

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and her daughter, Miss Grace Vanderbilt, with James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany, at Newport. The Vanderbilts are back at Beaulieu for the season, while Judge and Mrs. Gerard have taken Pinard Cottage. Both families are old Newport sojourners.

Photo by International Film.

On the lawn of the T. Suffern Tailer residence, Honeysuckle, at Newport, during a party given for little Miss Betty Tailer in celebration of her ninth birthday. It was a big day for the children.

Photo International Film.

A scene on the beach at Southampton, L. I., during the bathing hour. This resort has come up rapidly in the last few years and now vies with Newport, Bar Harbor and like places.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Elsbeth Merck and Mrs. Orson D. Munn of New York, on their way for a dip at Southampton, have to smile at the idea of having their pictures taken.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

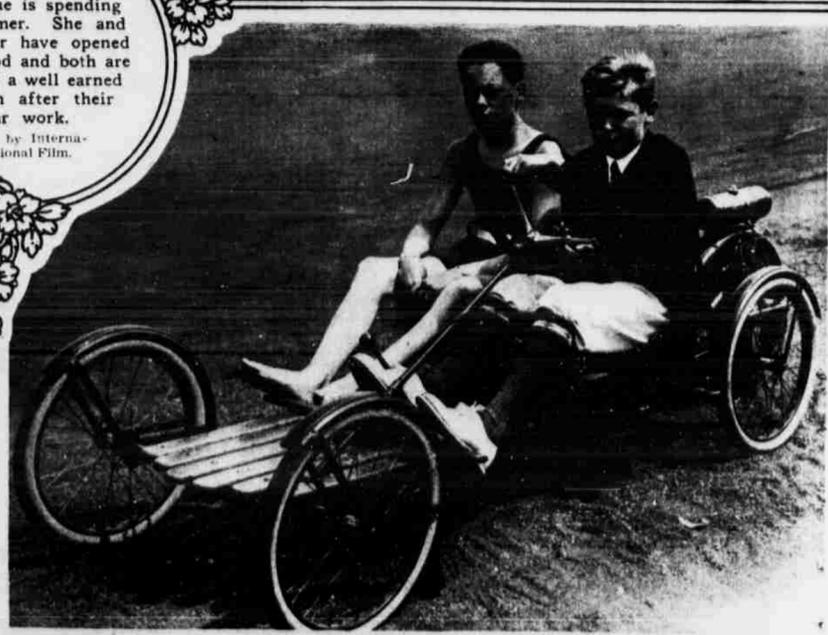

Mrs. Vincent Astor at Newport, where she is spending the summer. She and Mr. Astor have opened Beechwood and both are enjoying a well earned vacation after their war work.

Photo by International Film.

Miss Elizabeth Sands, daughter of Mrs. Fred-eric P. Sands of New York, out for a stroll at Newport, where she is one of the favorites in the younger set.

Photo by International Film.

Albert McQueen Grant, Jr., and Clendennin Ryan, Jr., in a so-called "beach lizzie" or "sand flivver" at Southampton. This sort of a motor contraption is a favorite with the youngsters at the seashore resorts.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.