Few decorative accessories are so closely allied with furniture as pictures—an "old master" hung just above a "period" table or other piece will undeniably enhance the charm of that particular grouping. A dignified print will lend atmosphere to the Dining Room. So it goes—furniture and pictures are always closely related in the decorative ensemble. Therefore, we believe this Sale to be timely, offering as it does an opportunity for choosing

Mezzotints, carbons, Medici and colored prints, in frames of various sizes and finishes at the same time that one's furniture is chosen.
