

This is the Senate's committee to investigate the high rents and the equally high cost of food in the District of Columbia. Left to right—Senator Dial, South Carolina; Senator Sheppard, Texas; Senator Elkins, West Virginia; Senator Capper, Kansas, and Senator Ball, Delaware, the chairman.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Here's one of two kiddies worth $10,000,000 between them—Elizabeth, a granddaughter of the late William Ziegler.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Mrs. Henry S. Redmond, the former Miss Julie Russell Parsons, who has been entertaining extensively at Saratoga of late.

Photo, International Film.

The Reynolds portrait of Mrs. Siddons, recently sold for $270,000 at Christie's auction rooms in London. All England was relieved that the purchaser was not an American multi-millionaire.

Photo, Gilliams Service.

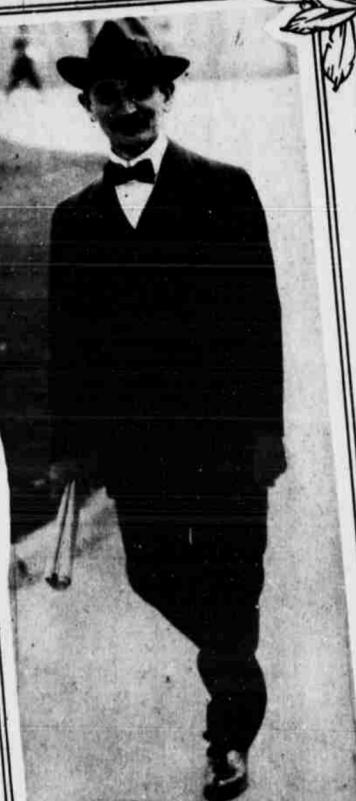

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, photographed at Newport, where she is spending the season.

Photo, International Film.

Lindley Garrison, B. R. T. receiver and storm centre of the strike. His refusal to deal with the union was the main ground of contention.

Photo, Bain News Service.

Isador J. Kresel, distinguished as an investigator, who has been designated to prosecute the "Big Five" packers.

Photo, International Film.

Henry Ford's camping party at Green Island, near the site of Henry's proposed tractor plant. Left to right—H. S. Firestone, Jr., H. S. Firestone, Mr. Edison, John Burroughs, the naturalist and essayist; Mayor Watt of Albany, Henry Ford, Chauncey D. Hakes and Samuel Ott. The special motorized camping outfit is visible in the rear. There were also two big touring cars to travel in.

Photo, Underwood & Underwood.