and continues until Thursday, July 18, undoubtedly will be one of the best of the year, as the cream of the thoroughbreds in training East and West will meet at the Yonkers course for the first time.

There is no course on the metropolitan circuit where spectators have a better view of a race than at Empire. With the greatly enlarged clubhouse, which is now ideal since the improvements planned by President Butler have been completed, there is nothing to be desired by the racing enthusiasts of New York, who have always made it a point to see the sport at Yonkers.

The Empire City Handicap at one mile and a furlong, with a guaranteed value of $5,000, is the feature of the opening day's programme, and it is bound to be a good race as Mr. Vassar and his associates have marshaled a number of automobiles which crowd every approach to the course while the meeting is being held.

Purchase is now hailed as the pretender to the three-year-old throne, and with only Sir Barton to contend with, he is expected to win the Empire City Handicap to his liking. Sam Hildreth trained and owned Dalmatian when that stout three-year-old won the Empire City Handicap in 1918 with 128 pounds up, and equalled the track record of 1:51 1/2 for the distance, which are also the figures to the credit of Dalmatian in 1910.

Dominant and Old Rosebud are a pair of talented speed marvels that will also be seen under colors in the Empire City Handicap. The former was a mighty two-year-old but did not stand training as a three-year-old.

Midway, winner of the Kentucky Handicap; Exterminator, who captured the Kentucky Derby in 1918; and Tipple, winner of the Kentucky Derby in 1918, are some of the other eligibles. Easterners will probably have their first glimpse of the great Western two-year-old filly, in the race in the demolition derby on Wednesday, July 16.

Vardon Is Rated Best Among World's Golfers

Anderson, Lists Players Chosen by Three Experts—Brady, Hagen, Evans, Barnes, Hutchinson and McNamara Various Selected.

By JOHN G. ANDERSON. We were attracted to a rather novel group assembled in the grill of a well known golf club quite recently, where argument was fast and furious concerning the present relative standing in playing ability of the best ten American pros—this including all now in this country regardless of the place of birth.

are Hilton, twice the open champion of Great Britain and once an amateur title holder of America and several times the amateur champion of Great Britain; John Ball, whose best golfing days were ahead, Stearns kept right on sweating his lead. He clicked off 4 and 3, par figures of the next three holes, and in each case was good enough to win. White counted a 5 on each of the three.

White braced at the sixth and had his first winning hole. He scored a 6 on the seventh and White cut another from his handicap at the eighth, scoring a 4 against a 5 for Stearns. But he skinned the ball at the ninth and could not better a 6, leaving himself three down at the turn for home.

White Wins Sixth. White braced at the sixth and had his first winning hole. He scored a 6 on the seventh and White cut another from his handicap at the eighth, scoring a 4 against a 5 for Stearns.
