

Miss Bleibrey and Miss Boyle Give Lentsational Swimming Performances at Manhattan Beach

LOCAL GIRLS WIN SWIMMING HONORS

Miss Bleibrey Wins World's Record for 110 Yard Back Stroke.

IS CLOCKED IN 1:33 1-5

Miss Boyle Equals 100 Meter Figures Held by Miss Durack.

Miss Ethelida Bleibrey and Miss Charlotte Boyle of the New York Women's Swimming Association again displayed world's record speed at a water carnival held by the Manhattan Beach bath lagoon yesterday.

Competing over a 55 yard water course, Miss Bleibrey won a 110 yard back stroke race in the sensational time of 1 minute 33 1-5 seconds, the fastest ever made under any conditions, and set an international standard for 100 meters, or 103.3 yards.

Miss Boyle captured a free style race at the same distance in 1 minute 16 1-5 seconds, equalling the world's 100 meter record held by Miss Pannia Durack of Australia, but the performance is actually better than the latter's, for Miss Boyle went two laps in 12 minutes and 15 seconds.

Just how remarkable is Miss Bleibrey's feat may be figured from the fact that she beat by no less than six yards her nearest rival and teammate, Miss Ruth Smith, who holds the national championship and the world's for 150 yards at this style of swimming. Miss Frances Clark of the Philadelphia Turngemeinde was third in this race.

Handicapped at Start.

That Miss Boyle would have beaten Miss Durack's mark conclusively had conditions been normal is quite certain. But the starting fiasco was so light that it submerged with the contestants and they stood awaiting the gun in water knee deep instead of enjoying the usual advantage of an eighteen inch takeoff.

This meant the loss of a second or more. Miss Eleanor Hill of the Meadowbrook Club of Philadelphia put up a good fight against Miss Boyle up to the 55 yard mark, but fell back rapidly on the way home. She scored a total of 7 points, finishing second a couple of yards ahead of Miss Frances Clark of the Philadelphia Turngemeinde.

Miss Ethelida Bleibrey, the twelve-year-old aquatic wonder of the Women's S. A., gave a remarkable exhibition of fancy diving in a springboard handicap for women. She scored a total of 12 points in four compulsory and four optional dives and easily won from a large field, defeating among others Miss Elizabeth Becker of the Philadelphia Turngemeinde, the middle Atlantic A. C. swimmer, who received from her a one point allowance. The latter tied for second with Miss Eda Cole and Miss Bertha Tomkins of the Women's S. A. on place numbers, but the point tally gave her only third. Miss Cole received second.

Little Miss Rignin, breast stroke racer for Juniors, headed her class in the professional long distance swimmer, did excellent work. Alfred, Jr., a lad of fourteen, rounded up a total of 13 points for his 25-45, 45-75, and 75-100 yard swims. Katherine, aged nine, won a 55 yard handicap for Juniors from the twelve second mark in the actual time of 18-15.

Would Arrange World's Series for Minors

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 13.—The Los Angeles and Vernon clubs of the Pacific Coast Baseball League have approved a proposition to conduct the series under major world series rules.

The amount of the offer will be about $25,000.

WHITE SOX AGAIN DEFEAT MACKMEN

Philadelphia Rookies From Atlanta Fall Before League Face Setters, 8 to 2.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13.—(American).—Connie Mack's rookies from Atlanta again were easy for the White Sox this afternoon, 8 to 2. Only three regular Athletic players appeared in the lineup—Dugan at second, Witt at third and Perkins behind the plate.

Johnny Zimlower, from Waco, Tex., started for Mack, but lasted only three innings. Jack Naylor, who succeeded him, fared little better, and Kinney finished.

Loudermilk lightened up in the pinches and was never in danger after the second inning. The Sox played brilliantly in the field, Collins, Ribberg and Gandil featuring. The score:

ALEXANDER AGAIN DEFEATS BROOKLYN

Dodgers Escape a Shutout in Final Game of Series, Losing 2 to 1.

MERKLE STARS AT BATTING

Robbie's Men Stage Rally in Ninth, but Olson Fails in Pinch.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE SUN.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—Uncle Robinson's Dodgers bade adieu to Chicago and the Cubs for the season of 1919 this afternoon after suffering another defeat, 2 to 1, but there was some balm in the downfall after all. The Robins again fared the mighty Alexander and fared better than a shutout. In their last two encounters with the Bruin curving ace, both affairs being staged on Eubets field, the Flatbush folk were helpless so far as run making was concerned. Alexander beat the Dodgers 3 to 0 in eleven sessions in which also allowed five hits. On the same field on August 14 the speckled Nebraskan applied his brush, 2 to 0, beating Sherry Smith in nine rounds and yielding only four safe drives.

For seven more innings in today's combat. Also exercised an evil influence over the Brooklynites and seemed destined to register a third straight shutout, but in the eighth inning three wallops, all singles, assembled by Max Mauts, Griffith and Z. Wheat, netted a tally, the first wrenched from the Cubs' fingers in twenty-eight innings. Hence the extreme hilarity of the Flatbushers as they embarked for Youngstown, Ohio, where they appear to-morrow in an exhibition game.

Cubs Win Series.

By noting out the Dodgers Fred Mitchell's machine copped the series, two in three games, and clung to their narrow lead over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who were shut out in the first game, and placed a $400 per man from the world's prize pool. This amount is expected by the teams finishing second and third in the flag marathon.

Chicago jumped out in front in the initial session when Barber blazed the way with a double against the right field wall. Magee sacrificed, Peckner struck out, and Olson pitched a double. The Cubs' lead was 2 to 0.

Another broadside in the third netted one more marker for the Bruins. McCabe walked, Hollocher sacrificed and Herzog singled to left. Merkle, who was the only one to reach first base, was doubled to left. The score: 2 to 0.

In the ninth Kopf's singles and Duncan's triple put the Reds one run behind with a man on third and one out. But Causey prevented the scoring of the tying run, and Boston won 4 to 3. The score:

It scarcely could be called slow, however. There only was a gentle breeze in the faces of the sprinters, when they took their marks for the trial heats of the 100 yard dash, the first event on the programme. The pole lane of the track was so rough it was not used in the sprints.

Harry Williams of the Spokane A. C., Loren Murchison of the N. Y. A. C., Frank Conway of the Morningglades A. C., Joe Loomis and T. T. Hoskins of the Chicago A. A., Pete White of the Salem Crescent A. C. and Ferdie Motley of the Meadowbrook club, were the contestants in the 100 yard dash. Fred Kelly of the Chicago A. A. and Earl Thompson of the Boston A. The race was a thriller, with Earl Thompson of the Boston A. A., Joe Loomis of the Chicago A. A. and Fred Kelly of the New York A. C. fighting it out with Simpson till the last two yards. Simpson won the race.

Chicago fans went wild when Ray and Fall, following up their great race in the one mile event, made the start in the half mile also. Homer Baker of the Gloucester A. C. was the favorite, but he was beaten by both Ray and Fall in the battle down the stretch.
